EDITORIAL

The Cox of national fame may be forgotten, but the name of Tom Cox will stick in the memory of Guilfordians.

He may not be a "Shylock," but "Jew" Raiford took much that was nearest Elon's heart.

Every Guilford student looks upon the coming Thanksgiving as the greatest in their college experience, with President Binford and Dr. Hobbs back, and a victory to close the football season, in addition to the ordinary feature of Thanksgiving.

BE A SELF-STARTER

Among the many personalities of interesting study is the self-starter. There are two classes of people in the world; those that have to be cranked up continually and those who start themselves. The former are at work as long as some one urges and directs them; the latter are always busy finding new things to do when the task at hand is finished. Some of the characteristics of the self-starter are alertness, readiness, willingness and promptness. Self-starters usually do not hinder anyone, because they do not have to be cranked up to start going. They work without special urging and make little fuss about it. They soon prove their worth by letting their work speak for itself. It is a pleasure to know and work with a self-starter.

THANKSGIVING

Once more the Thanksgiving season has come, when we pause to consider the blessings of the year. It would be a very ungrateful person indeed who would not enter into the spirit of this festive season. To most of us, heretofore, Thanksgiving Day has meant a holiday, nothing more or less. We never stopped to consider the real meaning and purpose of the day but this is a good time for a better beginning. To even the most indifferent of us, it is obvious that blessings have been showered upon us. We do not need to search for things for which we can be thankful, for they are in evidence on every side.

It is the duty of every student to enter heartily into the commemoration of the day, and make this year's Thanksgiving a real one in spirit as well as in word. Let every one realize what real thanksgiving means and be truly grateful for blessings. It is no time to remember petty personal disappointments, but a time to make others glad. If we remember this as the day of true gratitude for abundant blessings, and help to make it a happy one for each other, it will be a day well spent.

This day, as well as many others, marks the beginning of a new year. If there have been mistakes and unkind memories, a lack of gratitude or a failure to use opportunities for development, service or inspiration, we can let them go and determine to build for better things in the year to come. The greatest joy is "the joy of going on."

ALUMNI NOTES

The approaching marriage of R. Jno. Hobbs, '09, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Hobbs to Miss Gretchen Taylor will be of interest to Guilfordians generally. Richard, as he is familiarly known here, is one of the popular young members of the Greensboro bar. Miss Taylor is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Taylor of Greensboro.

C. C. Smithdeal, wife and baby visited the college this Sunday. Mr. Smithdeal is a brother of Grace Smithdeal, a student here this session and one of the prominent young business men of Winston-Salem where he has been engaged in the real estate business since graduation in 1911.

The following were among the Alumni and old students who attended the Guilford-Elon football game on Saturday:
