Commencement Marshals

The ten rising sophomores who have maintained the highest scholastic averages during their freshman year are honored by being named Commencement Marshals. The Marshal who has the highest academic record is designated Chief Marshal.

The following freshman students will serve as Marshals for the graduating exercises on May 24, in the College Gym:

Victor Spencer, Chief; Jorena Barnes; Debra Bumgarner; Patricia Chambers; Carol Gregory; Polly Jones; James Meeker; Nancy Neaves; Cecil Stewart; and Marie Williams.

Criminal Justice Program

The Criminal Justice Program at W.C.C. prepares students to become a law enforcement officer. The program offers courses that are both theoretical and practical in order to help prepare the students for positions in police work. The program is a Two-Year program in which the student learns to be dedicated to his profession.

Intramural News

There has been two intramural events held this spring at WCC. Four teams participated in the softball intramurals: the Yankee Express, the Rollers, Mu Alpha Theta, and the United Nations. Captain Skippy Phillips led his team, the Yankee Express to the championship. The Rollers came in second, Mu Alpha Theta in third, and the United Nations in fourth. Also the first ping-pong tournament is being held at WCC. There are four divisions. There is a boys' singles and doubles, and a girls' singles and doubles. Tournament play is now going on in the Student Commons. Good luck to all participants!!

New Enrollment, 1979

Throughout the summer quarter, Wilkes Community College will hold Orientation and Placement Survey sessions for Freshmen who will be registering for courses next fall. The Orientation and Placement Day the student attends will include the following: Nelson-Denny Reading Test; Comparative Quiddance and Placement Computation and the Applied Arithmetic Test or the Elementary Algebra Test; a "teacher-made" evaluation of English Composition skills and writing sample; a coffee, coke, cookie break; small group discussion and information session; and a campus tour.

Freshman Registration will be held on August 28, 1979, and will be explained in detail on Orientation and Placement Day. A total of sixteen orientation sessions have been scheduled throughout the summer quarter. Further enrollment information may be obtained through Student Services at Wilkes Community College, Drawer 120, Collegiate Drive, Wilkesboro, NC 28697.
