GUILFORD'S BASKET TEAM WINS THREE VICTORIES IN VIRGINIA

Successful Trip Closes Season for Quaker Quint.

The Guilford basket ball team returned Saturday night from a six-game trip in Virginia. In general the team has been very successful in all of the contests, three of which were played with other colleges and three with athletic clubs. Of the first group the Quakers won two of three, and of the second, one of the three.

All of the games were well played, and some of them brilliantly, particularly the games with Lynchburg college and the Lynchburg Elks Club. Both of these games were won by one-point margins, the former going to the Quakers 34-33 in the last few seconds of play, and the latter to their opponents 38-37 by the failure of the Guilford team to add the necessary points to win, after having almost overcome what was at one time a 16-point lead.

Guilford 34, Lynchburg College 33. The first game of the week was played with Lynchburg College, Monday night, February 27. In this game the Quakers showed their fighting qualities better than at any time of the season thus far. The Hornets outplayed them in the first half, but in the second half they overcome the seven-point lead which had been registered against them and snatched victory from defeat in the last three seconds of play, when Capt. Frazier with a one-handed underhook from near the center of the floor, sent home the two point count which saved the game for Guilford.

Of the individual players, one can hardly be mentioned without all. Every man on both teams played a splendid game. The guarding was of the closest kind during almost the entire game. In the shooting game, however, Capt. Frazier of Guilford and Suttonfield of Lynchburg stand out most prominently. Both men caged nine field goals each. In addition Frazier shot two fouls. Oliver of Lynchburg and Newlin of Guilford also played well, the former getting four field goals and the latter three.

From newspaper reports, the game was a splendid exhibition. The Lynchburg News has the following to say in regard to it: "The game was probably the fastest and hardest fought ever seen on the city auditorium floor. Indeed it is doubtful if a Lynchburg audience of basketball fans ever saw such spirit in a game. It was fast and furious from start to finish. All of the players played like wild men, and the shorter the game grew, the wilder the ten players became. And yet with all of this spirit, dash and fight, the game was always in the finest sort of spirit, for despite the fact that the players were playing like a house on fire, at no time did they forget themselves. In fact the way the game was played under such tension is no small credit to the two institutions represented on the floor."

Guilford 18—W. of Virginia 35.

On Tuesday night Guilford met the strong university of Virginia quint at Charlottesville, Va., and was defeated 35-18.

This team was far superior to any met by the local team this season. And in view of the fact that their opponents have defeated the U. of N. C. team, who now hold the South Atlantic championship title, the Quakers played a creditable game. Although Virginians seemed to be somewhat erratic in their shooting, their passing and floor work was superb and the Guilford five were unable to stop them when once they struck their speedy stride.

The first five minutes of the game was slow and listless, neither team being able to play real basketball, but gradually, the Va. team began to find itself and at the end of the first half, the score was 20-6.

In the second half, Guilford began to get away for some pretty shots and succeeded in running up 12 points while their opponents get 14.

For Guilford, Capt. Frazier scored the most points, getting seven. Geo. Frazier got four, Mackie five and Terrell two.

For Virginia, Carrington, was easily the outstanding star. This fast forward scored six field goals and three fouls.

Guilford, 25—Randolph-Macon, 15.

At Ashland, Va., on Wednesday night, the Quakers met the Randolph-Macon quint and easily defeated them 25-15.

The game was played on a small court which handicapped the Guilford team in their passing. It was also a game of the "rough and tumble" kind and proved to be much enjoyed.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

The Guilford College Glee Club was organized Wednesday evening by an enthusiastic group of men, who unanimously elected Miss Byrd as director, and outlined plans for the organization and its work.

While the plans are not yet complete, committees are working upon the different divisions, and the possibilities for work this spring will be laid before the Club at an early date. A constitution was presented, discussed, and will be acted upon at the next meeting.

As plans stand at this time the club will be composed of a chorus, an orchestra and a feature department, although these departments will be subject to such changes as the management thinks are conducive to the best progress.

