NUMBER 27

ATHLETICS

Team Wins from Trinity and Wake Forest-- Loses to Durham, Elon and A. & M.-- Only Two More Games.

Guilford added one more victory to her list Thursday before Easter when our team defeated Trinity at Durham by a 9 to 4 score. Our boys began scoring in the second inning and by the end of the third they had sent nine men across the registration plate. In the third inning they batted two of the Methodist hurlers from the mound. Powell, who relieved Mason and Earnhardt at this stage of the game, held our boys at his mercy for the remaining six innings. Zachary played a great game. He not only hurled a wonderful game, but he also did some telling work with the willow. Garner too got two hits out of four times to the bat. The line up follows:

Guilford vs. Wake Forest.

From Trinity the team journeyed over to Wake Forest where on Friday they took sweet revenge on the wearers of the black and gold by defeating them to the tune of 9 to 2. The Quakers had on their batting clothes and secured 13 hits off the delivery of Smith and Moore. Finch went good all the way through for Guilford. At no stage of the performance was he in danger.

The Henry Clay Oratorical Contest

The series of society contests began Saturday evening with the thirtieth annual oratorical effort of the Clays. The five contestants delivered their orations in splendid and well-spoken English; however out of these five the judges decided that Rhesa L. Newlin had won the prize. The audience heartily approved of the decision.

The presiding officer for the evening was Harrell Budd; the marshals were Jesse B. Stanley, chief, Roger C. Kiser, J. Earle Williams, Ralph H. Thompson, Folger L. Townsend; the judges were Miss Henley and Messrs. Houser and Gold. Mr. Gold delivered the medal.

The program was given as follows:

The Better Way—Itimous T. Valentine.

The Jews Contribution to America—Ezra A. Moore.

Our Modern Educational Experiment—J. W. Mitchell.

The Possibilities of the Negro—Hugh W. Moore.

Our Next Step—Rhesa L. Newlin.

Song—Take My Love to Rosalie—Dancy Budd and Tracy Freeman.

RECITAL

CLASS IN PUBLIC SPEAKING GIVES RECITAL—R. C. KISER WINNER.

The recital by the class in public speaking given April 27 was thoroughly enjoyed by the public. Each speaker showed that they had spent much time in preparation which made the contest close and interesting. The judges awarded first place to R. C. Kiser and second place to Miss Annie Meade Wright. The program was as follows:

The Dignity of Labor—E. B. Carroll.

The Workshop of the Golden Key—J. C. Williams.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin—Eulalia Motsinger.

The Leper—R. J. Yow.

Herve Riel—P. V. Fitzgerald.

Evening on the Farm—Ethel Groome.

Aunt Sylvia's First Lesson in Geography—Elsie Vickrey.

The High Tide on Lincolnshire Shore—Dorothy Faucette.

Sergeant Prentiss' First Plea—R. C. Kiser.

The Bells—LaVerna Walters.

The Cataract of Lodore—Anna Meade Wright.

How Mr. Rabbit Fooled Mr. Fox—I. T. Valentine.

Chorus—Fairy Moonlight—Glee Club.

Annie Laurie—Lester Coggins and Glee Club.

Solo—Out on the Deep—Fowell Mendenhall.

Especial mention should be made of the singing by the Glee Club, directed by Miss Papworth.

Y. W. C. A.

Clarice Newlin left a beautiful thought with us on the Thursday afternoon preceding Easter. The two words "Christ" and "Forever" may suggest different thoughts to different girls but for all of us they embody the highest and truest idea of Easter.

We were glad to have Miss Evelyn White talk to us on Thursday evening. Prayer and Service are familiar topics of discussion yet so fundamental in our lives, and oftentimes so neglected by us, that we are grateful for the inspiration which they always bring. The real work, as carried on in the city association we have little opportunity for here, but we can lend a helping hand in the home communities to which we will soon be going. We regret that the short time prevented Miss White telling us of her work in the city association.

The Quaker

In a previous issue of the Guilfordian the staff of the "Quaker" made an appeal to the Alumni and old students of Guilford to help support the annual by buying one. As yet we have not received the response we would like to have.

We are running our coupon again in this issue to see if the supporters of Guilford think this is a good advertisement for the college, and would like to help put it on a paying basis so it may be published every two years, as it is now planned. We hope you will support it by returning the coupon as soon as possible, to A. L. Riddick, '16, or F. H. Mendenhall, '17, Business Managers.

THE QUAKER, Price $2.75. 1916

THE QUAKER.

I herewith enclose $1.00 in part payment for one copy of The Quaker, and agree to pay the remaining $1.75, plus postage, on receipt of said annual, which shall be sent to
