ball across for a touchdown. Spencer now received the ball, but was unable to make any gain and was forced to punt. Guilford in rapid order, by the excellent line plunging of Jonas, carried the ball to the twenty-yard line from which point Massey scored the second touchdown in this period. When the whistle blew for the close of the third quarter, the Crimson and Gray was threatening the Railroaders for another touchdown.

The last period started with the ball on Spencer's four-yard line and Hollowell carried it over for the sixth touchdown. After play had resumed Guilford, as previously, swept down the field and Semans on a fluke play carried the ball from Spencer's twenty-five yard line over the Mason and Dixon line for a touchdown. The last touchdown was made by Armstrong making a dash around the visitors' end from the twenty-yard line. When halted by the timekeeper, the local squad was making headway for another touchdown.

ZATASIAN SOCIETY MEETING.

New Officers Installed—Flower Bed Planted.

The meeting of the 20th proved to be a very interesting and enthusiastic one, altho the program was short owing to the amount of business.

The officers installed were President, Mary Ella Copeland; Secretary, Gertrude Cronk, and Marshal, Fern Highfill. Each of these gave fitting inaugural addresses.

The first number on the program was an instrumental solo by Vera McBane, which was very beautiful. Miss McBane is one of our new girls and the old members here wish to commend very highly the splendid work that the new members are doing.

A very appropriate talk was given by Bernice Pike on "Ideals of Society." In this several ideas were brought out which every true Zatasian must have. The speaker continued by saying, "Let our motto be 'Work,' and then each member can truly say that she is a 'seeker of knowledge' for knowledge can only be found by hard work."

In order that each member might know the laws and regulations of the Society the constitution was read. It is very important that this be reviewed every year as it is easy for the necessary things to slip out of mind.

Miss Clarice Newlin, an old Zatasian, who was one of our strongest workers last year, was present and gave some very encouraging remarks.

A very interesting letter was read from one of our members of the class of '16. This letter was from Laura E. Davis, who is now teaching Math. in Emporia, Va. She was a Zatasian for six years and states that she is still one.

The chairman of the flower bed committee reported that the bed had been laid out in the shape of the Society pin and the border fixed but no further work had been done. The plan is to have a "Z" planted in yellow tulips thereby carrying out the color scheme.

The following girls decided to become active members of our Society: Verna Stone, Cathryn Campbell and Isabelle Goldo.

The critic's report was given by Evelyn Blaylock, who ably rendered her report.

CLAYS DEBATE EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

The Clays discussed on Friday night the question, Resolved, "That the Adamson eight-hour bill as passed by Congress is expedient." The affirmative was upheld by Braxton, Doughton and Hubbard. They contended that the eight-hour law gave the railroad men more time to spend with their families and pointed out the fact that it had prevented the strike called on September 4th, thus saving the people from many hardships.

The negative, Huffines, Marlette and Lane brought forth some sound argument in defense of their side. They showed that the eight-hour law did not keep the railroad men from working sixteen hours per day, but only increased their pay. The judges, Messrs. Garner, Gentry and Sherrill, decided in favor of the negative.

Mr. Paul Townsend then gave us an unusually good declamation. Mr. B. L. White ended the program by reading some interesting "current events."

Messrs. Gentry and Finch were received into membership. After the critic had rendered his report, Society adjourned.

Sarly Peary, of Durants Neck, was on the campus visiting Mr. Gordon Shannonhouse Sunday.

Mr. Zachary and family, of Coolee-mee, visited their son, Otis Zachary, Sunday.
