WCC offers club involvement

by Carl F. Auvil

Wayne Community College offers a number of clubs that can provide students with that extra edge to college life.

Clubs also provide excellent chances to work with the college faculty in overcoming problems. And let's not forget that clubs can be FUN.

Clubs recognized by the Student Government Association follow:

MCAE

(Multi-Cultural Association for Enrichment)

The MCAE is an organization striving for the UNITY of ALL! Its chief objectives are to promote the intellectual, career, social, and moral development of WCC students; to promote educational programs; and to assist with various student needs such as transportation information, financial advising, and tutorial assistance.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

The Agriculture Club is striving to promote all facets of agriculture throughout the community. The club recently attended the N.C. State Fair in Raleigh, N.C. The club's State Fall Conference is on November 17 & 18 in Washington, N.C. The National Conference will be in March in Kansas City, Kansas. Dale Davis is Vice-President on the National Level. The club is currently gearing up to receive their Thanksgiving and Christmas basket donations.

Phi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda is a national organization for business students at the college level.

Its basic purpose is to provide opportunities for students to develop competencies for business and office occupations. The North Carolina State Chapter has nearly 1,500 members in over 42 local chapters at colleges and universities across the state.

Richard Spivey, Rose Brock, and David Deakle(Advisors), Martha O'Neal(Pres.), Willie Sawrey, (Vice-Pres.), Tracy Finch(Sec.), Ron Nasser (Tres.).

Phi Theta Kappa

The Phi Theta Kappa Fraternity is a nationally recognized scholastic organization whose purpose is to encourage scholarship in junior colleges. Upsilon Chi members are active in numerous campus and community service projects. They participate in state and national conventions and maintain close social ties with their fellow scholars on campus.

Ann Spicer(Advisor), Kristy Summerfield(Pres.), Kevin Baker (V-Pres.), Kathy Yovish (Sec.), Dee Riedeberg (Tres.).

SADHA

(Student American Dental Hygienists Association)

The purpose of SADHA is to keep students informed of the events that take place on the National level. A project of the club is to clean teeth for all WCC students at only $3.00 per student.

Linda Chitty(Advisor), Lynn Johnson(Pres.), Tammy Justice (V-Pres.), Jennifer Collins (Sec.), Karen Justice (Tres.).

Nurses Association

The Student Nurses' Association is a national organization made up of individual, state, and local units. It is designed to introduce the student nurse into the scope, potential, and current developments in nursing.

Peggy Rose(Pres.), Kathy Wade (V-Pres.), Laura Casey(Sec.), Dana Iwaniuk(Tres.).

Freshman Class

Bob Levasseur(Pres.), Missy Pye (V-Pres.), Sharon Lanier(Sec.), Lorraine Bynum(Tres.).

Flying Bisons

The Flying Bisons is a group of WCC students, faculty members, and staff who are interested in the theory and general application of flying and general aviation. The club also provides students the ability to obtain their pilot's license at a reduced rate. They have an instructor and a Cessna 150. Participation outside of WCC may be allowed only if student participation becomes low.

Wilbur Kauff(Advisor), Jay Hinton (President)

Other great clubs include: DPMA

(Data Processing Management Association)

The DPMA club is for the promotion of data processing in all kinds of business. Awareness and Knowledge of the use of computers is the main objective. Guest speakers and tours help accomplish the objectives.

Anyone interested in computers is invited to join.

William Johnson(Advisor), Mark Laing(Pres.), Pia McKenzie(V-Pres.), Mary Ann Wiggins(Sec.), Lisa Best(Tres.).

Second Wind

Second Wind supports all non-traditional students(students that have been out of school for a while). The group helps these students in their adjustment to their new roles.
