Traffic Rules and Regulations Released

The student government along with the assistance of the Dean of administrative services recently drew up the following traffic rules and regulations for Wilkes Community College.

1. Personnel operating vehicles on the campus should be aware of the authorized speeds, parking spaces, and other regulations.

2. The college access road from highway 268 to the parking lots is under jurisdiction of the State Highway Department. Maximum speeds which are established by the state ordinance are as posted.

3. Driving of vehicles, including motorcycles, on sidewalks and unpaved areas of the campus is prohibited.

4. Parking: Vehicles may be parked in the following places, (any unauthorized parking without permission will thereby result in a parking ticket).

a. Lower Lot: Reserved for faculty and staff only.

b. Lots A, B, C, D, and E: Student parking only.

c. Other: Parking area directly in front of Thompson Hall is for Administrative parking only. Parking area across from Hayes Hall is reserved for visitors and service vehicles.

d. Do not park on curb.

e. "Backing" in is prohibited.

f. Vehicle registration stickers must be displayed on the left rear windshield, (Driver's side.)

g. Do not block traffic lanes or other vehicles.

Fines: Parking tickets will not be effective until Jan. 5, 1970 and until a designated date or the time in which it takes to prepare parking lot E. Once parking Lot E is available for parking, traffic tickets will become

The annual Christmas parade was held on Friday, December 5, with fifty floats and gaily decorated cars parading down the streets of Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro.

Featured in the parade were the newly elected superlatives at Wilkes Community College.

Miss Wilkes Community College, Jarrett Poe rode in an open convertible, as did Miss Cougar, Debbie Wilson.

The Cougar cheerleaders also had a spot in the parade, riding through the streets as a group.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Circle K Elects Sweetheart

In a recent meeting of the Circle K Club at Wilkes Community College, the club took up the annual chore of selecting their sweetheart to reign for the school year.

After careful consideration, the club elected Barbara Lankford, a freshman college transfer student at WCC.

Miss Lankford is the second sweetheart to be picked by the young club, succeeding Gwynda Joines as the Circle K's only honorary female member to the club.

Barbara is a graduate of West Wilkes High School and lives in Millers Creek.
