NUMBER 23

PROGRESSIVE ROOK AT NEW GARDEN

Eight bells, April 5th, found the fair lasses and brave lads winding their way towards a rendezvous of pleasure at New Garden Hall. Rook was the main feature of the evening, while in corners and on stair-steps other things occurred. There were present professionals and amateurs as well as those trying their first game. It was a snappy contest from beginning to end. The fortunate young couple to receive the prize of a box of candy were Mr. Buck Edwards and Miss Isabel Pancoast.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS.

The French Club held its third monthly meeting on Friday evening in the Zatasian Society Hall. The evening's program was received with enthusiasm. The first paper, "Conference de Paris" was read by Mr. Joseph White. The main divisions of the French capital with their various points of interests were brought vividly before the audience. Mme. Binford gave the second paper entitled "Le Polais de Versailles." Graphically the description of the royal palace was given, quickly a pageant of the great kingly personages seemed to pass in review.

After these two interesting numbers came a social hour with stimulating games and clever charades. Fruit punch of an unsurpassed quality was passed.

The pleasant evening went all too quickly.

LITERARY CLUB MEETING.

The members of the Literary Club had a treat Wednesday evening in the program rendered by Misses Edwards and Roberts. The study of Russian literature was continued. Miss Roberts gave an interesting discussion of the life and works of Gogol. Pushkin was presented by Miss Edwards, who gave the main facts of his life, with a general criticism of his works and concluded her discussion with the story of "Eugene Onegin," Pushkin's greatest work. The next program on Gorky and Dostoevski will be presented by Miss Osborne and Mrs. Carroll.

RECEPTION TENDERED VISITORS.

Last Monday afternoon the lady members of the college faculty gave a reception in the east parlor at Founders Hall in honor of Mrs. Edward Brinton and Miss Marguerite Brinton, mother and sister of Prof. Brinton. The guests included the members of the faculty, their families, and the officers of the college. The high order of the refreshments served and the pleasant social intercourse during the process of becoming better acquainted, made the occasion an unusually delightful one.

COME TO THE CANTATA.

GUILFORD DEFEATS STATE COLLEGE

Spectacular Game of Baseball Results in 3-2 Victory.

Thursday afternoon at Cone Park in Greensboro, Guilford won from the State College by one run. This was the first game for our team this season, but each player showed up in fine form. One of the two errors of our players was without cost. The A. and E. nine played a good game but their two errors occurred at a time when they resulted in runs for us.

The weather was cloudy and a stiff breeze was rather chilling. These conditions contributed to making the work of the players more difficult and what to some seemed to be errors were caused by gusts of winds causing the players to misjudge the sailing sphere.

The game was a fast one, the nine frames being concluded in slightly more than an hour. E. H. McBane umpired and his work seemed to meet the approval of all sides. On one or two occasions the boys from Raleigh seemed to be going after runs, but double plays in each instance, nipped their hopes.

Potter, starred for the State College, fanning eleven men and allowing but six hits, two for extra bases. Gurley caught a good game for the Aggies. Burrus was the reliable on first base.

Lindley, though a new man this year, twirled a most excellent game, but ten scattered hits being garnered by the Aggies. He pitched with good speed and perfect control. Ed. Carroll, as catcher, seemed to make a bucket out of his mit and caught every ball that came near him. Frazier on first base showed some of his good basket ball training—by jumping high in the air and catching the speeding pill. Fox on second base exhibited the old reliable Guilford playing. Dye at short stop assisted in some spectacular double plays. Grady McBane, on third base, played a good game. One State College player slid on past the base and all that Grady had to do was to walk out and touch him with the ball. Redding did some good playing in left field. He made one very good play, by catching a fly that the wind was seemingly trying to curve out of his reach. Edwards in center field displayed his ability to run, as well as his ability in catching the flying missile. Captain Barnard made two of the six hits accredited to Guilford.

MISS HOBBS GIVES TEA.

Miss Gertrude Hobbs gave a delightful tea on last Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Edward Brinton and Miss Marguerite Brinton. Tea and cakes were served. Those present were Mr. H. H. Brinton, Misses Margaret Cotten, Vivian Hayworth, Eula Hockett, Kate Smith, Georgianna Bird, Clara Blair and Ruth Coltrane. Under Miss Hobbs' capable hostesship the guests enjoyed to the full the kindly hospitality of "Arcadia."

