

BASKETBALL PREVIEW

By: Keith Johnson

The Wilkes Community College Cougars are underway practicing for the new 1982-'83 season. Many are enthusiastic about the upcoming season with 13 players coming out and five members being from last year's team. Coach Joe Linney commented, "This year we have a little size, a little more quickness, a little more talent, and few more players." Coach Linney also stated he was expecting a whole lot from the team that he has. The 1982-'83 Cougars start off their season this year with an away game with Bluefield College on November 30. Everyone is encouraged to come out and support our Cougars.

The 1982-'83 Cougars are: Mike Blackburn, Sophomore, West Wilkes; Greg Gilreath, Sophomore, East Wilkes; David Leek, Sophomore, North Cabarrus; Kerry Lewis, Freshman, Northwest Ashe; Charles Mitchell, Sophomore, East Wilkes; Jeff Mathis, Freshman, East Wilkes; Carl Kellis, Freshman, North Cabarrus; Tony Winebarger, Sophomore, Watauga; Scott Tarkenton, Transfer, (ASU) West Wilkes; Ronnie Spicer, Freshman, North Wilkes; Jeff Mitchell, Freshman, North Wilkes; Mickey Wagoner, Sophomore, Star-mount; Tony Witherspoon, Freshman, Beaver Creek.

Phillip Morris Marketing/ Communications Competition will Award a Total of $7,000 to Students

New York, N.Y., September 1982 — Philip Morris Incorporated has announced its Fourteenth Annual Marketing/Communications Competition for Students. The competition provides an opportunity for students, nationwide, to sharpen their marketing and communications skills.

A first place award of $2,000, a second place award of $1,000, and a third place award of $500 will be presented to the winning teams in both the graduate and undergraduate categories. In addition, student representatives and faculty advisors will be invited to Philip Morris World Headquarters in New York City to discuss their projects with Philip Morris executives.

Students are invited to develop marketing/communications projects related to Philip Morris Incorporated or any of its non-tobacco products and operations. A committee of distinguished marketing/communications experts will judge selected entries. They are: Dr. Donald C. Carroll, Dean, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania; Louis T. Hagopian, Chairman, N W Ayer ABH International; Mary Wells Lawrence, Chairman, Wells, Rich, Greene; William Ruder, President, William Ruder, Inc.; James C. Bowling, Senior Vice President and Director of Corporate Affairs, Philip Morris Incorporated; John T. Landry, Senior Vice President and Director of Marketing, Philip Morris Incorporated; John A. Murphy, Group Executive Vice President, Philip Morris Incorporated and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Miller Brewing Company.

The competition is divided into graduate and undergraduate categories, and is open to students currently enrolled in any accredited college or university. Under-

Myra Cockerham and Greg Burgess

Ping-Pong Tournament

By: Earl Burgess

Well, this year's intramural season is off and running with the opening WCC Ping-Pong tournament. The winners were determined by the best two out of three games, single elimination. On September 17, Greg Gilreath downed Mark Combs, Manuel Prince took Eric Lester and Bradley Stokes defeated Junius Parsons. September 20, Dennis Bryant beat Mike McMillian, Odie Gilbert was used by Mike Taylor, Julius Parsons took it to Bill McLain and Scott Tarkenton advanced by defeating Rick Adams.

In the second round of action on September 21, Greg Burgess storms by Bradley Stokes, and Greg Gilreath put Manuel Prince out of the running.

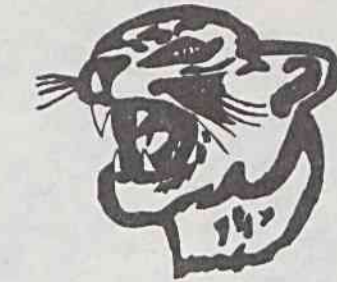

On Wednesday, September 22, Mike Taylor sweeps past Dennis Bryant and Julius Parsons slaps Scott Tarkenton with his final defeat.

In the semi-final rounds on September 23 and 24, Greg Burgess hands Greg Gilreath a well-fought loss. While Mike Taylor does a number on Julius Parsons to put him in the finals.

Thursday, September 30, a day for Greg Burgess to remember as he took Mike Taylor for the Championship of the WCC Men's Single Ping-Pong Tournament.

The 1982 Women's Singles

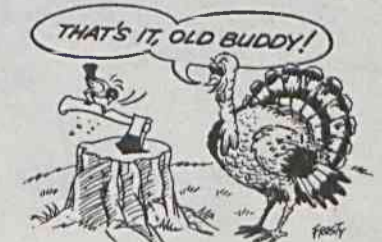

Staff Profile: Brenda Moore

Brenda Moore has been an instructor in the English Department here at WCC for several years now, and she enjoys her work tremendously. She went to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and later received her Masters at Appalachian State University. Brenda points out that she feels that it is very important for a person to have many interests and to develop these interests to their fullest potential. When talking to her, it becomes evident that she lives out this idea. Recently she spent one weekend canoeing on the New River, and the very next weekend she was in Winston at the opera Madame Butterfly. She collects rocks with which she has created a beautiful decorative feature for her home. A few of her many other interests are gold panning, snow skiing, horticulture, and hiking. She enjoys the music of Joe Cocker, Bobby Dyland, and Delbert McClinton, and her favorite movie is Conrad's Lord Jim. She loves going to movies, reading, and any outdoor activity.

