

Student Membership in IAPCP

The prestigious International Academy of Professional Counseling and Psychotherapy (I.A.P.-C.P.) is now accepting applications for membership from highly qualified undergraduate and graduate students. The Academy is a multi-disciplinary, international organization dedicated to the worldwide pursuit of excellence in counseling and psychotherapy. It numbers among its Diplomates many of the leaders and innovators within the counseling and psychotherapy professions. On The Academy's Advisory Council are many internationally renowned individuals such as Dr. Aaron Beck (cognitive therapy), Dr. William Glasser (reality therapy), Dr. William Masters (sex therapy), Dr. Thomas Gordon (parent effectiveness training), Dr. Albert Ellis (rational emotive therapy), Dr. Hans Eysenck (research and evaluation), Dr. William Kroger (hypnosis), Dr. Nathaniel Branden (biocentric therapy), Dr. Joseph Wolpe (behavior therapy), Dr. Harold Greenwald (psychoanalytic therapy), Dr. Arnold Lazarus (multi modal therapy), as well as many others.

Requirements for student membership include a minimum of 45 undergraduate credits, a superior academic record (usually indicated by a minimum of a B average) and appropriate faculty recommendations. Benefits of student membership generally include an attractive certificate suitable for framing, listing in an international directory, periodic newsletters, announcements of workshops and training programs and graduate school placement information. Student membership in IAPCP should be of particular interest and benefit to individuals considering a career in psychology, medicine, social work, guidance or related mental health or health care fields.

For additional information and applications materials, please contact The Academy, Student Membership Division, 2036 Blairmore Road, Lexington, Kentucky 40502, U.S.A., (516) 546-6646.

Spring Fling

By: Michael Windsor

The annual Spring Fling sponsored by the Student Government Association was held on April 8, 1982. Because of inclement weather conditions, the festivities were held in the gym where Cirkus entertained the crowd. Many of the clubs here at the college sponsored booths for the purpose of fund-raising. The Math Club sold science and mathematics books. Bill Nichols of the Art Club sketched portraits. Several other clubs fed the crowd attending the Spring Fling: Ye Hosts sold hobo sandwiches; Circle K, drinks; and Phi Beta Lambda, hot dogs and drinks. Overall, the Spring Fling was a total success even though unfavorable weather prevailed outdoors. The Student Government Association would like to thank the students, faculty, and staff for their support of this year's Spring Fling.

"Just when I thought I knew all life's answers, they went and changed all the questions."

5. Come by the Student Services Office.

Bookstore Manager Leads Conference

Betty R. Thompson, Manager of the Wilkes Community College bookstore, Wilkesboro, NC, was moderator for one of the educational sessions at the Annual Meeting and Trade Fair of the National Association of College Stores which was held at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel, April 11-16. The session was entitled, "Better Space Utilization for Smaller Stores."

A total of 4,358 persons gathered for the educational, business oriented and social meeting. The theme of the meeting was "The Turning Point," and featured a number of headliners including Boston University President Dr. John R. Silber, commentator, author and editor Austin Kiplinger, and authors James Carroll, Stephen and Tabitha King, and Frank Herbert. The Trade Fair featured 442 exhibitors who displayed their books, products and services in 640 booths for eighteen hours over a period of 3 days.

Always active in NACS affairs, Betty Thompson has been a member of the Smaller Stores Committee and the Community College Stores Committee.

The National Association of College Stores is headquartered in Oberlin, Ohio, and serves 2,504 member college/university stores in the United States, Canada, and fifteen foreign countries. NACS-CORP is a wholly owned subsidiary of NACS and is a wholesale paperback book distributor and magazine subscription fulfillment bureau which services member stores.

Earn Money by Tutoring and Get College Credit, too!

Are you dependable?

Do you like working with people? Are you a high academic student in one area? Do you like helping someone else to learn? Do you need to work and earn college credits, too?

Yes?...Then a Special Services tutoring job may be just what you're looking for!

Special Services needs twelve (12) tutors each academic year to help WCC students in their studies. Tutors work by the hour for $3.35 an hour, and they must be available for at least three (3) hours per day. Some students need tutoring each week on a regular basis while others need tutoring only once in a while.

Tutors may elect to receive a college credit for working. This means that for time on the job, college credit is earned while being enrolled in Cooperative Education. Special Services Coordinator Barbara Holt and Cooperative Education Coordinator Donalee Davis team together for the work-credit arrangement.

Tutor applications for academic year 1982-83 are being taken through September 10. Please see Mrs. Holt in Room 205, Thompson Hall.

Editor's Corner

By: Bob Watts

Spring is usually a time for beginnings. However, I have reached an ending. My career as editor has come to it's close and it is with a strong mixture of honor and sorrow that I write this final editorial. I would like to thank all of the people who worked so hard and helped me so much, especially Lana Jo Chambers, co-editor, and Melanie Craven. I feel that I am leaving the newspaper in capable hands. Thank you for allowing me to be your editor.

SGA President's Corner

The Student Government Association is on the way for 1982-83. The first meeting for the newly elected officers was held on May 11 with many topics being discussed.

During the upcoming year, I would like to encourage your participation and involvement. The SGA is one of the most active organizations on campus and more student involvement will strengthen it for the benefit of the student.

How do you get involved? Look on the SGA bulletin board in Thompson Hall for the time of the next meeting. Come and see what is happening that will effect you.
