GUILFORD CORNERS ONLY TWO DURING HER BASE- BALL CAMPAIGN IN VA.

Lose to V. M. I., V. P. I., Washington and Lee, and Lynchburg; Quietus on Roanoke

SIX HOME RUNS ON TRIP

Winning a couple from Roanoke, was about the sum total of the games that the Quakers turned in on the credit side of the ledger from their Virginia trip. Against this they had marked up defeats from Washington and Lee, V. M.
I., V. P. I and Lynchburg. However the trip brought out some good playing from the Guilford nine, especially from the swatters who knocked out six bingles that gave free passes for trips around the sacks. Hayworth on this trip got two of the six home runs.

W. and L., 8—G. C., 3.

Washington and Lee out hit the Doak squad 8-3 but got only 4 runs to Guilford's 2. Prior to the ninth siesta only one single bingle had been registered for Guilford, but in this frame Burge singled; then Block Smith tapped the sphere into the unknown for a trot around the sacks. Ferrell was on the mound for Guilford.

V. M. I., 8—G. C., 4.

The game with the Virginia Military Institute was marked by heavy batting of both teams. The Virginians knocked out nine hits, eight of which they turned into

RACKET WIELDERS GET IN STATE SEMI-FINALS

Guilford's racketmen won two victories during the past week at the State Tennis Tourney held at Greensboro. In the singles Joyce won from Jones of Elon 6-0, 6-3. Merrimon, after a strong comeback in the second set, lost to Moyer of Trinity 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.
Harris and Reynolds both drew Davidson men and were defeated after a good score. In the doubles Merrimon and Joyce won from Beal and Price of Davidson, in probably the closest match of the tournament, the score being 6-4, 3-6, 6-4. Merrimon and Joyce were later eliminated by Carolina's double team who later won the state championship. Harris and Reynolds were eliminated by Carolina's second doubles team.

LAST PIANO GRADUATES' RECITAL OF YEAR GIVEN.

Misses Reynolds and Rush Play With Technique and Grace

Mendelssohn, Schubert, and Greig occupied the most important places on the recital program last Wednesday evening of Miss Ruth Reynolds and Miss Alta Rush, graduates of the music department of the college. This was the second and last piano graduates' recital of the year.

The program, though distributed among nine composers, was executed best in the numbers from these three men. Miss Reynolds interpreted the "Song Without Words" in the true Mendelssohn style, gracefully and smoothly.
The menuetto from Schubert's "Fantasie" was given a brilliant, artistic finish by Miss Rush. The

ARMENIANS HAVE HIGH FAITH SAYS DR. EMURION.

Dr. E. K. Emurion, an Armenian, who has himself been a prisoner of the Turks, in his chapel address of last Thursday to the students of Guilford college, presented an appealing picture of the high faith and courage of the Armenians and their loyalty to Christ.

"No other country has undegone such severe trials on account of its religion as has Armenia," said the speaker. "Get, through three hundred terrible years of Turkish rule they have kept their faith, and maintained their loyalty to Christ."

"The shame of the Armenian massacres and deportations lies at the door of the so-called Christian nations," said Mr. Emurion, "and for this reason they must render an account before the judgment seat of God."

Speaking of the deportation of the Armenians and its effect upon their religious faith, he said, "My own heart was bitter against the Turks, and I was almost ready to lose my faith in the love and wisdom of God. When I talked with my sister, who had undergone such hardships at the hands of the Turks, my faith returned, for she, who had endured these horrors, still could say with conviction: 'We asked God to give us grace to forgive our enemies.' Our faith in God grew stronger, for we never realized the presence of God so keenly as there in the wilderness."

"This loving good will toward the cruel enemy," the speaker further stated, "is disclosed in the reply of a captive Armenian nurse to a Turkish soldier, who had

JAMES JOYCE OFFICER IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

James Joyce was recently elected vice-president of the State Tennis Association. This was done at a meeting for the election of officers held at the Greensboro Y. M. C. A. Bruton of U. N. Carolina was elected president.

Orvie M. Hayworth.

Orvie M. Hayworth, considered by many followers of the baseball diamond as the best college catcher in the state, is now completing his third varsity year with the Guilford nine. Although originally hailing from Trinity, Hayworth caught and twirled for Jamestown high school for one year before coming to Guilford.

GUILFORDIANS ATTEND ANNUAL MEETING OF ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

William Wolff Reads Paper On Digestion of Cambarus

The twenty-second annual meeting of the North Carolina Academy of science North Carolina section of the American Chemical Society, which was held at the North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro, May 4 and 5, was not without its Guilford representation. Three instructors and one student from the college attended, and two alumni, who are following their chosen profession in other institutions, read papers.

