

More New Faces

By Carrie Rogers

Since our August issue, Wilkes Community College has added more new faculty and staff to its roster. The Cougar Cry would like to welcome these new employees to the College and wish them a very happy experience while they are here.

Ronald Dollyhite comes to Wilkes Community College from Catawba. He was previously employed as Catawba Nursery Manager for Duke Power in Terrell, NC. He is Lead Instructor in Horticulture. He has earned Associates Degrees in Agriculture Business, Agriculture Technology, and Horticulture from Surry Community College and graduated from Appalachian State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Technology.

Christopher Sowers comes to Wilkes Community College from Supply, NC, where he taught biology at Brunswick Community College, conducted environmental assessments, and worked as a researcher with the Gypsy Moth Program through the NC Department of Agriculture. Mr. Sowers received his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Biology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Melissa Hope Roberson has been employed at Wilkes Community College (WCC) as an Accounting Clerk. She is working to earn her Associate in Applied Science Degree in Accounting and Business Administration from Wilkes Community College. She plans to graduate in May, 1999. Prior to coming to WCC, Ms. Roberson was employed at First Union National Bank as a credit adjuster.

Tina Randleman Dula has been employed as Secretary/Documentation Specialist in the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) Program. She received her General Office Technical Specialty Diploma from WCC in 1996 and has been employed part-time with the college since that time.
