

Student Government Association Officers Elected At Wilkes Community College

The Wilkes Community College Student Government Association recently held officer elections for the 1998-99 school year. The SGA is the official representative of the student body and is responsible for coordinating a variety of events for students. The following people were elected to a position within SGA.

Susan Miller, elected President, is a graduate of Beaver Creek High School. She is enrolled in the Associate in Arts p rogram and is a member of Liberty Grove Baptist Church. She is the daughter of Kermit and Jane Miller of Deep Gap.

Josh White, elected Vice-President, is a graduate of East Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Architectural Technology program. This year he played on both the volleyball team and the basketball team. He is a member of Temple Hill United Methodist Church and is the son of Kim and Shirley White of Roaring River.

Alicia Blevins, elected Secretary, is a graduate of North Wilkes High School. She is enrolled in both the Criminal Justice program and the Information Systems – Programming Concentration program. She is a Sunday school teacher at the Rose of Sharon Church and is employed part-time at the McElwee & McElwee Law Firm. She is the daughter of Marcus and Emma Blevins.

Bradley Hayes, elected Treasurer, is a graduate of East Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Architectural Technology program. He was a member of this year's volleyball, basketball and baseball teams. He is employed part-time at Cheek's Market and is a member of Bethel Branch Church of Christ. He is the son of Tony and Brenda Hayes of North Wilkesboro.

Kendra Taylor, elected Sophomore Class President, is a graduate of West Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Associate in Arts program. She is the daughter of Larry and Robin Taylor of Wilkesboro.

Jaret Hemric, elected Sophomore Class Vice-President, is a graduate of East Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Associate in Arts program. He played on this year's basketball team and is a member of Peace Haven Baptist Church. He is the son of Greg and Terri Hemric of Hamptonville.

Bobby Triplett, elected Sophomore Class Treasurer, is a graduate of East Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Architectural Technology program. He is a member of Oak Level Baptist Church and served as an assistant wrestling coach this year at East Wilkes High School. He is the son of Mack Jr. and Nancy Triplett of Elkin.

Christy Riddle, elected as a Sophomore Senator, is a graduate of East Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Nursing program. She is a member of Bethel Branch Church of Christ and is the daughter of Gary and Jane Riddle of North Wilkesboro.

Scotty Lambert, elected as a Sophomore Senator, is a graduate of West Wilkes High School and is enrolled in the Electronics Engineering Technology program. This year he served as an assistant coach for the volleyball team and is employed part-time at Winn Dixie. He is a member of Bethel Branch Church of Christ and is the son of Dan and Sandy Lambert of Wilkesboro.

Rebecca Adams will be serving as a Sophomore Representative and is a graduate of North Wilkes High School. She is enrolled in the Associate in Arts program and is a member of Ar-

1998-99 SGA Executive Members

Josh White, Vice-President; Bradley Hayes, Treasurer; Susan Miller, President; Alicia Blevins, Secretary.

1998-99 SGA Members

Front Row L-R: Alicia Blevins, Jennifer Kiger, Susan Miller, Christy Riddle, and Patricia Jeffries. Back Row L-R: Jaret Hemric, Chad Hayes, Bobby Triplett, Steven Norris, James Blackburn, Bradley Hayes, Josh White, Brandon Morley. Not pictured: Kendra Taylor, Scotty Lambert, Rebecca Adams, Jason Carter and Neil Townsend.

(Continued on page 11)