Student Government Association Chooses Leaders

The students at Wilkes Community College took on the task of choosing new Student Government Association officers and Sophomore Class officers last week as they elected Charles Mitchell, vice president of the Freshman Class for this year, to the post of president of the SGA for the coming year.

The election took on a different aspect than it did last year and showed much more interest as only one office was uncontested in the race, and there was an even split between the college transfer division and the technical division in representation.

The new president is a rising sophomore at WCC and is in the college transfer division, the first president from college transfer in three years. Mitchell defeated Allen Vannoy in the race for the presidency.

Sandra Russell, a freshman majoring in Business Administration was victorious in the

Phi Beta Lambda Sigma Iota Unit Installs Officers

The Sigma Iota Chapter of the Phi Beta Lambda of Wilkes Community College was officially chartered on Wednesday night, the 22nd of April, in the Teaching Auditorium. Along with the chapter chartering ritual was the installation of the four new officers.

Eight members of the Appalachian State University club were present to take part in the ceremony led by the club president, Bruce Shephard.

The newly formed WCC chapter, is dedicated to students who wish to pursue a career in business. The club stresses leadership of and cooperation with other people.
