

GUILFORD LOSES

TO WAKE FOREST

the field and on the ball before the Wake Foresters even touched it on several of the punts. For the backfield White and Rice probably made the most gains with the pigskin. Tremaine showed very good judgment, too, in the way in which he ran the team. The team of course was somewhat weakened on account of Newlin, Anderson and Taylor being laid out with minor injuries. For Wake Forest Rabenhhorst and Herrick did stellar work. The former especially, making two broken field runs for touchdowns that were thrilling indeed. It is easily to be seen why he was picked two years ago for the all South Atlantic team.

The game was opened by Guilford receiving. The Quakers then made two first downs by end runs and line breaks only to lose the ball thru an interrupted forward pass which put the ball on Guilford's fifteen yard line. The Baptists then made first down but were then held gainless till third down, when the Guilford team was penalized half distance to the goal for an off sides. Wake Forest made the goal on a line buck. Failed to make kick. The other touchdown of their quarter was made by a lucky catch of a forward pass back of the Quaker backfield, the ball being carried over easily thru a swift run. Guilford kept the Baptists from further scoring in this first quarter. They had to punt twice on third and fourth down, thus keeping the ball in the Wake Forest territory. The Quakers made several long gains by forward passes, but were unable to bunch them so as to cross the coveted line. In the second quarter Wake Forest uncorked an offensive on the Guilford ends that netted them three touchdowns.

During the second half Robenhonst was put in for Herrick and pulled off a couple of rather spectacular touchdowns. Tom Cox at one time scooped up a fumbled ball and raced thru the Baptist backfield for what looked to be a sure touchdown for Guilford. Tom's weight and speed were such that a Baptist half, however, finally overtook him on the 20-yard line. Several forward passes were then attempted, but failing the ball went to Wake Forest on downs.

The line-up: Wake Forest, R. E. Heckman, R. T. Pierce, R. G. Moss, C. Wall, L. G. Freezor, L. F. Olive, Capt. L. E. Johnston, Q. Benton, F. B. Boylan, R. H. Jennette, L. H. Fulton.

Guilford: R. E. Newlin, R. T. B. Shore, R. G. C. Shore, C. L. Tremaine, L. G. Cox, L. T. Stafford, L. E. Pulliam, Q. R. Tremaine, R. H. Rice, L. H. White, F. B. Raiford.

Summary: Substitutions for Guilford, Stout for Raiford, Smith for Newlin, McBane for B. Shore. For Wake Forest, Robenhonst for Hickman, Bundy for Moss, Johnson for Pierce.

Referee: Holding, Wake Forest. Umpire, Turner. Head linesman, Utley, Wake Forest. Time of quarters, 15 minutes.

ZATASIANS ENJOY PROGRAM BY THE NEW GIRLS

Society was called to order last Friday evening, November 14, by President Lindley.

The program was especially interesting, since all numbers were given by new girls, and each girl is to be commended for the splendid way in which she did her part.

The program was as follows:

I. Debate—Resolved That the United States Army Should Be Enlarged. Affirmative, Miss Alta Jessup; negative, Miss Nova Shore.

II. President Wilson's Policy in Regard to the League of Nations—Miss Minnie Casstevens.

III. News From Washington—Miss Mildred Patterson.

Miss Jessup brought forward some splendid points in favor of the affirmative, but Miss Shore proved to the satisfaction of the judges, Misses Vanner Neece, Mary Daniels

The last two numbers were very interesting and instructive.

After a critics' report by Miss and Katherine Campbell, that there is no need of an enlarged army.

PHILOMATHEANS HEAR TALENTED MUSICIANS

All lovers of music would have enjoyed the program given by the Phils on Friday evening, Nov. 14. The program was in the form of a music recital and was peculiarly enjoyable because of its variety. Every Philomathean was glad to know that the society possesses so many of musical talent. The program was given as follows:

I. Piano Solo, "Chimes of Eveningtide" (Silas)—Miss Anna Henley.

II. Vocal Solo—Miss Harmon.

III. Piano Solo, "Le Derniere Sourire"—Miss Cloud.

IV. Piano Duet—Misses Stone and Atkins.

V. Vocal Solo, "Just a' Wearyin' for You" (Bonds)—Miss Tomlinson.

VI. Piano Solo, "Dead March From Saul" (Handel)—Miss Donna McBane.

VII. Piano Solo, "Crepuscle" (Frml)—Miss Clara Henley.