GUILFORD JAMESTONIANS ENTERTAIN JAMESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS.

The alumni of the Jamestown high school who are students at Guilford, entertained the Jamestown senior class on the college campus Wednesday evening.

The purpose of this occasion was two-fold, not merely to give the class an outing, but to show that interest and loyalty of the Jamestown alumni to their high school is still acute.

Professor L. L. White gave a short talk dealing with the relationship existing between Guilford and Jamestown. Afterwards the hosts, hostesses, and guests enjoyed a picnic supper on the campus.

VOICE STUDENTS PRESENT SPLENDID SONG RECITAL.

Students of James Westley White Display Marked Talent in Vocal Arts

The students of James Westley White, head of the voice department of Guilford College, gave their second and most successful voice recital of the year in Memorial hall, Saturday night, May 5. The program which consisted mostly of songs and arias of a tighter vein was well presented, meriting the hearty applause which followed many of the numbers.

Louise Frazier won the most enthusiastic applause from the audience by her beautiful singing of the aria "Call Me Thine Own" from Halevy's opera, L'Eclair. John Gurney Frazier and John Reynolds were also accorded hearty applause following their group of songs.

Mrs. Anna Henley Coble in Tosti's "Last Song" and Mary Webb Nicholson in the "Berceuse" from Jocelyn, displayed clear soprano voices, well adapted to songs of legato scoring.

Zelma Farlow, Katie Lambeth and Marie Beaman sang songs

VIRGINIA OSBORNE TO HEAD 1923-24 Y. W. C. A.

Officers for the year of 1923-24 were installed at the Y. W.
C. A. on Thursday evening. The usual form of having the retiring officers give to the new officers of the Y. W. C. A. a sprig of evergreen as a symbol of the ideal of the association was carried out.

The following officers were installed for the coming year.
Virginia Osborne, president; Pherlie Mae Siske, secretary; Marie Beaman, vice-president and chairman of the membership committee; Marion Ward, treasurer; Margaret Levering, undergraduate representative. The following committee chairman were appointed: Bertha Zachary, social servict; Hazel Coltrane publicity; Sallie Wilkins, social; Daisy Hobson, Bible study; Inez White, world fellowship; Edith Macon, religious meetings.

Y. W. A. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

At a mass meeting of the girls Friday afternoon, May 4, new officers for the Young Women's Athletic Association were elected.

The result of the election was, Marie Beaman, president; Eva Holder, vice president; Ione Lowe treasurer; and Jewel Edwards, secretary.

Under the leadership of these competent officers a successful year is expected for the Y. W. A.
A. The president has not yet selected the captains for the various sports who will complete the cabinet.

MURRAY S. KENWORTHY SECRETARY OF RUSSIAN RELIEF IS AT GUILFORD.

Speaks on Religious and Famine Conditions in Russia; Holds Student Conferences

ASKS FOR AMERICAN AID

Murray S. Kenworthy, field secretary of the American Friends Service in Russia is visiting Guilford college. Mr. Kenworthy, who has spent sometime in Russia, is now touring the country in the interest of the Russian relief. During his stay at Guilford he has delivered many addresses, both at the college and at the meeting house, and is holding conferences with the students concerning opportunities for field service.

The conditions in Russia as he found them in the famine district of south-eastern Russia in 1921-22, were described by Mr. Kenworthy in his sermon Sunday.

The old Czarist regime had prevented the Russian peasants from receiving any education. In a district a thousand miles long, and five hundred miles wide, with a population of thirty millions, there were no newspapers, tele-

FOUNDERS FACULTY GIVES SENIORS ROOF PARTY

Another delightful event marked the course of the senior class when on last Tuesday evening from 8:00 until 10:00 o'clock the Founders faculty entertained them in royal fashion.

The balcony of Founders had been changed into a beautiful roof garden by the use of large quantities of dogwood which lined the sides of the balcony.
Japanese lanterns hung from above shed a beautiful light over the whole scene.

The first event on the evening's program was the staging of a play under the direction of Miss Aline

MISS SMITH DISCUSSES CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS

"Do we know the aim of the Carolina Playmakers?" asked Miss Katherine Smith in her chapel talk last Monday morning.
"If not we should get in touch with this class of dramatic writers."

"The aim of the playmakers is to encourage dramatic art and extend its influence throughout the southland," the speaker continued.

In commending the work of these plays, Miss Smith gave a brief panoramic view of existing conditions in the Old North State, emphasizing its homogeneity.
Then she emphasized the fact that folk tales exist in North Carolina.

In closing she gave a brief resume of the history and success of the Carolina Playmakers.
