THE GUILFORDIAN

VOLUME II

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., APRIL 12, 1916.

NUMBER 26

ATHLETICS

Guilford Wins From U. S. C., Wofford and Belmont.

Coach Fox and his baseball team returned Saturday afternoon from a week's trip into South Carolina. They were to have played six games during the week, but because of heavy rains they played only three. The team arrived at Columbia, S. C., Sunday afternoon ready for the game on the following day with the University of South Carolina. However it was raining the next day and there was no game. But on Tuesday the second game scheduled with the University was played. Guilford maintained her record in this game by winning from the University boys 6 to 2. Worth, Guilford's young pitcher, was the star player for his team. He not only pitched a great game but also got two clean hits out of four times to the bat.

From Columbia the team traveled to Spartanburg, where they met and defeated the Wofford College team Wednesday afternoon. This is what Thursday's Spartanburg Herald had to say about the game:

"In a snappy game, full of good features, Guilford defeated Wofford yesterday afternoon, 1 to 0. The contest was hotly fought from start to finish and the final outcome was always in doubt. * * * Zachary hurling for Guilford, rather out-pitched Eaddy, in that he was steadier and struck out more batsmen."

The team, after they had defeated Wofford, went to Belmont and likewise administered to them a stinging defeat on Thursday afternoon. Morris did the hurling, while Futrell led the batting, getting two hits out of four times up.

The line-up for the three games were as follows:

Y. W. C. A. Notes

By speaking very favorably of the work done by the old organization and pledging his support and co-operation to the new, Dr. Newlin began a very helpful talk to the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night.

The speaker began his discourse by reading a portion of the sixth chapter of Matthew. He stated in the outset that his talk would be short owing to the hour. The length, however, did not detract from the value of the lesson. He especially emphasized the fact that college is essentially the place for building character. The conditions existing twenty years ago in regard to the care of the religious life of students, compared to our modern Y. M. C. A. was clearly portrayed by the speaker. He stated that in his own college days no young man dared take more than that of a listener. A hopeful sign of the future is the interest men are taking in religion. The speaker concluded by encouraging every young man present to continue faithfully in the work.

DECLAMATION

CONTEST

EIGHT HIGH SCHOOLS REPRESENTED.

Eight High Schools were represented in the declamation contest held here under the auspices of the Young Men's Literary Societies on last Saturday evening. The affair was quite a success and each young man showed signs of splendid and careful training. They were an honor to the schools they represented.

Especially mention should be made of the first speaker, Gordon Ambler, of Winston-Salem. Many believed that he had won the prize when he had finished. He is an able speaker and seems at home on the platform as a speaker.

The program follows:

Instrumental solo—Good Night, Nexin—Elbert W. Fort

bler, Winston-Salem.

National Honor and Peace—Reuben Waggoner, Walkertown.

The Supposed Speech of John Adams—Coy Upchurch, Apex.

Retributive Justice—William Fishel, McClellanville.

Universal Education—Wills Staley, Jamestown.

The Rider of the Black Horse—Wister L. Lynch, Liberty.

The Unknown Speaker—Seymour Stafford, Friendship-Burlington.

My Mother, My Country, My God—Arthur Lineberry, Siler City.

The Lost Chord—Sullivan—Paul V. Fitzgerald.

PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY NOTES.

At a regular meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society held Friday evening, April 7th, the literary exercises consisted of the following numbers:

1. Recitation—Elsie Vickrey.

2. Resolved: That the Annexation of Korea by Japan is in the Interest of Korea's Best Development. Affirmative, Sallie McGehee, Ruth Coble; negative, Carry Yates, Tama Burke.

3. Instrumental solo, Annie May Prince.

The judges, Ellen Raiford, Ruth Coletrane and Maude Lassiter, rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative.

Miss Fox, a former Philomathean, gave us a few words of commendation, after which the society adjourned.

THE QUAKER

The Quaker, published by the Junior and Senior classes, will soon come from the press and the staff is expecting an exceptionally good edition. It has been their purpose to depict their college as they see it, and to give to those interested in the institution an inside view of the Guilford of today. These two classes are assuming the responsibility of publishing 250 copies, and in order for the undertaking to be self-supporting these must be sold.

It is true that The Quaker will mean much to the classes of '16 and '17 for the remembrances it will recall, yet they consider that they have rendered to the college, as a whole, a greater service in showing to the prospective Guilfordians the actual quality of Guilford.

The staff feels that every loyal Guilfordian will come to the support of this advertisement of the college to the extent of purchasing, at least one annual. Those desiring a copy of The Quaker will please fill out the blank and return to A. L. Riddick, '16, or F. H. Mendenhall, '17, Business Managers.

The Quaker, Price $2.75. 1916

THE QUAKER.

I herewith enclose $1.00 in part payment for one copy of The Quaker, and agree to pay the remaining $1.75, plus postage, on receipt of said annual, which shall be sent to
