

THE GUILFORDIAN

VOLUME V.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., APRIL 30, 1919.

NUMBER 25

GUILFORD LOSES TO ELON AND TRINITY

BUT THE TEAM NEVERTHELESS SHOWS MUCH POSSIBILITY OF DEVELOPMENT.

On Easter Monday in Greensboro an interesting and well played game was staged between Guilford and Elon. A good sized crowd was present. The teams appeared pretty evenly matched but Elon was able to bunch its hits and won by a score of 7-5. The Elon rooters were much in evidence and a large proportion of the college came over in a number of big trucks to see the game. Guilford got a run across in the first inning on a hit by Barnard, a sacrifice by Frazier and a hit by Lindley. From then on, although there was an occasional hit, the pitchers held the upper hand until the ending of the sixth when Elon put three across with two hits and two Guilford errors. In the seventh Johnson, by same daring steals, got around for another Guilford tally. In the latter half of the seventh Elon put four across because of some Guilford loose playing and two hits. The thrill of the game was Guilford's rally in the ninth. With two out Lindley, Stout, Carroll and Kiser pounded the ball brought in three runs. Fox made some pretty stops for Guilford while Elon's second did the same. Guilford earned two runs while Elon earned one. Not a single man walked during the contest.

The box score:

Elon.	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Johnson, 2b	5	1	0	3	4	0
Atkinson, 3b	5	2	1	0	1	2
Marlette, 1b	4	2	0	11	0	0
Simpson, cf	4	1	1	3	0	0
Brown, rf	4	1	4	0	0	0
King, c	3	0	0	7	1	0
Allen, lf	4	0	2	1	0	0
Murphy, ss	3	0	0	2	0	0
Martin, p	4	0	1	0	10	2
Totals	36	7	9	27	18	4

Guilford	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Barnard, rf	5	1	1	1	0	0
Frazier, 1b	3	0	1	14	0	0
Edwards, cf	4	0	1	3	0	1
Lindley, p	4	1	1	2	6	0
Johnson, lf	4	1	2	1	0	1
Fox, 2b	3	0	0	1	3	1
Carroll, c	4	1	1	1	2	1
Stout, ss	4	1	1	0	1	3
McBane, 3b	3	0	0	1	1	0
Carson, *	1	0	1	0	0	0
Totals	35	5	9	24	13	7

Score by innings:

Elon	000	003	40x-7
Guilford	100	000	103-5

Summary: Two base hit, Martin. Three base hits, Carroll, Stout. Sacrifice hits, King, Murphy, Frazier, Fox. Struck out by Lindley, 2; by Martin, 7. Stolen bases, Brown, Allen, Johnson. Double plays, Johnson to Marlette. Passed ball, King. Left on bases, Elon, 7; Guilford 5. First base on errors, Elon 6; Guil-

(Continued on fourth page)

PHILOMATHEANS ARE ENTERTAINED BY WEBS

The heart of every Philomathean was made to rejoice when the invitation came from their brother "Webs" to visit them at their regular meeting last Friday evening.

At 8:00 P. M. when Founder's bell announced the assembly Marshal Stafford met the "Phils" at Founder's and gallantly directed them to the elaborate home of the Websterians in the ivy-covered Y. M. C. A. building. Each girl soon found herself a proud possessor of a very attractive book-form program, with a picture of Roosevelt on the front page. On glancing thru the program it was found that it dealt with the different phases of Roosevelt's life.

When all had assembled, President Willard in a very dignified and pleasing manner made each visitor feel very happy and at home. Then came the following interesting program:

I. "A Strenuous Life," H. M. Patterson.

II. Debate: Resolved, that the government of the United States should adopt a policy requiring one year of military training of all able-bodied men before they reach the age of 21. Affirmative—R. A. Lineberry. Negative—J. D. Dorsett.

III. Vocal solo: Paul Trotter.

IV. Reading: "His Americanism," C. M. Macon.

V. Oyster Bay, 1925—David White.

Each number of this program was excellently rendered and to every Philomathean it was truly an inspiration to listen to it.

Much was learned concerning the life, the interests, the patriotism, the work and wonderful accomplishments of such a great American as Theodore Roosevelt.

