

ALUMNI NOTES.

A. A. Dixon, '09, and Miss Inez Wilson were married at the home of Gertrude Wilson Coffin, '06, in Raleigh November 17th. Guilfordians will be particularly interested in this note as both Mr. and Mrs. Dixon have been members of the Guilford faculty and are widely known throughout the state. Their address is West Raleigh.

Irma Coble, '14, is home demonstration agent for Alamance county.

N. Rush Hodgkin, '09, is doing clerical work in the quartermaster's corps at Camp Green.

The following paragraph is taken from the Danbury Reporter: "Mr. W. P. Holt, who has been farm demonstrator of Stokes county for a number of years, has received an offer from Lunenburg county, Virginia, to do similar work, at an increase of salary of 33 1-3 per cent. He will accept this position and is making preparation to leave for his new duties about December 8. Mr. Holt has done good service in Stokes county and his going will mean a distinct loss to farming interests of the county. Since he has been here he has instituted a number of innovations in up-to-date farm methods that have been worth to the county many times the small salary he has been paid. Farming or its immediate adjuncts constitutes about 90 per cent. of the real business activity of our county, and it is important that the coming generation of farm boys should be instructed in modern and more advanced methods, and that they should keep abreast of the times. When Mr. Holt leaves us, we shall miss him and feel that his time with us has been well spent, and that the loss is ours." Mr. Holt is '10 Guilford and his promotion will be of interest to friends.

G. R. Allen, '95, is now assistant General Solicitor of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and is stationed at Philadelphia.

Hardy A. Carroll, '14, is principal of the High School at Rural Hall.

Clara Worth, '14, is assistant in English and is physical director at Carolina College, Maxton.

D. D. Carroll, '07, who holds a professorship in Hunter College, is serving on an exemption board in New York City.

Wm. T. Boyce, '09, is a member of Junior College faculty, Fullerton, California. Mr. and Mrs. Boyce spent a few days at the college while on their vacation last summer.

Clara Davis, '13, is spending her second year studying in the domestic arts department at the State Normal College.

Louetta Knight, '15, is teaching in the Trinity High School.

Callie Nance, '13, was married last June to Mr. W. G. Smitherman, superintendent of a cotton mill at Troy, N. C.

Silas Lindley, '14, is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Norfolk, Va.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

Henry Clays Debate Roosevelt's Offer of Leading Expeditionary Forces Into France.

On the evening of the 23rd of November the Henry Clays assembled to take up once more the duties of society work. The program for the evening was especially interesting and each man went at his task with great enthusiasm showing that sufficient time had been expended in preparation for the occasion. The debate was better than usual, the subject under discussion being: Resolved, that Theodore Roosevelt should have been granted the privilege of leading expeditionary forces into France. The affirmative consisting of Messrs. Johnson, Anderson and Marlette successfully advanced argument that as Mr. Roosevelt, with his experience in the Spanish-American war and as President of the United States and commander in chief of the National Army for seven years, still maintained his ability as a fighter and as a leader in all militaristic enterprises.

On the other hand the negative composed of Messrs. Hubbard, L. L. Williams and Doughton strongly opposed the affirmative by putting forth the fact that Col. Roosevelt was wholly ignorant in the methods of fighting in present day warfare, and that a man with such a powerful mind and his initiative genius was necessarily needed at home as a promoter of public welfare. After this exciting discussion Curtis Newlin in a very attractive way related to the society some of the recent happenings both from abroad and at home.

This being the regular meeting for the election of officers the following were elected: President, J. W. Mitchell; vice-president, J. G. White; secretary, H. R. Stanley; assistant secretary, P. W. Townsend; censor, H. L. Johnson; chaplain, C. B. Shelton; sergeant-at-arms, N. A. Fox.

Under the head of reception of members the society was delighted to hear the encouraging remarks of a former Clay, Mr. Benbow Jones, who was gladly re-instated, also Mr. Geo. Bryant was heartily welcomed into society.
