SENIOR FESTIVITIES

Career of '17 Ending in a Whirl of Gaiety.

When the dogwood begins to bloom in the spring, every Senior begins to use both eyes, both ears, and then wait patiently. This year most of the flowers were gone, but the leaves were prettier than ever before.

Thursday afternoon, May 3, the lady faculty members and Miss Benbow delightfully entertained the members of the Senior class. The balcony at Founders Hall was transformed into Fairyland. Dogwood, oak leaves, flags, Japanese lanterns and cozy seats with sofa pillows certainly had been under the spell of some good fairy's wand.

Misses Edwards, Ayer, White and Gainey served delicious cream and cake, coffee, with an unheard of abundance of whipped cream and marguerites.

About 10:15 o'clock the guests reluctantly departed. Every Senior went away thinking Miss Louise, Miss Benbow and all the others most charming hostesses.

The ninth of May! The date has been securely fixed in that haven of all past events known to college students as history. The memory which the date connotes has kept the minds of Seniors filled with pleasant thoughts for the last few days and it really makes physics, mathematics and history more interesting.

Wednesday morning, May 9, each Senior received an invitation, not written, not spoken, but more suited

CLASS TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS.

In the first of a series of contests to decide the class championship in tennis the Sophomores defeated the Freshmen in a close and exciting game, the score being 2-6, 6-1, 8-6. Fitzgerald and Miller represented the Sophs., while Byrd and Hubbard played for the Freshmen. The next contest took place between the Seniors and Juniors. Moore and Beeson made up the Senior team while Kiser and J. Smith upheld the honor of the Juniors. The Juniors won by the score 6-1, 6-4.

GUILFORD TO BE REPRESENTED AT FORT OGLETHORPE.

Three Guilford men, Prof. Woosley, J. P. Garner and E. B. Carroll passed the examination for entrance to the officers' training camp at Fort Oglethorpe. Guilford can well afford to take pride in her representatives and can feel assured that they will assist in upholding the noble record of North Carolina in other wars.

ZACHARY ELECTED CAPTAIN.

At a recent meeting of the baseball team, J. Thompson Zachary, of Snow Camp, N. C., was elected captain for next year. For the last two years Zachary has been Guilford's most dependable pitcher. His great knowledge of inside baseball will make him well able to lead Guilford to future victories.

GUILFORD CLOSES BRILLIANT SEASON

Hastily Arranged Trip Results in Three More Victories and the Only Defeat.

Guilford ended a most successful season in baseball Saturday, May 5, when the Crimson and Gray representatives defeated the fast Erlanger team of Lexington in a ten-inning game. The last four games of the season were played while on a trip to South Carolina.

The first contest took place on May 1st with Belmont College in which the Quakers were victorious, the score being 2 to 0. The game was intensely interesting from start to finish.

Murchison, pitching for Guilford, held the Catholics to two lone hits and had nineteen strike outs to his credit. McGillicuddy, who opposed Murchison, allowed six hits and fanned seven.

Outside the air-tight pitching of the Quaker southpaw, the only features were the fast fielding of both teams and the heavy hitting of Marlette, Guilford's young shortstop.

The score by innings: R. H. E.
 Guilford .. 000 001 001—2 6 0
 Belmont .. 000 000 000—0 2 1

Batteries: For Guilford, Murchison and Westmoreland; Belmont, McGillicuddy and Manley.

The next game was played at Spartanburg with Wofford College in which Guilford again won by the score 2 to 0. The Wofford hitters were unable to connect with big Zachary's twisters and secured only

THE Y. W. C. A. CABINET CAMPS AT THE OAKS

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet took its annual camping trip to "The Oaks" last Friday and Saturday, having invited as its guests the old cabinet. Mrs. M. L. Spray and Miss Evelyn White were the chaperons and they added much to the enjoyment of the trip.

The party left Guilford in a wagon Friday afternoon at 4:15, and reached "The Oaks," which is situated near Jamestown, at 6 o'clock. A large camp fire was started and soon supper was ready for the hungry crowd of girls. Despite the fact that they knew sleep was not for them, some drank a quart of coffee and a pint of tea.

After supper was over the girls gathered around the camp fire, sang old plantation and Guilford songs and told stories until 11 o'clock, when it was decided that bedtime had arrived. Some who were less afraid of rats and ghosts, than of dogs and whip-poor-wills, went inside the house to sleep, part ventured as far as the porch and spent a wakeful night in hammocks, but the more bold slept in the open by the fire. The night finally passed and fortunately no one was carried off by the rats or dogs, tho both paid their respects.

Breakfast over the girls started off to explore the country. Some went to the river, others to the church, while part stayed by the fire. Dinner time came all too soon, for it meant that the time was drawing near to leave that quiet spot. Each girl commenced gathering up her belongings and the wagon came at 3:15.

Every one seemed to have a good

ZATASIANS STAGE ORATORICAL CONTEST

The ninth annual contest of the Zatasian Literary Society was held in Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, May 12. It was a contest of unusual merit, and very ably represented the excellent work which characterizes this society.

Each contestant presented some current economic or social problem in a very live way.

While admitting the decision to have been an extraordinarily difficult one, Mr. Gilliam Grissom on behalf of the judges very cleverly presented the prize, a handsome set of Shakespeare, to Miss Eula Hockett.

The program read as follows:

- Piano Solo—Farendal..... Pugno
- Lillie Williamson
- Vocational Training of Girls
- Vera McBane
- The Gift..... Clara Farlow
- The Martyred Nation...Eula Hockett
- Quartette..... Neidlinger
- Misses Speas, Pike, Beaman, Stone
- Our Shop Girls.....Alma Chilton
- Economic Efficiency in View of
- Child Labor.....Juanita Reece
- Educational Features of Moving
- Pictures..... Una Seal
- La Serenata..... Smith
- Misses Galdo and Crutchfield
- Judges: Mr. Gilliam Grissom, Mrs. E. R. Michaux, Mr. H. B. Gunter.

Literary Clubs Holds Meeting.

The Literary Club held its last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Hobbs. The program took the form of a general discussion of the last two years' work in Greek literature, the different members bringing out different points of particular interest to them.
