WCC Slips In Fourth Quarter

Wilkes Community College played a very good game against Gaston College last Wednesday night at Lincoln Heights, but the Cougar's attack fell short. The Cougars made a fine showing until the last quarter when the Gaston team rallied to finish the game victorious.

Coach Linney told the COUGAR CRY that he believes Gaston Tech has the potential to win the conference. Gaston has a pretty good offense as well as a tight defence and, overall, post a real threat. The statistics for the Cougars show that Steve Johnson led the Cougars with seventeen points. Jr. Jackson was next with twelve, followed by J. P. Parsons with eight points, Dave Myers with ten, Rick Gardner with five, Anthony Hill with four, and Roger Billings with two points.

The Cougars now stand one and one overall. Coach Linney feels that his team is shaping up now and that their performance will continue to improve as time progresses. The Cougar's next home game will be in the YMCA Jan. 7th at eight o'clock. Come out and support your Cougars.

Markle's Monologue

The song second to none this issue has been in the charts for a solid twelve weeks, and it is a popular request. The cut is from Cher, the better half of the Sonny and Cher duo, and is that ringing sound "Gypsies, Tramps and Thieves." The number two spot on the WCC Top-Ten is a mixed breed; a young lady by the name of Melany has mixed a little bit of "bubble gum" with the bouncy sound associated with the 30's and 40's, and has come up with "A Brand New Key." The number three spot is filled by a group that has been around for several years, Three Dog Night, with the predicted gold sound of "An Old Fashion Love Song." Moving right along, we come to the number four slot, which is filled by The Grass Roots with "Two Divided By Love." The half-way slot on this edition's countdown is held by another song that is both an oldie and a popular request. "Have You Seen Her?" by the Chi-Lites is anchored in this position.

The number six spot is filled by John Lennon and the Plastic Ono Band's newest release, "Imagine." The theme song from that super SOUL flick "Shaft," as sung by Isaac Hayes, holds down the number seven spot. The popular request song by Bread, "Baby I'm I Want You," is riding well in eighth place. Sly and The Family Stone has come up with a potentially big one after several months of inactivity. Their new one, "Family Affair," has already soared into the number one position on the BILLBOARD charts, and it is currently number nine at WCC. Meanwhile, the low man on the "totem pole" is Cat Stevens with "Peace Train."

There are no concerts coming up in this area at the present time, so I'll use this space to invite you to attend the Christmas Dance, and to wish all the readers and their families a very Merry Christmas and the Happiest of New Years.
