

QUAKEDS MAKE IT NINE STRAIGHT

began her run getting in the initial frame, when on a base on balls, Marlette's triple and Zachary's single, two tallies were secured. She added four more in the fifth by hard hitting coupled with errors. The Methodists scored their last tallies in the eighth on a hit, base on balls and errors. Earnhart was hit hard, beside given poor support.

Wofford.

Guilford walked away with Wofford on the 11th inst., in a game featured by strike outs by the score of 7 to 1.

Murchison held the South Carolinians to one bingle, that coming in the eighth frame, beside fanning 20 batsmen. He deserved a shut out, but due to wild throwing Wofford scored her lone tally in the fourth. The Crimson and Gray hit the pill hard, knocking Owsts off the rubber in the third. Guilford scored in the first, second, third, and fifth innings.

A. & E.

Guilford goose egged the sturdy sons of 'A. and E., last Friday at Cone Park in the fastest game of the season by a count of 3 to 0. The game was quickly and cleanly staged, the time required for the performance of the nine acts being only one hour and forty minutes. Not a miscue was registered against either team, "which is a decided, marked and distinct innovation for college ball." The splendid hurling of Murchison was in a large part responsible for the utter defeat of the Farmers and Engineers hailing from Raleigh. He caused fourteen to bite the dust, and wonder how a ball could be made to cut up such capers. Beside pitching a wonderful game, he drove out a double, a single and a sacrifice in four times at bat.

The Quakers put themselves into the run column in the third inning, when Massey singled and was forced at second by Garner; Marlette strolled, and Duncan sent a skyward one to the right garden on which Garner advanced to the hot corner. Marlette then took second, and Newlin drove out a bingle which scored Garner. Marlette, attempting the same feat, was nipped at the plate. Guilford increased her lead in the sixth when Newlin received a free pass, took third on Murchison's bingle, then performing a rare feat, Murchison and Newlin worked the dual steal, Newlin counting. The final tally came in the eighth frame, when Duncan singled, advanced on a put out and scored on Murchison's double.

The Aggies threatened to score in the ninth, when Wheeler singled and Miller doubled, with one down, but Murchison tightened up and dimmed their hopes by striking out Johnson and disposing of Wharton on an easy roller.

Practically the entire student body witnessed the game, inspiring the players with a rare exhibition of enthusiasm and "pep."
