ZATASIANS GIVE EXCELLENT PROGRAM

The Zatasian Literary Society met Friday evening, November 12, and was called to order by President Williams. A splendid program was rendered by the division which is led by Florence Martin. It follows:

- I. Humanistophone—Florence Cox.
- II. Life of Beethoven—Sylvia White.
- III. Reading—Era Hollady.
- IV. Jokes—Atha Norman.
- V. Music During the War.—Zelma Farlow.
- VI. Reading—"The Last Hymn"—Dura Lewey.
- VII. Selection from Musical Selections—Florence Martin.

The recent programs have been unusually good and much interest has been shown in society work. An old member, Jo Mock, was present and gave a short talk which was enjoyed by all.

At this meeting Nell Jones, Rosa Willis, Gertrude Smith and Kate Smith were received into membership.

After a helpful critic's report by Ione Lowe, society adjourned.

and bashful young men who in most cases wanted to hear this history in as small audience as possible.

The Philomathean officers are: President, Miss Tom Stuart; secretary, Miss Clara Henley; marshal, Miss Lois Roby.

At Founders Hall the numerous little Indian groups—generally two in a group—set up a whirlwind of conversation, which was only checked by the delicious refreshments served in three courses. The menu consisted of:

- I. Chicken Salad      Stuffed Celery
Hot Rolls            Pickles
- II. Neopolitan Cream      Gold Capee
- III. Coffee              Marshmallows

the ball and by a series of long end runs and line plays carried the ball across the defendants' goal line. Alexander sent the ball squarely between the goal posts.

In the second quarter Lexington succeeded by means of forward passes in carrying the ball for the second time across Guilford's goal line.

Guilford then received the ball but was forced to kick. The "high" then by line plays and end runs scored their third and last touchdown. Lexington kicked goal after each of its two last touchdowns. Thus Lexington, by the end of the first half had piled up a score of 20 to 7 on Guilford.

In the third quarter Guilford's line showed more team work by holding Lexington near the 50 yard line, who in turn held Guilford within practically the same limits.

The last quarter showed a gain for Guilford who, though forced to punt to Lexington, quickly regained the ball when Lassiter fell on Lexington's fumble in dangerous territory, on Lexington's five yard line. Guilford then succeeded in scoring her second touchdown. Alexander again kicked goal. Later by means of a long end run by B. L. White, who advanced the ball 45 yards, Guilford scored her last touchdown, making the score 21 to 20, after Alexander kicked goal for Guilford.

The Lexington High School team is being coached by Donn Walser, who played left tackle for Guilford in the 1917 season, and Lawrence Grissom '18, who played left end during the same season. These two have developed a strong team, one which is likely to make a strong bid for the high school championship of this state.

PREPARATION FOR THE FINAL GAME OF THE SEASON

The entire football squad is receiving a thorough drill during the last few days of the season. The game with Elon, November 20, is the last game of Manager Tremain's schedule. The students are taking more interest in the game than they do ordinarily. It seems that they are especially anxious for their team to end the season with a victory.

The hospital list is growing smaller and it now seems probable that all those who have been injured during the past season will be able to get back in the game Saturday.

Elon has developed a strong team this year—much better than last year when it met defeat at the hands of the Quaker team 7 to 0. A comparison of the scores of games with Trint that the score next Saturday will not ity and Wake Forest would indicate pile up very much against either side.

The game will be played at Cone Park in Greensboro. This selection of neutral territory for the annual game gives the advantage of ground to neither side and does not seriously handicap the attendance of either the Guilford or Elon students.
