

From The Editor Graduation

In this, the final issue of the Cougar Cry, I would like to give credit where credit is due. The newspaper could have never been published if it had not been for the dedication of many people.

The Cry had three great advisors who assisted in every way possible. They stood by the staff when the going became really difficult. At this time the Cry seems to be blessed with reporters, but very few have been here since the beginning. For those who grown with the newspaper, THANK YOU!!! These few reporters have done the articles that no one else would do. In the beginning there were times when the newspaper seemed to sink, but with the help of these special people the Cougar Cry finally rose. A special thanks goes to "Parker" who always managed to deliver all the pictures I needed!

I would also like to apologize for all the mistakes made during the year. Many of these mistakes were made by the staff and many were made elsewhere.

Overall, it has been a good year and I sincerely hope you have enjoyed reading the Cry as much as I have enjoyed working on it.
