GUILFORD DEFEATED BY ROANOKE

Guilford opened her foot ball season, —October, in Salem, Virginia, when she met the Roanoke machine on its own territory.

The Guilford eleven was unable to stop the Virginians who succeeded in crossing the Quaker goal line for a total of fourteen points. At the same time Roanoke managed to keep the visitors from registering a single touch down.

During the entire first half the offensive work of both teams was without results. And at the final whistle the ball was in Roanoke's possession, about midway of the field. At this period of the game the final results were not evident. Although the Maroons had taken the offensive from the start, indications were, that they were wearing themselves away against a defense which they would be unable to break.

During the entire game Guilford's defensive work was good but their offensive was ineffectual in netting consistent gains. Both teams were forced to punt repeatedly and it was in this feature of the game the Roanoke team had the greatest edge. If Guilford had been able to kick with even moderate speed and distance the Virginian's touchdowns would have been prevented.

The first score came early in the first quarter and was a surprise to both Roanoke and Guilford. Neese, Roanoke's star linesman broke through the Guilford defense, blocked a punt and after receiving the ball carried it twenty-five yards for a touchdown.

The Quaker defense then stiffened, at times showing considerable offensive powers and prevented further scoring until the last twelve seconds of play, when the Roanoke team, by a series of forward passes worked the ball across for the final touchdown.

Stevens, a Roanoke back, succeeded in kicking both goals.

For Guilford "Babe Shore" and Everett McBane in the line played the strongest and again and again they broke through Roanoke's offense and blocked her advance.

So stubborn was the Guilford defense, that attempts to make gains through the line were practically abandoned during the last half, Roanoke's only effective weapon being the forward pass. It was by repeated use of this method that the final touchdown was carried across.

MRS. BINFORD ENTERTAINS

Wednesday afternoon, September twenty-first, Mrs. Binford entertained in her usual charming manner at a reception in honor of Mrs. Dann, Miss Robinson and Miss Smith. During the afternoon delicious orange ice and cakes were served. The guests included the Faculty and a number of community people.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REORGANIZED

CLASSES MEET IN MEMORIAL HALL. FACULTY HELPS.

In order to make the religious activities of the college more home-like and to give the students better opportunities in Sunday-School work, the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets with the help of the Faculty advisors have formulated a real active Sunday School organization composed of and directed by college students. The Presidents of the two associations, Curtis Newlin and Mabel Ward, act interchangeably as superintendents while the secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Helen Bostick was elected as secretary of the Sunday School.

In this organization the students are divided into seven classes, three for the boys and four for the girls.

The entire Sunday School will continue to meet for the regular chapel exercises and then go to their various classes, all of which are conducted in Memorial Hall, and after the study of the lesson the classes will again assemble in the auditorium for the secretary's report and the closing exercises.

This is a great movement started and it is one that we believe is going to be valuable to the entire student body as it will greatly add interest to the Sunday morning exercises and be a great improvement over the old methods of having Sunday School classes taught in various private rooms of the dormitories.

However the success of the Sunday School depends upon the students of the college. You as a student are interested in the welfare of the college, so avail yourself of your opportunities and go to Sunday School every Sunday and help make it a success.

OFFICE NOTES

At the last regular meeting of the faculty the following Juniors were elected as student marshalls. J. Spitt'swood Taylor, chief marshal, Dewey Crews, William Wolf, Ruth Pearson and Nell Carroll.

The annual all-day meeting of the trustees will be held at Guilford College, October 19. As a committee from the faculty, Miss Osborne, Dr. Hobbs and Mr. Balderston will meet with them, as will also the Alumni Committee on Policy and Endowment.

Dr. Binford, Prof. Balderston and Prof. L. L. White will attend a meeting of the college presidents of North Carolina, which will be held at the O. Henry Hotel on the afternoon and evening of Friday, October 7. Although this is the first time such a meeting has been held, it is hoped that the educational institutions of the state will derive much benefit from it. Among the subjects which are to come up for discussion are the questions of entrance requirements, uniform certificates for admission, scholarships and educational requirements for teaching certificates.

Sunday morning Oct. 2, Miss Roberts and Miss Gaaney entertained at breakfast in honor of the two new lady members of the faculty, Miss Smith and Miss Robinson.

Mr. AND MRS. DANN HONORED

After the movies Saturday night, Sept. 24, Professor and Mrs. Dann. were surprised by a visit from the college faculty. The guests were entertained with pictures taken on the wedding trip shown them by the hostess. Each caller was then presented with a piece of wedding cake as a favor.

FOUNDERS SENIORS AT HOME

"KITCHEN SHOWER"

East parlor was indeed the scene of much merriment on the night of Sept. 30 from eight-thirty until ten.

When the women of the faculty and New Garden Seniors were ushered into the room it was easy at once to imagine themselves in some fairy's bower; for the effect of the goldenrod worked a magical charm upon all nerves. If magic had not been in the atmosphere the guests might have collapsed. For as soon as they were seated at tables what should the hostesses do but inflict upon them the heavy and burdensome task of exercising their thinking apparatuses in solving the answers of a difficult contest. Miss Polk, having duly proved herself to be worthy of the prize received an attractive tea-apron.

At nine-thirty menu cards were brought in with the announcement that for once the guests might order anything they desired. Great was the joy of every one, for the menu read as follows:

Specials for Friday
Eggs on toast
Blue points on Half-shell
Canvas-backed Duck
Pressed chicken
Peas	Stringed Beans
Rolls
Date Gems
Green Tea.