The club plans to schedule public performances in the communities of Guilford and adjoining counties. It is possible that the work can be carried on through the Alumni county clubs and the student county clubs. The club will be an important and effective publicity medium for the college and an additional link between the activities of the student body and Guilford supporters at large.

The management is planning some high class productions that will be ready for presentation in May, and the business manager is arranging a schedule for that month.

WILL THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS CONTINUE?

Outline of Chapel Address Given by Dr. Elwood C. Perisho at Guilford

The Washington Conference has aroused throughout America an increased interest in the League of Nations. Whether we favor the League or are opposed to it, whether we believe in part of its principles or reject it in toto, as college students, it becomes our business to know what the League is, what nations are members of the League, and what the League has accomplished. That students may have this information in brief form, this outline of the origin, the organization, and the work of the League is presented.

I. ORIGIN.

Part of the Peace Treaty signed at Paris (Versailles) 1919.

II. ORGANIZATION.

1. The Council of 8.

(The original plan called for 9 but the United States did not join the League) Great Britain France, Italy, and Japan are permanent members. Belgium, Brazil, China and Spain were chosen as members by the Assembly.

2. The Assembly.

(a) Composed of representatives sent by every nation belonging to the League of Nations.

(b) The Assembly must meet once each year. The time of meeting is the first Monday in September. The place of meeting is Geneva, Switzerland.

3. Permanent Secretariat.

4. Permanent Court of Justice.

(a) Established in 1920-21

(b) Number of judges is 11 regular judges and 4 deputy judges.

(c) America through Elihu Root helped organize the Court. Ex-Sec'y Root was offered a judgeship but declined it.

(d) America has a representative in the Court, John Bassett Moore is one of the 11 judges.

(e) The first regular session of the Court is now being held in Geneva, Switzerland.

5. Minor organizations now in operation for the League of Nations.

(a) Technical Organizations founded by the League of Nations to regulate and control:

1. International Health
2. International Economic Questions.
4. International Communication
5. International Transportation.

(b) Permanent Committees to deal with:

1. Armaments.
2. Mandates.

(c) Special Organizations or committees to suppress:

SYMBOLIC PAGEANT GIVEN BY Y. W. C. A.

An Appeal for Workers in the Foreign Field Presented at Joint Meeting of the Christian Associations

At a joint meeting of the two Christian Associations Thursday night the girls presented the Pageant, "In the Name of the Cross."

Seven nations were represented, each in turn appealing to America for Christian aid. Mary C. Henley was dressed to represent South America; Nellie Allen, India; Virginia Osborne, Turkey; Ruth Outland, Korea; Vera Farlow, China; Ruth Levering, Mexico; and Mabel Ward, Japan.

Marianna White, representing America, appeared first, telling of her power, wealth, and fame among other nations. Ruth Reynolds, as Christianity then reminded her it was not America's wealth, fame, or power that the other nations needed, but it was her Christian love and fellowship given in the name of the Cross.

Christianity then departed, again reminding America that if she was needed she had only to call. America makes her plans and summons each of the seven nations, who tell of the conditions and needs of the country from whence she came. America, realizing that without greater love she cannot give sufficient aid, calls on Christianity who makes an urgent appeal to the best of manhood and womanhood of our land.

Margaret Levering as a volunteer to the Foreign countries answers the summons and, in the name of the Cross, challenges young Americans to obey, the call of God and give their lives to the work in the foreign fields.

Clara Henley sang appropriate hymns during some of the scenes. Hugh White closed one of the most impressive meetings of the season with a few words of prayer.

ANNUAL STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE

It was the privilege of a number of Guilford College students to attend the Student Volunteer Conference at N. C. C. W., March 3-5. Truly the eleventh annual conference of the North Carolina Union was one of the greatest in its history.

