Who's Who Selected for WCC

Neaves Chosen Homecoming Queen

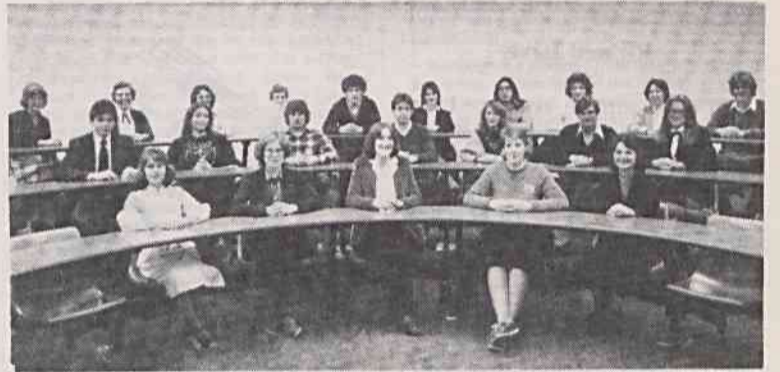

JANINE NEAVES
WCC Homecoming Queen

Homecoming 1981

On January 24, WCC played host to Davidson Community College for what proved to be a very exciting and rewarding basketball game. During halftime of the game, students, faculty, staff, and alumni enjoyed the 1981 Homecoming Court Presentation. All were pleased as last year's queen, Miss Lena Lovette, crowned Miss Janine Neaves of Ashe County as the 1981 Homecoming Queen. Joining Janine as her court were Miss Denise Rhodes, Maid-of-Honor; Miss Debbie Gwaltney, Sophomore Attendant; and Miss Kim Mecimore, Freshman Attendant. There were many well-deserving contestants, and each felt honored by being chosen.

All Sounds Like Greek to Me

Auditions for the Greek classic, Medea, are to be held Wednesday, February 11 and Friday, February 13. The production will be done from an original translation by Elizabeth Kelso. Showtimes will be at 8:00 p.m. on April 9, 10, 11, and 12. There will also be a special matinee for the public schools.

WCC Who's Who Selected

Students for inclusion in Who's Who in American Junior Colleges were chosen from the Wilkes Community College Sophomore Class on January 5. These students were chosen by a select committee from Wilkes Community College on the following national basis: participation in school activities, scholarship, leadership ability, grade point average, and future usefulness and potential in society. The honor was limited to twenty-two of our sophomores this year, and those individuals selected are: Cheryl Beshears, Nancy Boggs, Billy Bowles, Brenda Bumgarner, Jamie Cline, Mike Cogdill, Debbie Eldreth, Debbie Eller, Alan Grant, Mary Markle, Virginia Pace, David Parker, Bonnie Phipps, Kristi Phipps, Delane Quiver, Shawn Redding, Owen Schweers III, Jeff Shaw, Eileen Tomeny, Elizabeth Wagoner, Michelle Watkins, and Jeanne Williams.

Congratulations on being selected to represent Wilkes Community College in this prestigious national honor!

Whenever I try to sock some away For that inevitable rainy day, My long range plans all fade and fizzle From taking care of the daily drizzle.

Personality Profile kicks off the year 1981 with a "very interesting but great personality." Personality Profile brings to its readers, yet another outstanding member of the student body. I'm speaking of Phillip Greene from Deep Gap, North Carolina. Here's the rundown on Phillip.

Phillip attended West Wilkes High School in Millers Creek, North Carolina and graduated from there in 1976. Shortly thereafter, in August of 1976, Phillip joined the United States Army. After the "hard" eight-week military basic training, Phillip was transferred to Frankfurt, Germany. While there, he was placed in the military intelligence program. Phillip commented, "The work was very challenging, and we had to be on our toes at all times." During the two-and-a-half years in Germany, Phillip played in highly competitive tennis tournaments for the Frankfurt International Tennis Club. He was also a member of the Frankfurt American Tennis Club whereas he traveled throughout Europe.

In August of 1979 when Phillip completed his military service, he decided to enter Wilkes Commu-ity College. Phillip is enrolled in the College Transfer program working towards his Associate in Arts degree. After graduation, he plans to transfer to one of three colleges - Gardner-Webb, Wingate, or Campbell College. After completing study at a senior institution, Phillip hopes to work for the state department. He also plays intercollegiate tennis here at WCC.

Phillip's hobbies include tennis, skiing, and other physical sports. If you haven't met Phillip Greene, then you're really missing a great guy.