SENIORS ENTERTAINED AT THE "OLD OAK"

And Find it Most Pleasant to Be an April Fool.

On Saturday morning the Seniors were the delighted recipients of an invitation to the effect that on Monday evening, March 31st, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White, Sr., would be at home to the Senior class where "Ye Olde Oake Sways and sighs and sighs, With arms outstretched toward April skies."

Accordingly with anticipation soaring high the "stately thirteen" wended their way to "Ye Olde Oake" at the appointed hour.

Messrs. John and Joe White met the guests on the walk and conducted them through the arbor and to the back door where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. White. From here they passed into the dining room where each was presented with a handsome favor, on the outside of which was a picture of the old oak and on the inside the following suggestive greeting:

"Ye Olde Oake
Bends and bows to greet
The dearest set of "Fools" ere met
To while an hour away,
Bids them forget
The worry—fret
of "19's" climb,
And Father Time;
And Smile a
M-I-L-E.

Here the guests were served with "Fools' Nectar" a la foolish service, which proved to be delicious punch served in beakers, by Miss Fox as wizard.

At the door of the reception hall each one was presented with a golden thread with the following command:

"A mountain peak—on solid gold
Wield your shovel—courage bold
At last a mine, a mint of gold
Dig deep, delve deep—'tis counsel old."

After much digging and delving the guests were led by these threads to mountain peaks in the form of fools' caps, painted in class colors and bearing the class numerals, in the depths of which were found "Fools Gold" or sandwiches and chicken salad and wafers served a la knife. This was followed by "Silly Chilly" which materialized into ice cream, cake, mints and nuts.

The entire company then started out on a perilous journey to Jerusalem but owing to sundry mishaps by the wayside only Clarence Mason was able to reach the pearly gates.

All then assembled in the dining room where each was given a pencil and paper and told to write a bit of advice and also to prophecy the future career of one member of the company. Dips into the future are always interesting and on this occasion the clever prophecies as well as the spicy bits of advice were productive of much merriment. But the

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

Reports for the Year Tell of Progress Made.

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held last Thursday night was devoted to reports of the year's work and the installation of new officers.

The following new officers were installed:

President—Hugh Moore.
Vice-President—Luby Casey.
Secretary—R. A. Lineberry.
Treasurer—Herman C. Raiford.
Marshal—Grady McBane.
President Moore has appointed the following chairmen of committees:

Mission Study—Hugh White.
Finance—H. C. Raiford.
Social—D. J. White.
Religious Meetings—Berry Lee White.
Membership—Murray White.
New Students—L. H. Barrett.
Music—Luby Casey.

B. L. White, chairman of the Bible study committee, reported that Bible study classes had been maintained among the students thruout the year except during the flu epidemic. One class led by Luby Casey studied the "Social Principles of Jesus" by Ranschenbusch. Another led by B. L. White studied "Student Standards of Action" by Elliot & Cutler. Recently a third class has been formed in the south section under the leadership of Jim Barnard. Leaders had been secured for Sunday morning chapel every other Sunday.

The annual report of the social functions of the year was given by David White, chairman of the social committee.

The report showed that there had been many socials during the year, all of which proved to be successes. During the first half year owing to the quarantine which was placed upon the college it proved to be quite a task to furnish entertainment each week-end for the student body, but with the excellent co-operation of the Y. W. C. A. chairman of social committee, Georgianna Bird, and permissions from Miss Louise, and the congeniality of all, the task was made less great and the socials have been above par.

To attest this we need only to recall a few which were given, namely: The chicken fry, track meet, barbecue, Hallowe'en social and many others of like nature.

The annual report of the Treasurer was given by C. M. Macon. The report showed $82.91 fees collected; $60.53 expenses for the year with a balance in the treasury of $22.38. Also there has been collected from the study body and faculty $400.00 for Army Y. M. C. A. work; $60.00 for the Volunteer Student Conference expenses and about $15.00 for student activities here on the campus such as the establishment of a "Y" reading room, which is supplied with games, daily papers and periodicals. The financial side of Y. M. C. A., con-
