

SOPHOMORES CARRY OFF TRACK MEET

enormous amount of food in an exceedingly short period of time. He made a good show. Fleetwood eliminated himself from the cramfest when four crackers which he was attempting to swallow without chewing lodged somewhere above his stomach.

In the clothespin race the Sophomores won out by a small margin in front of the Juniors.

In the three-legged race all the horrors of a modern speed away were experienced. Runners collided; the floor was shaken; yells of encouragement and shrieks of despair rent the air; while Vanner Neece and Donna McBane of the Senior class broke the ribbon a head and neck's length in front of their closest rivals.

Vanner Neece, '20, won the suitcase race with that wonderful speed which she seldom displays except on rainy Sabbaths when she goes to her "parson."

The sack race, over which quite a dispute arose, was after the second heat won by Herman Raiford, '21.

Then came the most exciting and heartrending event of the evening. Blushing maidens and bashful boys turned from the sight; jealous lovers shrank back in despair; Miss Louise shook her fist with righteous indignation; but the eager couples chewed on in spite of all, "forgetting that which was behind and reaching forth unto that which was before," thinking only of the sweetness in middle of the string. Vera McBane and David White carried off first honors in this for the third time in the past three years.

The high cost of potatoes did not prevent the potato race. Each class chose its fastest girl (best runner) for this event. Eurie Teague, '22, last year champion potato grabber, had little difficulty in holding her title to the championship for this year.

Last of all came the work of the heavyweights—tug of war—in which four boys and three girls from each class set their oxen strength and skill against an equal number of the opposing class. The "Preps" easily dragged the Freshmen to the limit and held them for time. The Sophomores snatched the Juniors off their feet and then led the Seniors in the same path. The final pull was the only real tussle of the evening, but the "Preps" were unable to stop the Sophomore tractor.

The Sophomores carried away the undisputed title to the cup, having won five events to the Seniors' three and Juniors' two.

WEBSTERIANS DISCUSS LABOR AND CAPITAL

The last meeting of the Websterian Society was cut short due to the basket ball game to be played that night. The members present were well entertained, however, by the following debate: "Resolved, That labor has more power than does capital." Paul Rayle and Hansel Beeson, for the affirmative, gave proof to show that labor is better organized and has the public's sympathy. The negative, upheld by Geo. Kinney and Seth Fleetwood, sought to prove that capital has done more for the public and is more popular. The judges rendered a decision in favor of the affirmative.

This being the night for election of officers the following men were elected: President, R. A. Lineberry; secretary, R. C. Bulla; marshal, Mat Lee Thompson.

After a constructive critic's report by John Dorset society adjourned.

President Binford, Professor and Mrs. Anscombe, Mrs. Davis, Miss Julia White and Professor Mills attended Friends' Quarterly Meeting in High Point Saturday.
