As the mighty hand of time brings to pass many events, so it has brought to a close another school year. And now as we are made to realize this fact there arises in our minds various questions concerning our record as students, during the past year. Probably the question that confronts us more than any other at this time is, "I wonder if I passed all of my work." Each individual can answer this question for himself. If you have prepared each day's lesson as you should, if you have been eager to attend all of your classes instead of wishing that you could cut them or in other words, if you have actually done your best toward passing your work then your question is favorably answered. If not, then you must take the consequences. The question as to outside duties also presents itself to us. The various associations have needed your help and co-operation. Have you been willing and eager to do your part toward making them a success and also a credit to the college? These questions and many others loom up before us and we are made to feel in our consciences a gnawing regret which makes us say, "I wish I had this year to go over again, I would do it better." Of course you would, but it is too late now to sigh. The last recitation is ended, the last blue book has been handed in. All of our work, whether good or bad, is behind us. If there is any feeling of dissatisfaction on our part, now is the time to make resolutions for amending these matters and get ready to do better work next year.

And now since we must say goodbye to our college for a while and go to our respective homes, we should not forget, during our absence, to bear in mind the interests of Guilford. First of all, let us "boost" our college! Let us lay aside the little things that have gone contrary to our wishes during the past year and let us see and speak of only the good that Guilford affords. If your friends are slow in realizing the importance of attending college, you can be a co-worker, by convincing them that college training is essential. So let each one of us strive to see who can bring to college next year the most students, and in accomplishing this we will have done a double duty, that of helping somebody and also helping our college which we claim to love.

HENRY CLAYS AWARD IMPROVEMENT MEDAL

A special session of the Henry Clay Literary Society was called Thursday evening, May 24, for the purpose of presenting the improvement medal.

Much interest and enthusiasm has been shown for the past month by the men contesting for the medal, each meeting of the society being featured by excellent debating, and marked improvement over the one preceding.

Lieut. E. B. Carroll in delivering the medal made note of the exceptionally fine spirit shown by the contestants and of the great improvement made.

He then delivered the medal to George Doughton.

As this meeting completed the work of the society for the year and also the work of members who are seniors, Lieut. R. C. Kiser and Jas. D. White gave their farewell speeches. Their sincere remarks awakened a new conception of the place the society should hold in the college life of each member, and the important part it should play in developing the well rounded student.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CLOSES VERY SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Young Women's Athletic Association has just closed one of the most successful years in the history of girls' athletics at Guilford. The spirit of loyalty and sportsmanship has been the best that has been remembered by any one now at the college.

At a recent mass meeting of the association a report from each department was given and the winners of "G's" were announced. The following won "G's" in basketball: Lula Raiford and Eurie Tague, Donna McBane was awarded a "star."

Those winning in track were: Clara Blair, Kathrine Smith, Clara Farlow and Myrtle Edgerton.

At this same mass meeting the officers for the next year were elected as follows: President: Donna McBane; secretary, Eurie Teague; treasurer, Dovie Hayworth.
