Recital Pleases Guilford Audience

Voice of Students Assisted by Students in Piano.

An interesting and pleasing recital was given at Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 5, by the voice pupils of Professor James Wesley White assisted by some of Miss Byrd's piano students.

Each young lady on the program preformed her part creditably. The softness of Miss Walkin's tone was well suited to the selections given. The next selections given by Miss Griffin were well rendered, the last one especially.

The piano selection by Miss Reynolds told of careful preparation and mastery of the piece. The selection by Misses White and Johnson were very creditably sung. Miss Henley's singing was particularly enjoyed.

The program was as follows:

I. 1. Sranade—Pindy; 2. Woodland Song—Reomille; 3. As an Old Garies—Reesher; —Ethel Walkins.

II. 1. Just Before the Lights are Lit Branscomb; 2. Mattinato—Tosli;—Mary Ellen Griffin.

III. 1. Woodland Shrines—J. W. Metcalf; 2. My April Lady—Anderson; 3. Until—Sandersom;—Mortorie Williams.

IV. Piano Coasting—C. Burleigh;—Ruth Reynolds.

V. 1. I Would Send Thee a Rose—Maley; 2. Heartsease—Branscomb;—Hellen Johnson.

VI. 1. Day is Dons—M. R. Lang; 2. Franchornette—R. B. Clark; 3. Mother Dear—Luha; 4. Wake Up—Phillippes;—Esther White.

VII. Piano Duett, March, Star—Tschahisowoky; —Katie Lambeth and Virginia Osborne.

VIII. 1. Lullaby—Siddall; 2. Now that April's Here—Goothy;—Mortorie Williams.

IX. 1. Hut In the Gloaming—Galbonay; 2. In Arcady—Lang; 3. A Garden Idylle—O. Spears;—Clara Henley.

PRESIDENT BINFORD ADDRESSES CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

President Binford addressed the Christian Associations at the Sunday morning chapel on, "The Religious Obligation of Economic Relations."

The topic was inspiringly set before the students. He said that from an economic standpoint no one could afford to use or grow things that do not help in relieving the critical situations in the world today. Why should one eat more than is necessary when hundreds and thousands have no food at all? The fact that we have fellow beings reduced to such circumstances places a religious obligation making any unnecessary consumption.

There is a moral wrong in using unnecessary amounts of provisions provided by the public. When one person uses beyond what he needs the field for more is increased.

There is a marked, "Privileged Class" which is by no means desirable in society. They are those who attempt to lord over others as the man who buys his ticket and takes

Intercollegiate Debate

In Preparation for Nineteenth,
Both Teams Polishing Material

The intercollegiate debate with Hampden-Sidney scheduled for February nineteenth, promises to be one of the most important of the college programs this semester.

The list of judges submitted for approval to the Debating Council by the Hampden-Sidney debaters has been received. The Guilford Council has likewise submitted a list of judges to Hampden-Sidney for approval. Each of the councils will select from the lists submitted to them three judges.

The affirmative, Gladstone Hodgins and Edward Hollady will debate the Hampden-Sidney negative here, while the Guilford negative, Curtis Newlin and A. J. Newlin, will debate the Hampden-Sidney affirmative at Hampden-Sidney. The alternates for Guilford are, affirmative Lyndon Williams, negative Ralph Farlow.

As there are several charges connected with the debate the Council wishes it announced that there will be an admission fee of twenty five cents. Besides the debate several musical numbers will be included on the program.

After the program there will be a reception given in honor of the debaters.

This debate is the first inter-collegiate debate that the college has entered in four years. At that debate Guilford won and the students hope that she will have the same success this time.

ORATORICAL BOARD

The oratorical element of the college is fast developing under the supervision of the Oratorical Board, organized in the fall of 1920 for the purpose of promoting the work. Much of the progress is due to the great interest and enthusiasm shown by Professor Baker who now serves in the capacity of Faculty Advisor.

The board has recently drawn up a constitution by which it shall be governed and it also made regulations concerning the orators and orations.

According to the state regulations girls are not eligible to the state peace contest so the winning boy will represent the college in the state contest. Should sufficient enthusiasm be created throughout the state among the girls to justify such, a state girls contest will be considered, the date of which would probably be later in the spring.

CLAY CONTEST POSTPONED

The Annual Oratorical Contest of the Henry Clay literary society has been postponed, because of the short length of time intervening between examination week and the date which had previously been set. This date, February 12th has been changed to March fifth.

Guilford Trounces Lenoir

Visitors Defeated in Slow Game

Coming back strong after their defeat on the previous night, the Guilford lads turned down Lenoir College with a 31-22 score. The Quakers' aggressive playing carried them into an early lead which Lenoir was never able to overtake.

