

Several brave students lined up in the student center to have their caricature done. Whether you posed or watched, it was a great time!

Playing pool and just relaxing in the game room.

The new computer lab in Student Services is always a busy place.

