Guilford Defeats Elon in Scrub Game.

The Guilford kid team defeated the Elon kid team here Saturday night in a very interesting game of basket ball. The teams were evenly matched, and the closeness of the score held the interest throughout the game. At the end of the first half Guilford was in the lead by two points, the score being 10 to 8.

During the second half Elon came within one point of a tie several times, but Guilford was able to keep in the lead during all the game. Both teams made more points during the second half. Wood and Price starred for Guilford. Each shot four field goals, while Wood shot five foul goals. Smith, Lee and Finch each made one for Elon, the other points being gained on fouls. In this Elon outclassed Guilford, Smith shooting seven fouls for Elon. The final score was 23 to 17.

Basket Ball League.

In order to produce a strong, fast team each year in basket ball a college must have some means of training new men who are not able to make the 'varsity squad the first year. There are several ways in which the various colleges accomplish this, but one of the most effective methods is by a basket ball league. That is, let the boys interested in this game divide themselves into teams according to the floor on which they room, the dormitories, the section of the dormitory, or any other way that is acceptable to all. Then arrange a schedule so that the game may come at stated intervals, and keep the percentage of the games won and lost, so that they may appear each week in the columns of THE GUILFORDIAN. Thus, a friendly rivalry would be created that would heighten the enthusiasm of the majority of the students in this phase of athletics, and would be a means by which material for the 'varsity team would be constantly developing.

Doak Now Coaching.

The athletic cabinet consider themselves exceedingly fortunate in again securing the services of

Chas. G. Doak as head coach in basket ball. In the past as a student, "Chick" has helped win many a hard fought battle for Guilford. And later, returning as coach, he has produced some of the fastest base ball and basket ball teams that have ever represented any North Carolina college. His ability to choose men who develop into first team players has been of invaluable aid in building up the teams. For this reason we look forward with the steadfast belief that Guilford, with Doak at the head, will be represented by a strong team in basket ball.

Have You Paid?

Athletics at Guilford are controlled and financed by the student body, and it is the duty of each man, who considers himself a worthy student, to support the Athletic Association. A small fee of one dollar is charged per term and every man in college should show enough pride in his college teams to be willing to contribute this freely.

The Association cannot buy athletic supplies, cannot have teams of which we shall be proud, cannot keep things moving unless you pay your athletic fee. Do not let the treasurer have to visit you but once! The men who are running the Association get nothing for their work—not even your consideration very often. Let us look at this proposition squarely in the face, and say that Guilford will not be lacking in anything that goes to make strong teams this year, that is, if my support will prevent it!

Furthermore you are not supposed to use the Gym, the soccer field, the base ball field or goods, or the tennis courts until you have paid this fee. There is a Vigilance Committee appointed to look after this matter, so if you have not paid your dues, do not be surprised if you are asked off the field at any time. This is only fair. Do you expect to use the goods which other students have bought and be a parasite? Then resolve to support the Athletic Association and make Guilford keep up her usual place in athletics this year.

Guilford, like every other college Athletic Association, awards to the 'varsity men of the various teams the privilege of wearing the college letter. These men are due at least some distinction for their successful efforts, but do we at Guilford accord the letter proper respect? If anybody can wear a "G," as has been the case in the

THE ENTRANCE GATEWAY

Work has begun on the new entrance gateway—the gift to the college of the class of 1909. Already the front of the campus is taking on a new appearance. During the summer, preparations for this work steadily advanced. The road leading from the old post-office northwest, past the graded school building, has been changed so that it now begins at the lower corner of the brick store and comes into the old road directly west of the new meeting house. By this change the south boundary of the college grounds gets the full benefit of a square front, uncut with such numerous roads and by-roads as formerly.

In this plan of improvement the gateway will be located one hundred feet from the Greensboro road. By rounding off the corners of the two adjacent fields the entrance to the gateway will be triangular in shape. This work has been largely completed so that by constructing the gate the front of the grounds will be ready for the walks and grass.

The gateway itself will consist of two brick columns eleven feet in height, one on each side of the road, which is to retain its present width. The columns will rest on granite foundations and will be capped with granite. Two walks are to be constructed, one on each side of the road ten feet from the road running parallel with it to the point where a road turns in the direction of Archdale Hall. Each of the walks is to have two smaller columns—one on each side—built in similar manner to the large ones. Between each large column and the small column on the inside of each walk there will be a connecting wall of brick. Placed on this wall, to the left as you enter, a bronze plate will bear the dates 1837-1914. On the connecting wall to the right a similar plate will have the words, Class of 1909.

In this work the class is following the plan of Mr. Warren H. Manning, of Boston. The contractor is Mr. Frank Watson, whom many Guilfordians will remember as a fellow-student. It is expected that the work will be completed by the first of December.

past, is there any need to work for a letter? If you have not won a "G," you are not supposed to wear one. Take it off and do not sail under false impressions!

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The regular mid-week prayer meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was conducted last Thursday night by Dr. C. O. Meredith. He based his talk on the temptations of Christ in the Wilderness. All the seats were taken and Dr. Meredith's talk was listened to with a great deal of interest.

Thus far the average attendance of the study body in the dormitories at the Y. M. C. A. meetings has been between 85 and 90 per cent, and it is to be hoped that this high average can be maintained during the remainder of the year.

Won't you help to keep it up?

Y. W. C. A. PLAY COMING.

On Saturday evening, November 21, at 8 o'clock, in Memorial Hall, the Y. W. C. A. will present "Breezy Point," a comedy in three acts.

This is a bright, amusing little farce and well deserves the patronage of all Guilfordians.

On and after Nov. 16 tickets may be secured from Gladys Highfill, or at the hall on the evening of the entertainment. Tickets, 25 and 35c.

SONG RECITAL.

A recital of unusual note is scheduled for Saturday evening, November 14, at 8 o'clock in Memorial Hall, where Miss Dawson presents Mr. Hugh A. Stewart, '13, of Laurinburg, assisted by Mr. Harry Orr, of Charlotte. All Guilfordians who have heard Mr. Stewart will be glad to hear of his re-appearance at Guilford. The evening promises to be a real musical treat.

LITERARY SUPPLEMENT.

THE GUILFORDIAN wishes to make a special effort to issue a Thanksgiving Literary Supplement, and strongly urges all who have the slightest inclination toward writing, to exert themselves, and turn in their efforts to the Board, not later than November 20th.

Remember, fellow-students the appearance of this supplement rests entirely with you, unless you turn in the material, the Board cannot issue a supplement. Get busy!

Misses Lyda Sellars and Velma Paris, of Greensboro, spent last Friday afternoon here with Misses Kathryn and Maude White.
