CLARA FARLOW WINS IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

On Saturday evening, May 4th, the tenth annual oratorical contest of the Zatasian Literary Society was held in Memorial Hall. The orations showed much careful preparation, and were well delivered. Each girl reflected much credit on the Society she represented.

Miss Bernice Pike made a few introductory remarks, after which the following program was given:

- Shadow Dance..... Macdowell Harriet Crutchfield
- I. Patriotism.....Martha Caudle
- II. Music in Nature...Jaunita Reece
- III. And the Thoughts of Men Are Widened .....Clara Farlow
- The Chase ..... Rheinberger Harriet Crutchfield
- IV. Somewhere in France Elma McVey
- V. Old Glory.....Vera McBane
- Solo ..... Selected Miss Meredith

The judges were Mrs. A. A. Lindley, Prof. A. Hall and Rev. J. C. Hilliard. Mr. Hilliard, with a few fitting remarks, presented the prize to the winner, Miss Clara Farlow.

SCRUBS DEFEAT JAMESTOWN HIGHS

On Tuesday afternoon the scrub team defeated the Jamestown Highs, contenders for the State High School championship, by the score of 7 to 0. Barnard pitched a good game thru-out allowing only three scattered hits, no bases on balls, and not allowing a runner to reach third. The hitting and fielding of the whole team, getting a total of eleven hits, and making only one error. The Jamestown team worked hard all during the game. Had their pitcher been better supported, the score would have been smaller. The scrubs plays Winston Highs here this Friday and with the team playing such good ball, another victory is assured.

The line-up was:
Guilford—Pennington, cf; Bulla, lf; Dye, ss; Fox 2b; Ogburn 3b; Dorsett, 1b; Fitzgerald, rf; Gilbreath, c; Barnard, p.

Jamestown—Spencer, 2b; Johnson, 3b; Williard, 1b; Groome, c; Armstrong, rf; Ragsdale, cf; Robbins, lf; Cashatt, p; Gladstone, ss.

PHILOMATHEAN NOTES.

At a called meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society last Friday afternoon, the following society officers were elected: President, Totten Moton; secretary, Clara Blair; marshal, Grace Stone. At this same meeting the Guilfordian Board members for the coming year were also elected. Those elected were Ruth Coltrane, Donna McBane and Vivian Hayworth.

QUAKERS WIN SIX STRAIGHT GAMES ON SOUTHERN TRIP

ZACHARY NAMED "IRON MAN"

With six victory to their credit, our famous baseball team returned home Sunday morning after a week's trip into South Carolina. The first two games were played at Columbia against U. S. C. Of the first game the State, South Carolina's leading daily paper, says:

"Carolina's hope of breaking their losing streak contracted on the road were sent glimmering early in yesterday's game against Guilford College of North Carolina. The Gamecocks were defeated when a husky southpaw went to the mound for the Quakers and mowed down the home hopes from the first. The Guilford hurler was Zachary, a great college pitcher. He won his game by a score of 7 to 1 and should have had a shutout. The left-hander showed just about everything a college pitcher needs. He found trouble controlling his curve ball but he had so much else he didn't need a hook and could have dispensed with it entirely and had an even easier time. His fast ball jumped so that it could be seen from the bleachers and he used a good knuckle ball very effectively as a change of pace. He forced 15 of the Birds to miss the third strike. Carolina's one run was scored when Ballinger dropped a peg to the plate and in this inning, Zachary fanned three hitters with the bases full. He also struck out three in the ninth.

"Bill Wolfe pitched a fair game for the home team but suffered from poor fielding, some of the loose work not being carried in the error column.

"Marlette played a good fielding game for the visitors while Boren's hitting was another feature."

"HOMEWOOD" SCENE OF JOLLY PARTY

Weather Fails to Daunt Eighteeners.

Drizzling rain and mud cause no sinking hearts to the eighteeners when there is a reception "in the wind." Even last Tuesday evening found them all robed and ready, with merry hearts and cheery smiles, ready to embark for "Homewood" for an evening with the Misses White—and embark they did. With Lawrence Grissom at the helm they sailed forth for a pleasant and eventful evening.

The cheery lights of quaint little "Homewood" greeted the guests and made every one feel at home at once. Gertrude Cronk met the guests at the door. Misses Julia and Adelaide White then conducted them into the social centre, where they were greeted by Mrs. Nicholson, Prof. and Mrs. Davis.

The Seniors, like every one else, enjoy an opportunity for displaying their talents and ample opportunity was give them on this evening.

Each one was presented with a slip of paper upon which had been drawn at random a peculiar and uneven line. From this line some kind of image was to be made. Various indeed were the specimens produced. Anything from a "pine rooter" or a prehistoric horse to a handsome young specimen of Adam's race. Marie Clegg succeeded best in producing a real drawing and was presented with the prize—some tempting chocolates.

Even tho Marie alone got all the chocolates, everybody had a share of the delicious cream and cake punch and mints that was served.

Time didn't lag on this particular evening as it does when it's French or History or Latin period, and so 10 o'clock found once more the chauffeur setting forth with his cargo. The ride home was quite as eventful as the one earlier in the evening. Quite often mild ejacula-

AIMS AND IDEALS OF SELF-GOVERNMENT

A regular meeting of the Student Government Association was held on Wednesday, May 1st, for the purpose of electing new officers.

Miss Clark, who has been connected with the Student Government Association at Wisconsin University, gave an interesting talk at this meeting. She spoke about the girls who should be on the student council, the spirit that they and the association members should have, and the result. She said that Student Government was not an end in itself but a means of developing personal responsibility, loyalty, and independence in the girls. She emphasized the fact that girls who had to think for themselves in college would be stronger and better fitted for life.

As Miss Clark knows and understands student government problems, the girls were very fortunate in getting her to speak to them.

EYES TO THE FRONT! FORWARD

Y. W. C. A. Enjoys Mrs. Davis.

Without a doubt the most inspiring message of the year came to the Y. W. C. A. on last Thursday evening when Mrs. Davis spoke to us. "Eye to the front, forward," said Mrs. Davis, "is a command which we need at this time and especially the girls and young women, when there is so much sorrow and sadness to divert the mind from the usual development." She then quoted from an article in the Independent: "The outward sign of a conqueror is a fixed gaze that never falters, never flinches, never swerves. Your aim is as sure as your eyes are steady. The first thing the ball player has to learn is to keep his eyes on the ball. The first thing the business man has to learn is to keep his eyes on the business. Most men are defeated because their lives are a medley and jumble of distractions that keep the mind's attention fluttering, while the main purpose of life is neglected and forgotten. The

MUSIC STUDENTS

GIVE RECITAL

On Tuesday evening, April 30th, at 7:15, four of Guilford's music students gave the first of a series of music recitals. The music rendered was of a very high order and quite up to the high standard that the efficient instructor, Miss Papworth, has set for it. The selections were well chosen and showed that the performers have an appreciation for true art. Greig, Rubinstein, Godard, Paderewski and other noted composers were represented on the program.

The vocalists of the evening were Miss Juanita Reece and Mr. Ralph Farlow, with Miss Papworth as accompanist. With Misses Martha Caudle and Donna McBane at the piano "Shepherds and Shepherdesses," "Tarentalla" and other selections were given.

The recital was enjoyed by all present and every one left feeling that they had had a most pleasant evening with noted composers of all nationalities.

A recital of this type will be given by the music department each Tuesday thru May 21st.
