

ALUMNI NOTES.

Executive Committee Meets—Ballots Mailed.

The executive committee has met and the ballots for officers in the Alumni Association for the coming year have been mailed out and you should each have your statement and ballot by this time. In case you fail to secure the ballot, please notify John B. Woosley, Guilford College, N. C., and a duplicate ballot will be mailed immediately. The nominations for officers for 1917-1918 are as follows:

President—Virginia Ragsdale, '92, Laura D. Worth, '92.

Vice-President—O. E. Mendenhall '95; Alva E. Lindley, '08.

Secretary—Anna Davis, '13; Alice Dixon, '10.

Treasurer—R. J. M. Hobbs, '09; John B. Woosley, '12.

Trustee of Loan Fund—Mary E. M. Davis, '91; N. Rush Hodgkin, '09.

Member of Executive Committee—Jos. D. Cox, '04; Hugh D. White, '09.

Alumni Member of Board of Trustees of Guilford College—D. Ralph Parker, '04; H. Sinclair Williams, '95.

The members of the Association will also take notice of the list of amendments to the constitution which are printed on the back of the ballot. These amendments will be acted upon at the annual meeting of the Association at commencement and should be carefully considered by the Alumni in order to secure wise action in May. It is likely that some of the members have definite convictions as to the amendments in question, the publication of which would aid in the consideration of the proposed changes. The Alumni Editor would therefore like to suggest that the Alumni column of the Guilfordian is a good place to express your ideas of the amendments.

To this end the Guilfordian will carry in its next issue a copy of the amendments and also a statement of those provisions of the constitution as they now read, to be amended.

The Whitsett Game.

Guilford annexed the fourth straight victory to her string by defeating Whitsett Institute here on Saturday afternoon in a splendid practice game by a count of 3 to 1. The game was snappy and fast thruout, being featured by the excellent pitching of Finch for the locals, who sent fifteen slab artists to the bench and yielded only one hit, that coming in the ninth frame.

Webb, for this visitors, also pitched well as he made 11 local batsmen bite the dust, and permitted only four hits.

The Crimson and Gray failed to score in the initial frame, but in the second inning Murchinson, after two had been retired, cracked out a two-bagger and scored on an error and wild throw past third. In the third frame two more tallies were added. Massey slugged out a triple to deep left and scored on a sacrifice by Garner. Marlette got on safely on Ellington's error, and scored on Newlin's hot drive.

Whitsett scored in the ninth. Greason reaching first safely on an error, pilfered to second, and scored on Gardner's smasher past second for two bases.

Aside from the work of the pitchers, Murchinson featured with two hits in three trips to the plate, one of the bingles being for half a circuit. Box score:

Zatasian Debaters Decide to Annex Mexico and Canada.

On Friday evening, March 30th, the Zatasian Literary Society met with the usual enthusiastic spirit. The following officers were installed: President, Gertrude Cronk; secretary, Vanner Neece; marshal, Mary Cox.

The entire program was rendered in a most commendable manner. A reading was given by Thelma Steel, after which the question, "Resolved that it would be a benefit to the United States to annex Mexico and Canada," was debated. Jaunita Reece and Una Seal discussed the affirmative and Vera McBane and Gertrude Smitherman defended the negative. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The speakers showed that they had prepared themselves to debate the question in an intelligent and business-like manner, and brought the society to the realization of the fact that some of the members could apply themselves in debating with as much enthusiasm as in music and other things.

Gertrude Cronk in her usual charming and forceful way gave "The Cremation of Sam McGee" by Robert Service.

The society was delighted to have as visitors Misses Hazel Reece and Evelyn Burt.

After a helpful critic's report by Eula Hockett, society adjourned.

CLAY NOTES.

There was no regular program rendered by the Clay Society on March 23 on account of examinations. The three members to the debating council were appointed, being R. C. Kiser, S. N. White and Wade Hussey. At the meeting March 30 it was found that several, or almost half, of the members were absent, and as there were some who desired to go to the health show, the regular program was postponed until April 6 by consent of debaters.