After the program came the hurly-burly of getting into groups. Each person was listed in some groups named after some characteristic of "Teddy," as "Naturalist," "Rough-Rider," "Statesman," "Author," "Politician," etc. When all had found their assigned places there began a continual flow of hilarity which lasted thru out the evening. At times the mirth was somewhat subdued when attention was given to the different courses of the following delicious menu:

Fruit Cocktail	Cherries
Chicken Salad	Pickles
Cream	Deviled Eggs
	Cake
	Salted Almonds

Quite too soon sounded the hour for departure and no Philomathean could find suitable words to express her appreciation for the hospitality of the much admired "Webs."

The baseball team this week is on its Southern trip. Tuesday and Wednesday the University of South Carolina will be played. Thursday Camp Jackson. Friday, Furman and Saturday, Belmont.

EDNA RAIFORD WINS PHILOMATHEAN PRIZE

ANNUAL CONCERT REVEALS MUCH REAL TALENT.

The eleventh annual oratorical contest of the Philomathean Literary Society was held in Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, April 26, and was a contest of unusual merit and each girl reflected much credit on the society she represented.

Miss Gertrude Hobbs, president of the society, made a few introductory remarks after which the following program was given:

Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Korner.

1. War Refugees—Clara Henley.

2. Winged Sword of France—Edna Raeford.

3. The Church of the Future—Madge Coble.

Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Korner.

4. America Returns From France—Katherine Harmon.

5. Part American Women Played in the War—Beulah Jessup.

Piano Solo—Mrs. Baymond, Binford.

The judges were Miss Gertrude Mendenhall and Messrs. William A. Blair and Walter Blair. After a very clever and witty speech Mr. W. A. Blair delivered the prize to Miss Edna Raeford.

NEW YEAR OF Y. M. C. A. STARTED—RUTH COLTRANE RE-TIRES AND FRANCIS MONE INSTALLED AS PRESIDENT.

On Thursday evening a week ago, the installation services of the Y. M. C. A. were held. The services were commenced by both old and new calionets coming in as "Day is Dying in the West," was softly played. The calionet girls were dressed in white and all of the old members carried a white narcissus. The chairs for these were arranged in a circle around the table. Each chairman reported the work done by her committee during the past year, and although the reports were very good the calionet feels that only a very small part has been done toward the ideal which were cherished.

The treasurer reported approximately two hundred dollars in the treasury, all pledges having been paid. This year more money was obtained from the play, the bazaar and systematics than in any previous year. More has been given to missions and besides this a goodly amount was subscribed to the war fund and other causes.

President Coltrane's report gave a summary of the whole years work. Each chairman was taken up and her work summarized. She especially urged all of the calionet and as many others as possible to go to Blue Ridge in June, stating how much it would mean. She told of some changes that needed to be made, and some phases of the asso-

(Continued on third page)

SOPHOMORES ARE DEFEATED BY FRESHMEN

LOWER CLASSMEN ARGUE RAILROAD QUESTION IN FINE FASHION.

The first inter-class debate of the year was held in Memorial Hall on Saturday evening. The representatives of the class of 1921 having challenged the class of 1922. The query was: Resolved that the Federal government should own and operate the railroads in the United States. Berry Lee White, Herman Raeford and Edward Holliday advocated government ownership, while Hugh White, Grady McBane and Gladstone Hodgkin for the Freshman class defended the negative side of the question.

The affirmative argued that government ownership and operation would be the most effective remedy for the evils existing under private ownership and operation; that government ownership is practicable and has produced a success where it has been tried and that it would be advisable for other reasons.

The negative advanced the argument that the recent attempt of the government to operate the railroads of the United States has been unsuccessful; that government ownership and operation has proven unsuccessful in foreign countries; that the Federal government is inefficient in the management of business enterprises; that government ownership and operation would open an unlimited field for political intrigue; that the people of the United States are, on the whole, opposed to it; that it is unAmerican in principle; that private capital has been successful in the past and that government regulation maintained through the medium of the inter state commerce commission is the logical way of meeting the situation.

The debate was a splendid presentation of the question and the speakers deserve much credit for the strong argument produced and also for the effective and courteous manner in which it was advanced.

The judges, Mrs. Raymond Binford, Mr. Edgar Farlow and Samuel Haworth, decided in favor of the negative.

GREENSBORO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASSISTING FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN.

Those who have been carrying forward the financial campaign for Guilford College have recently finished a canvass of the business men of Greensboro. The Chamber of Commerce and the Merchant's Association gave the movement a very hearty endorsement and the former appointed a committee to assist in the campaign. The citizens of Greensboro have shown a remarkably cordial spirit towards the college and have subscribed $11,000. This does not include the subscriptions of trustees and alumni.