

Dr. Albertson

Continued from 1

"Fanfare on Trumpet" to announce the procession. The procession was completed to George Frideric Handel's "Largo from Xerxes" performed by Wayne Community College music coordinator Steele Sasser on piano.

Sasser also performed "Trumpet Tune" by Henry Purcell for the recessional.

Kristin Shearin, who is a 2003 Wayne Community College graduate and a 2007 N.C. School of the Arts graduate, sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

College symbols were carried in the procession.

The academic mace was carried by senior faculty member Rachel B. Hall, head of the Nursing Department.

Yvonne B. Goodman represented the alumni and carried the charter of the college.

Ms. Goodman is the former associate vice president for student services and a member of the college's class of 1971

Student Government Association President Corey A. Harris carried the medallion of the office of president.

Members of the SGA and Ambassadors served as greeters and ushers.

At the end of the ceremony, Mr. Cox announced the establishment of the Hall-Albertson Endowed Scholarship.

Her husband, Dr. Woody Albertson, has established the scholarship in her honor.

It has also been established in memory of "the people who made us what we are today," the couple's parents.

Anyone can contribute to the scholarship fund.

"We hope it will be nurtured and grow along with the students it assists and will thrive as a testament to all of us who encourage dreams and create better realities," Mr. Cox said.

Adult High School students honored

Wayne Community College's Adult High School Program has honored 36 students for outstanding academic achievement in the Fall I and II sessions.

The students listed below earned a place on the program's honors or scholars lists.

Scholars List

To be named to the Scholars List, students must have taken at least two courses in the eight-week session and earned no grade lower than an A.

Recognized for Fall I were:

Edward Clay of Pikeville; Lorraine Giles and Dominique McAlphin of Dudley; Shanella Lacey of Mount Olive; and Toneika Holloway, Cheryl Jackson, Beth Massey, Thomas Smith, Melisa Weeks, Ershala Whitfield and Jasmine Yelverton of Goldsboro.

Recognized for Fall II were:

Evelio Aguilar of Mount Olive; and Toneika Holloway, Ciara Jordan, Laquan Lewis, Salena Mayo, Kathleyn Smith, Ershala Whitfield and Jasmine Yelverton of Goldsboro.

Honors List

To be named to the Honors List, students must have taken at least two courses in the eight-week session and earned no grade lower than a B.

Honored for Fall I were Ryan Jefferson of Mount Olive; Leslie Rumbley of Dudley; Mandy Warren of Seven Springs; Andrew Moore and David Howell of LaGrange; Jami Powell of Lucama; and Nicole

Currie, Roneka Darden, Lisette Davalos, Sumlee Hensley, Kathleyn Smith and Darjan Spasojevic of Goldsboro.

Also recognized for Fall II were:

Asia King of Pikeville, Summer Elliott and Lorraine Giles of Dudley; Shanella Lacey of Mount Olive; Josh Johnston of LaGrange; Felicia Jones of Lucaman; and Karin Caceres, Alyson Decena, Ashely Williams, Lacy Hewitt, Beth Massey, Ryun Smith and Melisa Weeks of Goldsboro.

Honors program

Continued from 1

smaller class sizes and a more individualized student/teacher relationship, she says.

The college can be assured that this new program will only grow, attracting an increasing number of students as well as a broader selection of honors classes to choose from, Mrs. Bass says.

More information about the program can be obtained from Mrs. Bass at 735-5152, ext. 309. Her e-mail address is tbass@waynecc.edu.

TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE,
ONE NIGHT A WEEK.

MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE

PROGRAMS FOR WORKING ADULTS

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION
BEGINS MARCH 10TH

MODULAR RELIGION MAJOR,
BEGINS APRIL 15TH

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION
BEGINS MAY 15TH

HERITAGE PLUS ASSOCIATE'S DEGREE
BEGINS MAY 19TH

MANAGEMENT OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS
BEGINS MAY 20TH

MANAGEMENT AND ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
BEGINS MAY 29TH

HEALTH CARE MANAGEMENT
BEGINS JUNE 23RD

1-800-NEW-GOAL

www.moc.edu