The conference opened at 5:30 Friday p. m. with a special prayer session. This meeting created that atmosphere which pervaded the whole conference—an atmosphere of full consecration and prayer. Everyone was inspired to "pray as tho it all depended on God and work as though it all depended on us." The program of the meeting is as follows:

7:30 Friday night—Devotional exercises—Ruth Teachy, N. C. C. W.

7:45 Words of Welcome—Dr. Jackson, N. C. C. W.; Dr. Turrentine, G. C. W.; Dr. Sprinkle, Greensboro.

Saturday a. m. 9:00-12:00—Conference session led by Bland Roberts, Address—Mr. Anderson, From Korea

Saturday p. m. 2:45-4:00—Miss Segworth. Address—Dr. P. C. DuBoise.

5:00, Business meeting—election of officers.

Saturday night 7:30-8:15—Special Service

8:15-9:15—Pageant "Two Masters."

9:15, To G. W. hut for social. Sunday Morning.

9:30, Morning Watch—Words by Mr. Hornady.

10:30, Worship in city churches. Sunday p. m. 2:30-5:00, talks by foreign students. Address—R. H. Bennett.

Sunday p. m. 7:30-10:00—closing session.

Testimonial meeting "What the conference has meant to me."

Special mention should be made of the opening address by Dr. H. C. Spence of Trinity college. He took as his theme "The Day of the Lord,"

PHILOMATHEAN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Louise Ross Winning Orator

The 14th Annual Oratorical Contest of the Philomathean Literary Society was given in Memorial Hall, Saturday evening, March 4.

The winning oration, a resume of the late Thomas Walter Bickett, was of special interest. The subject was made interesting not only by the splendid arrangement of facts and statements concerning the ex-governor's life, but because of the portrayal of character throughout the oration.

The analysis of Americanism in the "Heritage of Young America," and the wonderful service rendered by the keepers of the light were well brought out by the second and third orations.

An appeal for the Christianizing of our social order in the fourth oration, and a plea for women leaders in North Carolina in the fifth, completes the substance of the orations which were all forcibly rendered.

The musical numbers added much to the excellency of the program, Piano Solo—The Shepherds' Tale—Nevin—Ruth Reynolds.

I. Thomas Walter Bickett—Louise Ross.

II. The Heritage of Young America—Mary Wilkins.

III. The Keeper of the Light—Ruth Pearson.

Piano Solo—April Song—Fontaine—Lloyd Merrimon.

IV. Wanted: A Faith for a Task—Clara Henley.

V. Your Work and Mine—Shelly Clodfelter.

Vocal Solo—The Barefoot Trail—Words by Phelps. Music by Wiggers—Hope Motley.

The judges for the evening were Miss Mary Petty, Mrs. T. Adelaide Goodno, and Mr. K. V. Bowen. After a few remarks, Mr. Bowen delivered a handsome set of books to Miss Louise Ross the winning orator.

SECOND MEETING OF COLLEGE CONFERENCE

Dr. Binford as president of the North Carolina College Conference has been sending out programs for the O. Henry Hotel in Greensboro, March 10 and 11.

The subjects to be considered at the Conference are as follows:

1. Principles for accrediting college entrance credits and effort to set a definite standard for the college entrance requirements.

3. The Intercollegiate Association in North Carolina.

4. Problems in regard to Student Government.

5. Questions concerning scholarship. A uniform blank for College entrance requirements will be adopted. The blank to be recommended is the one approved by the Southern colleges.

ART STUDENTS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Anscombe was at home to her Art students Wednesday afternoon from four o'clock to six. The guests were entertained by choice selections on the new victrola. Delightful refreshments consisting of orange marmalade, sandwiches, tea and cakes were served. Those enjoying the gracious hospitality of the charming hostess were Edna Raiford, Clara and Edna Coble, Jennie Cannon, Winnie Mae Rowland, Virginia Osborne, Blanche Robertson and Harriet Pringle.

The Class in Art Appreciation is now completing the study of Architecture.

Wednesday morning Miss Julia White will lecture to the class on the Architecture of European countries.

Messrs Worth Winslow and William Fishel were visitors on the campus Sunday.
