THE PAYMENT OF FEES.

As students who wish to get the most from college we must support the various college organizations. These organizations, in order to be of any benefit whatever, must charge sufficient fees to defray their necessary expenses.

Before joining a society or the Y. M. C. A. we find out what the membership fee will be. Before we subscribe for the college paper we ask the subscription price.
And this year the boys voted the athletic fee upon themselves.
Every student then knows what his fees for the year will amount to and when they are due so why should we not count them as necessary expenses and pay them on time rather than postpone their payment until the last possible moment.

A good example of our tendency is to be found in the payment of the athletic fee this year. Although we voted this five dollar fee on ourselves with only eight dissenting votes and with the understanding that it would be due on November 7, so many of the boys have not yet paid this fee that the vigilance committee has been forced to post a warning that those who have not paid will be debarred from the use of all athletic equipment.

For those boys for whom it has been very inconvenient to pay this fee up to the present time I have no word of condemnation, but for those who could have paid and have not, this is an attempt to make you realize your negligence and correct it.

ZATASIAN NOTES.

The programmes of the last three meetings of the Zatasian Society have been brief, but entertaining. We find that the one who talks the longest does not always say the most; and, for that reason, we sometimes give our speakers a limited time in which to give their debates or other assignments. We have been having questions for debate that are of present-day interest. Our members show their ability to discuss questions which were, a little while ago, considered outside the realm of woman's interest.

We were delighted to have as visitors, at our last meeting, two old Zatasian members.

A committee was appointed to bring forward names for new officers at the next meeting.

Some of our members, who realize that we cannot live on mental feasts alone, have been giving us good things to eat and drink after the adjournment of society.

PERSONALS.