The Lenoir team did not succeed in scoring but one field goal in the first half, while the Guilford quintet was making a total of 15 points.

In the second half the Quakers seemed to lose interest and pep and did not show the real teamwork of which they are capable while the visitors, fighting hard to overcome the early lead against them, were able to score as much as the home team. Each side registered 16 points in this half.

For Guilford, J. G. Frazier was easily the outstanding star securing 21 of his teams 31 points. His opponents showed fear of him by continually switching their defence in order to check his repeated scoring.

Lenoir had a good forward in Seitz who scored over half of his teams points. Whitener substituting for Beam also played a good game.

Line up:

Lenoir: Boggs, lf.; Seitz, rf.; Tickle, c.; Bager, lg.; Beam, rg.

Guilford: J. W. Frazier, lf.; Lindley, rf.; J. G. Frazier, c.; Cox, lg.; McBane, rg.

Substitutions: Guilford; Mackie for Lindley, Lindley for Mackie, Raiford for Lindley, Stout for McBane. Lenoir; Rudisill for Seitz, Whitner for Beam.

Goals: Guilford, J. W. Frazier, 2; Lindley, 2; J. G. Frazier, 9 field, 3 foul; Cox 1. Lenoir Seitz, 5; Tickle, 1; Whitner, 3.

Referee, McBane.

Prize Offered by College

"Why Go to Guilford" in True to Life Story

The continuation committee of the County Clubs met Saturday morning, February 5th, in President Binford's office to discuss the awarding of prizes to the winners in the contest among the students for the one who writes the best representative story of the good qualities of Guilford. The first prize is to be ten dollars, the second, five dollars, the ten one dollar prizes will be given for the next best stories. The County Club which has the highest percentage of papers will receive five dollars. These papers are to be in the President's office by nine o'clock February 14th. This committee decided that to carry on the work more efficiently among the different county clubs it would be best to organize a federation of the clubs with two representatives from each county club.

It was suggested by this committee that the members of the different clubs send Guilfordians each week to their County High Schools.

All of the county clubs have been organized and the whole student body is very much interested in the work of boosting Guilford and making the college better known throughout the

Quakers Bow to Baptists' Onslaught

Close Guarding Under Basket by Visitors Caused Defeat

In a hard fought game on her home court, Guilford went down in defeat before the Wake Forest team on Friday evening, February 4th.

Both teams started off with a rush and for several minutes neither succeeded in placing the ball through the basket. Then with a quick succession of goals Wake Forest assumed a lead which was never overcome during the game. At the end of the first half the score stood 14-9 in favor of the visitors and when the final whistle blew they were on the big end of a 31-14 score.

Both teams played hard and never lacked for pep. The Quaker boys seemed to be on the defensive most of the time and failed to show the aggressive playing they have been showing so far this season. Although several fouls were made only three foul goals were registered during the game.

Line up:

Wake Forest: Stringfield, rf.; Greason, lf.; Carlisle, c.; Hickman, lg.; Hollowell, rg.

Guilford: J. G. Frazier, rf.; J. W. Frazier, lf.; Mackie, c.; Cox, lg.; A. Newlin, rg.

Substitutions: Guilford; McBane for Newlin. Wake Forest, Ellis for Greason. Greason for Ellis, Ellis for Hollowell. Johnson for Stringfield. Stringfield for Johnson.

Goals: Guilford; J. G. Frazier, 2 field, 2 foul, J. W. Frazier, 4 field. Wake Forest: Greason, 3 field, Stringfield, 4 field, Carlisle, 3 field, 1 foul, Hackman, 4 field, Ellis, 2 field.

Referee, Stuart.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Dr. Binford and several members of the Faculty have, through cooperation with the cabinets of the Christian Association planned for a series of religious meetings to be held at the college the week of February 20-27.

Meetings will be held in the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. halls.

Several important men have been selected as speakers. Clarence Pickett, the executive secretary of the Years' Meeting from Richmond. In-Young Friends Movement of the Five States, will be one of the speakers. Mr. Pickett has visited the college before and a visit from him will be appreciated and enjoyed by both students and Faculty.

Chase Conover will be here as a representative from the American Friends Missionary Board. Two other speakers are; Samuel Hayworth, the pastor of the Friends church at High Point, and Kirby Bowen from Greensboro.

The aim of this meeting will be to bring the students to consider the claims of Jesus Christ on their lives and life's service.

state. Guilford may well expect great results from these clubs because every student on the campus is a loyal Guilfordian and wishes for Guilford the greatest future possible.
