

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

We've heard a lot of talk about diversity on this campus. It seems like everywhere we turn, we hear this buzzword being thrown around. But how, exactly, do we define diversity? And are we really making strides toward a more diverse university?

For this edition of The Edge, our cover story investigates whether or not Elon walks the walk, or just talks the talk. It looks at how the university conceptualizes diversity and where we stand compared to other schools.

This edition also covers lighter pieces appropriate for the fall season: from tutorials on how to start a fire without matches to the best hot chocolate recipe, we've got you covered for the fast-approaching colder weather. Also, in honor of our 125th anniversary, we've pulled together the most notable fashion through the years. It ranks as my favorite #tbt thus far.

Thanks for reading!
