

ALUMNI NOTES.

The attention of the Alumni should again be called to the annual statements recently sent out. Quite a few have responded to the letters, but as yet there is a large number who have allowed the matter to escape their attention. It is possible that some of the Alumni have not received their statements and ballots because of a change of address. If this be true in your case, let it be known to the treasurer, John B. Woosley, and a ballot and statemnt will be mailed forthwith. At the next issue of the Guilfordian a statement of the responses by classes will be made. Look to the record of your class.

The many friends of Bryant Smith, '13, will be pleased to learn of his latest success on the platform. He was a member of the debating team of the University of Colorado, which on April 5th defeated the representatives of the University of Chicago at Chicago in the inter-collegiate debate between those Universities. The Colorado team won a unanimous decision over Chicago which had previously won from Northwestern University and also the University of Michigan on the same query. This gives to Colorado the distinction of producing the leading debating team of the West. It will be remembered that Bryant Smith won his first laurels at Colorado by defeating the University of Texas in 1914.

Misses Alma Crutchfield, '14, Louetta Knight, '15, and Adna Lamb, '12, are at home here since the closing of their respective schools.

Guilford vs. Davidson.

Guilford met her third defeat of the season by a college team Easter Monday in Greensboro. The team representing Davidson College defeated our boys to the tune of 6 to 5. Finch began the hurling for our team, but because of the heavy hitting by the Presbyterians he was relieved by Zachary at the end of the sixth inning. Zachary did not allow a hit during the last three innings. The main features of the game were the long and hard hitting by the Guilford boys, and the spectacular fielding by the Davidson boys.

Guilford vs. Elon.

With a combination of what looked like carelessness on the part of the Guilford team and a lot of good playing by the Elon fellows enabled them to slip one over on the wearers of the crimson and gray at Elon last Friday. Beard covered the mound for Elon and secured 11 of the Guilford scalps by the strike-out method. Finch pitched a good game but he could not keep his hits scattered.