When however; the orders were filled keen disappointments and baffled hope were written on all faces. The plates contained nothing whatever of any food value! Oh, no, it was not the cook's fault. Eggs on toast became paper, canvas-backed duck became cloth, stringed beans were indeed strung two by two upon real strings; peas became paper letters and so forth until all dreams of a banquet were dispersed.

Into the midst of this scene suddenly there stepped a "dish-washer" straight from "Cupid" bearing in his arms a tray filled with kitchen utensils. When this messenger from Cupid, who proved to be Mr. Dann, placed his treasures before the guest of honor, it dawned upon Mrs. Dann for the first time, that the surprise party was given for her. While the presents were being inspected and censured as being all useful, the guests were being served once more, this time to a really true and appetizing course, consisting of tomato and raisin sandwiches, fruit salad, saltines, pickles, and real tea.

When ten o'clock came everyone united in saying that the evening had been one of the happiest events of any college year.

A WORD TO THE WISE

Don't we all want to make a bigger better Guilford, which will be attractive to visitors? Then, have you noticed that path which is being made across the campus to Memorial Hall? There is no reason for it except that some of us are in too much of a hurry to get the mail after it comes and we won't take time to go on the walk. It might be well to consider that if we continue to "cut," it will take longer for the grass to grow than it would for us to go around. Probably everybody has seen the many paper bags and scraps of paper lying around on the campus. I am afraid that if the representative of the state department of insurance were to visit us again she would recommend another clean-up day for the whole campus. "A word to the wise is sufficient!"

An electrically operated typewriter is being manufactured by a German company. It is claimed to be a labor-saving device with an easy touch.

GUILFORD SECOND TEAM LOSES TWO GAMES

Greensboro Highs Walk away With Locals 34-6, Winston Game Better Played.

The Greensboro high school football team defeated Guilford's scrub team at Cone Park, 34 to 6, September 30. Three of the Greensboro touchdowns were cleanly earned, after sweeping marches down the field. Garland Daniel was the outstanding star of the game. He carried the ball over the goal line for the four of the five touchdowns made by his team.

Greensboro's first three touchdowns were made by sweeping end runs and terrible line plunges. The fourth came when Paul Transou, quarter, dodged and smashed his way through a broken field thirty-five yards for the score, and the final touchdown resulted from Daniel's pick-up of a fumble and his run of fifty yards.

Guilford's only score came after "Shorty" Frazier intercepted an attempted forward pass and raced sixty yards. At no other time did the scrubs seriously threaten. So strong was Greensboro's defense that they registered only one first down, and in general their attacks were thrown back by the sterling work of the high school line, which on both defense and offense, played good football.

Considering the fact that half of the scrubs best players were in Virginia with the Varsity, that none of them had ever taken part in a real game of football, and that some of them had never seen a game they certainly made a creditable showing against the strong high school eleven, many of which have had two years experience.

Daniel, Bell and Transou led the Greensboro attack and were responsible for most of the gains, with a lot of assistance from the line. Daniel showed power in line plunging and a burst of speed in his open running.

Guilford scrubs suffered defeat in a snappy game of football, October 1, in Winston-Salem by the Winston high school eleven. The final score was 7 to 6. The game was hard fought throughout and a good exhibition of the Autumn pastime was staged.

In the first period the high school lads seemed to have the edge on their opponents, who were heavier in weight but less experienced. However the end of the first half this situation changed and the Guilford youngsters played most of the time on their opponents territory. The feature of this half was the long run by "Shorty" Frazier, the scrubs fleetly half back, who intercepted an attempted forward pass and raced 60 yards for a touchdown. Guilford failed to kick goal.

The third period was largely scrimmaging with honors about equally divided. In the last period the high

FIRST SOCIAL HELD AT NEW GARDEN

The students of Guilford ushered in the month of October with the first social of the year held at New Garden Hall.

Numerous games were played and there was much merriment for all. "Wall flowers" were few and as a consequence everybody helped everybody else have a good time.

Every one entered into the spirit of the occasion and none more than the new students. Even Dr. Binford and Miss Louise were both to leave when the clock struck ten.

As the evening closed, a friendship circle was formed and all joined in singing familiar songs. Many new acquaintances were made and the wish of each was unanimous or another such social.

CHORAL SOCIETY BEGINS A PROMISING YEAR

Officers Elected.

The Choral Society under the direction of Prof. James Wesley White with Miss Byrd as accompanist has held one meeting this year. At that time the following officers were elected:

President, Lyndon Williams; secretary, Lulu Raiford; marshal, James Joyce; The large attendance was indicative of great interest and good work for this year. The society has presented some good programs in the past few years and expects to do quite as good work again. During this semester the society will prepare for the presentation of the opera "Faust."

A PRAYER FROM THE FIELD

God of the Game who rules our fate,
Or gives us each an outside chance
To break some day beyond the gate
That leads to glory or romance,
Who knows the pressure brought to bear

On each lone soul beneath the sun,
Hear from the field our silent prayer
Before the final score is spun:

Let us not look too much to fame
That flames at dawn to drop and fade

Before the dusk settles on the game
Or twilight sends its haunting shade,

Nor yet applause that takes each soul
To heights where ease and envy form.

Before the distant thunders roll
The challenge of a coming storm.

But rather let us know the worth
Of old-time courage down the way,
Where trouble stalks a haunted earth

And faith holds weaker hearts at bay.

To stricken heart and shaken mood
From lonely hill to crowded vale
Send us the gift of fortitude

That stands against the final gale.

school lads by end runs and fast playing, shoved the fighters across for a touchdown and Joyce kicked a perfect goal.

Frazier and Casey probably played the best for the scrubs. The latter displayed a tremendous amount of grit when he refused to go out of the game, after having sustained an injured neck. Edgerton did good punting for the scrubs.
