

SOCIETY NOTES

WEBSTERIAN NOTES

The Webbs meet at their regular hour Friday night, April, 31, President Macon called the meeting to order and appointed LaMont Edgerton critic.

Under the head of literary exercises the following program was given: a debate upon the query, Resolved, that the United States should grant the Philippines immediate and unconditional independence. A reading and a discussion on debating.

In the debate, the affirmative, Geo. Kinney, Max Connor and Elton Warwick argued that the Philippines wanted independence and that they were sufficiently educated to manage their own political affairs. They further argued, that independence would be to the best interest of both the United States and the Philippines.

Marion Medlin, Walter Connor and Gorrel Payne of the negative, won the decision of the judges by contending that the Philippines should be granted independence but not immediate independence. They submitted statistics to prove the inability of the Philipinos to control their own affairs.

The second number, a reading from Omar Khayyam by Bernie Cooper, was enjoyed by all. Omar's attitude of eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow you pass into sweet oblivion, was forcefully brought to the attention of everyone.

The last number, points on debating, given W. L. Rudd, proved to be a fountain of information, especially to the new men.

Under the head of miscellaneous business, president Macon gave a short instructive talk. He called attention to the high school students, who would be the guests of the college during Saturday, and stated that every member should be seen, making these guests at home, giving out needed information, and doing his utmost to make the track meet a grand success for Guilford College.

Critic Edgerton, gave a good summary of the meeting, after which the society adjourned

PHILOMATHEAN NOTES

A study of some of the characteristics of France and America made up the program of the Philomathean Society on Friday, March 31. On account of meeting in the Y. W. C. A. room the musical numbers had to be omitted.

I. French Literature compared with American literature—Helen Bostick.
II. Paris versus New York—Anna Doub.

III. Comparison of French and American Musicians—Esther White. Miss Bostick gave short sketches from the lives of some of the more recent popular French writers and showed especially the influence of Emerson upon Maeterlinck, the poet, philosopher and mystic.

An interesting discussion of "Paris versus New York" led us to see that after all busy, hustling New York lacks the artistic touches which make "Paris, the Beautiful."

The most interesting number was Miss White's excellent discussion of French and American musicians in which she traced the development of French music up to the present and pointed out that the failure of America to produce great masters is the lack of a great background for inspiration such as the French have.

Elizabeth Brooks, critic for the evening gave her report and society adjourned.

Reverend Jones, pastor of the Friends' church in Goldsboro since September, was on the campus the past week and spoke in chapel Wednesday morning. Mr. Jones is a graduate of Wilmington college and an excellent speaker.

A number of college people attended the Ministerial Conference in Greensboro, March 28. Dr. and Mrs. Perisho, Dr. and Mrs. Binford, Prof. Anscombe, Prof. and Mrs. Dann, and Miss Julia White attended the meetings.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

At the regular Y. W. C. A. prayer service Thursday evening, the leader, Eva Holder, began the meeting by reading the report of the Findings Committee. This report included the chief facts brought out by Dr. Elizabeth Allison in her series of lectures on health given to the Association the previous week. Since health is such an important part of student life, this outline is to be kept and read to the girls next year, in case no such lectures are provided for the association.

Virginia Osborne, the speaker for the evening then gave a short instructional talk on the subject: Maternity and Infancy Hygiene.

She spoke of a bill which has been before Congress for the past two years and which has recently been passed providing for the raising of $1,480,000 to be apportioned among the different states and used in educating the masses along the lines of infant health. The usual objections to the bill were brought before the association and the fact emphasized that, we, as future citizens should not allow such important matters to be delayed or overlooked but should count human lives of far more value than dollars and cents.

The thirty-first anniversary of the Chrestonian Literary Society was held Saturday night, March 25, at 8:00 o'clock. The subject for debate was, "Resolved that the United States should enter the League of Nations." The Affirmative side won the decision and D. P. Rudisill of the Negative side won the medal.

Dr. R. B. Perry's son, Rob Roy, rendered a short musical program in chapel Tuesday morning. Mr. Perry has just completed a tour as traveling Musical Director for the Metro Picture Corporation with the picture "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." He was formerly organist of the First Baptist Church, in Denver, Colorado; the first Violinist of the Omaha Symphony Orchestra and the Director of Omaha Society Orchestra.

Davidson, N. C., April—Plans are well under way for the spring tennis tournament to be held April 10th. With all of last year's team, composed of Bradley, Ormond, Cunningham and Wilkinson back prospects are bright for a good season. Following the tournament a trip will probably be made, to include matches with Carolina, Trinity and Wake Forest. Davidson will enter the state tournament which will be held in Greensboro the 4th., 5th, and 6th, of May.
