Saturday Oct. 31, the Quaker eleven suffered her second defeat of the season at the hands of Wake Forest on the latter's gridiron. Up until the second half the Quakers held their opponents to three touchdowns they, themselves scoring one in the first two minutes of the game by three successful forward passes. In the first quarter Guilford kicked to Wake Forest who fumbled on the forty yard line, the ball being secured by Guilford. Guilford then opened up an aerial attack which advanced the ball over the goal line for their first and only touchdown of the game.

Wake Forest scored her three touchdowns in the first half by a series of line plays and long end runs. The Guilford team was greatly handicapped by the loss of C. Newlin in the first quarter and A. ### YOUNG MEN'S PRAYER MEETING CONDUCTED, WITH H. G. MCBANE AS LEADER

Grady McBane made a splendid talk last Thursday evening on the subject of "Talents."

"Talents," the speaker said, are those natural impulses which prompt us to follow certain vocations.

We sometimes hear the remark that certain people have no talents. But each one of us has a talent for

Girls' Baseball

New Girls Win Over Old Girls in First Game of the Series.

The girls, both new and old, are showing more interest in baseball this year than has ever been shown here before. All fall there has been three base ball practices a week, and the girls have been getting themselves into good shape for the series of games that is just beginning. There is to be a series of five games between new and old girls.

The first game of this series took place last Thursday afternoon on the girl's baseball diamond back of New Garden Hall. Both teams were on the ground at the scheduled time, and were full of the "Pep" and spirit it takes to win the game. The "old girls" put up a brave fight, but were not able to stop the scoring of the "new girls." The "old girls" were in the lead until they suffered from the misfortune of losing their pitcher, who was injured, and could not play in the remainder of the game. After this the "new girls" began to score, and the game ended with the score 20 and 19 in favor of the new girls.

The "new girls" are to be commended for their excellent team, and the spirit they are putting in the game. It is not only the girls that are on the team, but every "new girl" is backing her team. The "old girls" are also supporting their team, and when their pitcher is able to take her place again they will make a harder fight than they did in the first game. There promises to be one of the closest contests in this baseball series that there has ever been here before. Both teams are full of "pep," and both determined to win in this series.

DOCTOR HOBBS RETURNING FROM ENGLAND

The latest news from Dr. Hobbs to reach Guilford is that he would have England for America about the first of November. Reports from England have been that he has been rapidly recovering. These reports have been heard with great pleasure by all the college students as well as the people of the surrounding community.

Thanksgiving Celebration Last Public

Joint Literary Program. Community Singing.

Under the direction of a Faculty committee, headed by professor Pancoast, work is now beginning on the preparation of a three day program for Thanksgiving week. This program may be extended, and on Sunday, special Thanksgiving services held in the New Garden Friends Church. Nothing definite has been done, but probably on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day community singing will be the main feature.

On Friday evening a program will be given by the four literary societies. Committees have been appointed from each of the societies to arrange Friday evening's program. The arrangement of this program is under the supervision of Miss Polk, the head of the English Department.

Possibly the biggest event of this week end program will be the pageant, to be given on Saturday evening. This will probably be in commemoration of the landing of the Pilgrims, three hundred years ago. Miss Roberts, head of the French Department has charge of the production of this program. To assist Miss Roberts a student committee has been appointed from each of the two Christian Associations.

The only break into the regular work of the students will be in the meetings of the literary societies. The joint program, however, will be of a higher class than the ordinary society program. It will not be a competitive program, but one participated in by members of all societies.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL IN GYMNASIUM

"Gold Dust Twins" Win Prize.

The annual Hallowe'en Social was enjoyed by all students Saturday evening. The gymnasium, where the social was held, was decorated for the occasion. The walls were lined with trees and the floor covered with leaves. Shocks of corn, pumpkins and weird lights added to the scenery.

Every body came in fancy dress so all classes of people were present. Side shows consisting of: The Swimming Match, Freak of Guilford College, Baby, and the Bridal Scene, offered entertainment during the evening; also an ice cream booth was successfully managed and carried a cool message to all.

Of special interest was the last event, which was a parade around the gym so that the judges could make the decision as to who was wearing the best costume. The prize, a "Jack-o-lantern" filled with candy was awarded to the "Gold Dust Twins;" represented by Misses Mabel Ward, and Hazel Richardson.

At ten o'clock the guests departed and the gym was left to the ghosts and goblins.

The following fancy dress costumes were good: The Gold Dust Twins, Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabbage Patch and her family, Clowns, Ghosts, Frenchmen and French ladies, Gypsies, Turkish women and Fairies from every direction.

Discussion of Political Issues

County Issues

The third and last joint meeting of the two political clubs was held in Memorial Hall, Saturday evening, October 29th at 8:45 p. m. This meeting, although it lacked the usual partisan spirit and enthusiasm was none the less important, for it was a discussion of local politics and election machinery.

Professor Mills presided over the meeting which began by a discussion of the County officers by Edward Hollady. Mr. Hollady outlined the County government, taking each officer separately, and giving his duties and salary.

Professor L. Lea White then gave an instructive discussion of the election laws of North Carolina. He went well into detail, stating the qualifications of the voter. The different steps necessary to become a qualified voter such as; payment of poll tax, educational requirements, resident requirements and registration. Professor White also gave a clear explanation of the election machinery, telling just how the election is conducted.

Professor Mills, then, with the aid of a chart showed the relation of the voter to the different governmental departments and to the federal officers, also the relation of the departments and officers to each other.

After these discussions the meeting was turned into an open forum. A number of questions were asked in regard to different sections of the election laws. After a short discussion of the Australian ballot system, the meeting adjourned.

Without question these discussions, which have been entered into with a certain degree of partisanship; yet which have been characterized by fair play, have been a success. If they have done nothing else, they have helped to prove the fact that nothing but a thorough investigation of the issues and capabilities of the candidates will fit one to cast an intelligent ballot. This is particularly felt by those who have, in a large measure, in the past been ignorant in regard to politics, but who are for the first time assuming the obligations of citizenship.

SO EVERYBODY'S HAPPY.—And this is the time of year when men ask each other, "How is your wife going to vote?" and the men answer, "She's going to vote the same way I do." And the women ask each other, "Are you going to vote the same way your husband does?" and they answer, "He thinks I am."—Syracuse Herald.
