

Report of Faculty Auction
(Held December 3, 1997)

The Phi Theta Kappa Faculty "Elf" Auction held December 3, 1997, was a huge success. Over 50 faculty members were "auctioned off" to students. The faculty then had to perform two hours of on campus time for the "purchaser." The event was not only a fundraiser for Phi Theta Kappa, but also a service to the college during the hectic week of early registration for Spring Semester.

Some duties performed included:

- Ms. Carroll helped her purchaser to complete a resume;
- Mr. Petrie gave a computer tutoring session;
- Mr. Cooke provided a Biology tutoring session;
- Mr. Curtis delivered a speech in Dr. Staten's communication class;
- Dr. Staten had to "dress" in overalls and pig-tails;
- Mr. Richey was supposed to present a speech in Dr. Staten's class, - but "bartered" with another to escape the ordeal; and
- Mr. and Mrs. Mann had to accompany their "purchaser" for a lunch treat.

Chad Reeves (Sophomore, age 19): Chad lives by the philosophy, "A waste is a terrible thing to mind." He has played Lyle Stryker in When You Comin' Back Red Ryder? (which is bringing him to ACTF) and Scrooge in this year's production of A Christmas Carol. Chad is deciding between UNC-W and ASU after he finishes WCC. He loves the theater because he loves to entertain people.

Amanda Osborne (Freshman, age 19): Amanda has been involved with theatre for three years. She has played Mattie in The Person I Once Was in high school and played Mrs. Fezziwig and Mrs. Goodheart in WCC's production of the musical A Christmas Carol. She also was the lighting operator for When You Comin' Back Red Ryder?. She loves the theatre because anything can happen and the imagination can run wild.