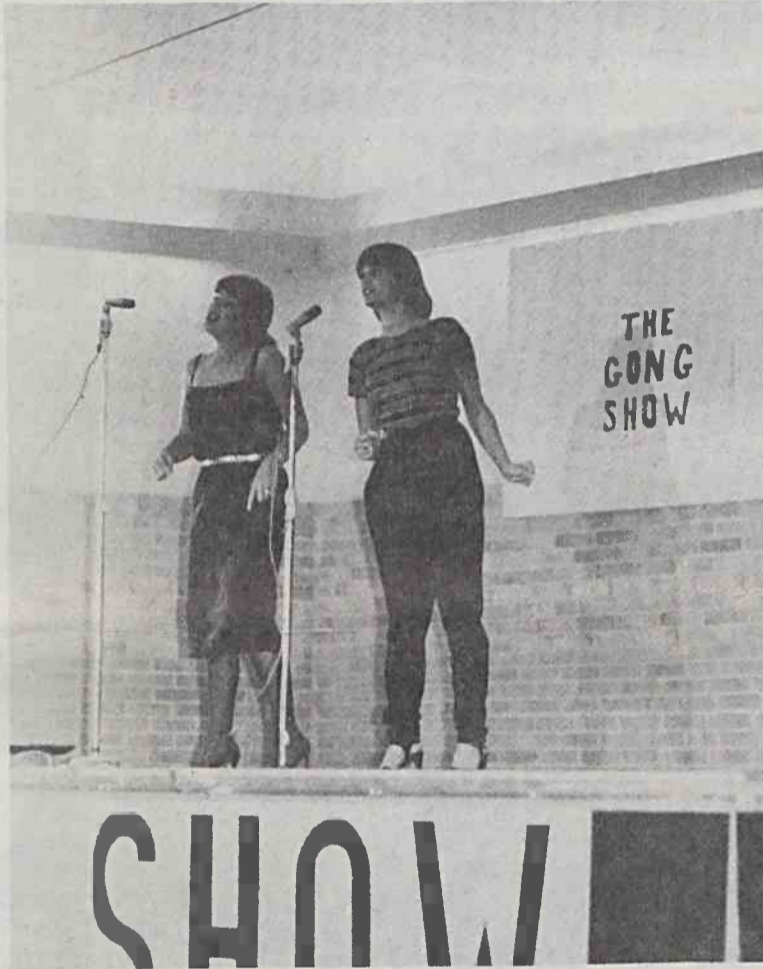

Brenda teaches English courses such as World Literature, Oral Communications and Composition. She explains that she enjoys all of her classes, but Literature is her favorite. She finds the study of the myth and archetypal patterns in Literature very interesting. The nicest thing about Brenda is that even though she is an instructor and she has her Masters, she is still eager to learn about new things. Recently she got interested in stocks and bonds and she enrolled in a course here at WCC to learn more about investments. Also Brenda along with Dianne Wagoner (another English instructor here at WCC) attended a Carl Jung seminar this summer where they studied under Paul Walder, a Jungian analyst from the Carl Jung Institute in Zurich, Switzerland and under Bernie McDonald, a noted scholar in Jungian psychology.

When asked what happiness means to her, Brenda replies with several things that mean a great deal to her: her new German Shepherd puppy, wheelbarrows, because she so enjoys working in her yard, yellow roses, pick ups, yoga, and traveling. In the last 5 years, she has been to all 50 states except Alaska, to Mexico, to Canada, to several islands in the Caribbean and is eager anywhere, anytime.

Brenda also made it clear that she loves teaching here and she gets a kick out of her students. If you haven't had the pleasure of being one of her students yet, be sure to meet her before you leave WCC. She is a very interesting person who has a great zest for life.

Mack Johnson

Karmen Choate and Kelly Tolbert
Gong Show Winners

The Gong Show

Even though it was not the scene at WCC, one might have thought it was Hollywood or bust. On Wednesday, October 7th, the Student Services along with U.N.C. of Holly Farms staged The Gong Show. Some twenty performers entertained a huge audience of over 200 people. A select panel of judges rated each act according to its originality, presentation, length, and reaction from the crowd. The three judges were Harpo Marx, played by Bob Johnston, Mini Pearl, played by Betty Thompson, and Dolly Parton played by Barbara Peak.

The acts along with their point totals and places were as follows. Richard Shumate who played the guitar and sang Ocean Breezes, twenty-one points and fourth place; Beckey Kerley and Tammy Smith in a jazz dance, twenty-two points and tied for second place. Dr. Thompson, John German, David Hayes, and Sam Sink in "The Fabulous Four Barber Shop Quartet." They were unfortunately gonged. Teresa Church sang You Light Up My Life, and received twenty-two points and tied for second. Andy Pardue, Randy Calhoun, and Danny Roten were the Flamer in a dance act. They were also unfortunately gonged. Scott Lakey, Gary Katzs, Jenny Bower, and Robin Sheets were the Sex Dwarfs. They received twenty points and fifth place. Jana Hall sang The Rose, but did not finish. Robby Choate, Jeff McCrew, Jeff Wallace, Scott Caudle, and Wayne Macemore as Lovetoy received fifteen points and sixth place. The "Grand Prize" winner of $75.24 was Kelly Tolbert and Karmen Choate as Faze two. Their routine consisted of a dance act. They finished with a total of twenty-three points.

In an interview with Alan Whittington, he noted that this was one of the best activities that Student Services has ever sponsored. The turnout was fabulous, and the atmosphere was one of enthusiasm and excitement. When asked about the future plans of the Gong Show, Alan said there are tentative plans of perhaps having another show in the spring. Also there are definite plans of having another show next fall. In closing, Alan Whittington along with Student Services would like to thank all the students and faculty for supporting this event.

Answers to last paper's puzzle:

Tony - age 57
Bud - age 64
John - age 81
Bob - age 51
Sam - age 27