EDITORIAL.

This issue of The Guilfordian comes from the hand of the new board, which, we hope will be able to perform its duties as faithfully and successfully as the one just retiring. We also hope that thru the kind initiative of the former staff, and thru the experience of those reelected to the present board, we may be able to even improve upon the high standard of excellence maintained in their publication last year.

A word as to our policy might not be amiss here. We propose to reflect accurately the various student activities of Guilford College—to mirror life as it is here. News will be published as news. There will be no attempt to smother the truth, nor to fan intelligence into artificial flame. Our purpose, therefore, is to give to the students, the alumni, the patrons and friends of the institution adequate information concerning all phases of the college. To this end we invite your attention and solicit your cooperation.

We take this opportunity to thank all who have contributed to the success of the paper, by subscription, advertisement, letters and support. We assure you that and appreciated thruout the coming year.

As next week is the examination period, there will be no issue at that time. The final number will be issued commencement day, May 30th.

THE ZATASIAN ORATORICAL CONTEST.

The eighth annual oratorical contest of the Zatasian Literary Society was held in Memorial Hall on May 6th at 8 o'clock. There was a good audience present.

The president, Miss Grace Taylor, presided for the evening. The marshals were Miss Fern Highfill, chief, Eulalia Motsinger, Laura Davis, Sara Richardson and Clarice Newlin.

The orations on the whole were excellent. Good preparation and training were shown. Miss Bernice Pike was chosen the winner by the judges, who were Miss Mary Petty, Miss Harriett Elliott and Mrs. Crawford. She was presented with the prize, a set of Shakespeare, by Miss Petty, who encouraged the contestants to continue their work in speaking.

The program of the evening was as follows:

Solo—Until, by Wilfred Sanderson—Prof. Moore.

Woman's Work in the Cause of Peace—Ruth Harding.

The Prisoner's Friend—Bernice
Pike.

Spring's Mischances — Connie
Stout.

Solo—Selected—Miss White.

The Little People of Paris —
Martha Geslain.

Our First Great Educational Leader—Etta Sullivan.

The North Carolina Heroine—
Ethel Speas.

Solo—Selected—Prof. Moore.
