Student Council, (1); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, (2); W. A. A. Cabinet, (3); President Philomathean Literary Society, (4); House President New Garden Hall, (4); Secretary of Class, (4).

A senior thesis, measles and exams are all that bother Lalah these spring days. She has been "Macon" friends while here in college but still she clings to the pal of her childhood days.

Her ideal of happiness: H. M. (not His Majesty), a bungalow, a garden and some chickens.

OLA MAYE NICHOLSON
Houstonville, N. C.
Entered 1922

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, (2, 3, 4); Vice-President Y. W. C. A., (4); Student Government Council, (3).

A cherry smile, kind word, a helping hand; these are only a few of the qualities which go with a description of "Nick". She is always ready to help the girls with their love affairs, but why shouldn't she be? She "Shore" has succeeded with her own. "To know her is to love her."

LALAH HASSELL
Archdale, N. C.
Entered 1922

President Philomathean Literary Society, (4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, (4).

Lalah is rather reserved since her interest does not lie on the college campus. Judging from the number of times she has bobbed her hair and then let it grow out, we fear, she has a very changeable mind. Woe be to the man at High Point.

Her greatest wish is to have a system of Air Mail service installed from High Point to Guilford.

ALICE DOROTHY THOMPSON
Rich Square, N. C.
Entered 1922

W. A. A. Cabinet, (3, 4); Student Council, (4); President Philomathean Literary Society, (4).

What is the object of "Parson's" visit to New Garden Hall four nights in the Week? Alice Dorothy Thompson is the answer. She knows how to use her mathematical brain in more ways than one.

By way of information; Please don't give Alice any cats for a wedding present.

INA IRENE MIXON
Goldsboro, N. C.
Entered 1922

Student Council, (2); President W. A. A., (4); President Zatasian Literary Society, (4).

Gifted in Math, in music and "affaires de la coeur" this is Ina's reputation. It is rumored that she has a well worn dictionary which she uses consistently after interviewing a certain young man on the campus.

After teaching math and French a few years and learning Webster's Dictionary by heart, we hope that Ina will settle down to a successful career of matrimony.

RUTH McCOLLUM
Madison, N. C.
Entered 1923

President Zatasian Literary Society, (4); W. A. A. Cabinet, (4).

A "Math Shark" with a cool and calculating mind, Ruth always speaks what she thinks, regardless of whether it suits or not. If she reaches the height of her capacity, she will be a second Pancoast.

Ruth is planning to do graduate work at Bryn Mawr next year and then the class will present it's most perfect school teacher.

SALLIE PEARSON
Dudley, N. C.
Entered 1922

Philomathean Oratorical winner, (2); President of Philomathean Literary Society, (4).

Regardless of work, "Sal", never refuses to help when some one is wanted. She has had much experience in Home economics and is a very efficient librarian. She shocked every one on the campus by bobbing her hair this spring and we fear she will soon be doing the Charleston.

She plans to do some work in some field of Home Economics—Men take notice!

JAMES REED BARBEE
Guilford College, N. C.

President Y. M. C. A., (4); Y. M. C. A. Marshal, (3); Class President, (1); President Christian Endeavor, (3); Member Glee Club, (1, 2, 3); President Henry Clay Society, (4).

Reed is a man of executive ability, especially interested in religious activities, sincere, we find him ever awake while 'tis day, but still he enjoys an occasional period for joking and fun.

FRENCH SMITH
Guilford College, N. C.

Varsity Basketball; Varsity Baseball; President Henry Clay Society; Debating Team.

As a baseball player and as a landmark, French is famous all over the campus. He is a landmark because as pilot of the Founders to Greensboro but he is without an equi.l.

As a student of Geology, French can, like a flash, give the three scientific explanations for the origin of the earth and explain fully the dominant processes. The greatest thing, however, in French's favor is not his knowledge of Geology, but himself.

HOLMES WILHELM
East Bend, N. C.

Henry Clay Society, (1, 2, 3, 4).

If there ever was a quiet student it is another one of our esteemed representatives from East Bend. Wilhelm hates classroom courses because he tipped into Guilford not to learn how to study but to study, and the constant interruption of his study of French literature by the necessity of attending classes is one of the stumbling blocks for his peaceful and quiet existence.

EDNA BEEN
Guilford College
Entered 1921

Varsity Hockey, (3, 4); Basketball, (3); Secretary of Senior Class; Track, (3).

Edna, who hails from the coyote infested prairie of western Kansas still retains the broad, democratic ways of the westerners. She is friendly always and a good sport on the athletic field and off.

"Ed" is a tease and no one is safe if she learns your latest "blunder" N. C., for Edna, contains Burlington because Burlington tries to contain "Mac".

MARGARET TOWNSEND
215 Woodburn Rd., Raleigh, N. C.
Entered 1922

Secretary Zatasian Literary Society, (3); W. A. A. Cabinet, (2); Vice-President W. A. A., (4).

Tall and stately—a perfect blonde; "Spit" is one of those carefree types who always has a host of friends. During her first two years here she took a campus course but now she is doing correspondence work.

A Cadillac, a summer home in New York, a winter home in Florida, beautiful clothes, and a husband—just this if no more. Amen.

RUTH HARDING LINN
Landis, N. C.
Entered 1925

Mrs. Linn was late to enter the senior class but not too late for them to realize that she possesses a nature full of kindness and unselfishness. She doesn't do things conspicuously, but she does them nevertheless.

Mrs. Linn expects to teach in North Carolina but she hopes to leave us for California in a few years.

HARVEY O. DINKINS
"Harv"
East Bend, N. C.

Class President, (1); President Henry Clay Society, (3, 4); College News correspondent, (3, 4); Managing Editor The Guilfordian, (4); Secretary Henry Clay Society, (2); Editor Sophomore section of the "Quaker," (2); on personnel of class play, (4).

Harvey is the chief of our representations from that famous big-foot exporting center called East Bend. It must also be mentioned that it is due to his efforts that the inhabitants of the above mentioned city know there are such things as aeroplanes.

Although Harvey's special vocations have been the Dictionary, Night Watchman, and News Correspondent, his major subject is History. Next year he expects to enter into newspaper work.

JEWELL EDWARDS
Vass, N. C.
Entered 1922

W. A. A. Cabinet, (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, (4).

Jewell is always ready to tell a ghost story, say a recitation or suggest a new game. As social chairman of the Y. W. this year, she has been the pilot of many Saturday night socials.

To teach school a few years and then marry a rich, old widower is the dream of heart.

WILLARD D. ALLEN
"Doc"
Snow Camp, N. C.

Websterian President, (4); Websterian Secretary, (3); Member Websterian Society, (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary Athletic Association, (4).

The shy and reticent character of this young man makes it difficult to deal with him satisfactorily. He is an observer of nature and her handiwork, occupying an unnoticed corner, never allowing any unnecessary word to escape his lips, full of hidden powers.

Throughout his college career Willard has marked his way with a seriousness of purpose that has gained for him the highest honors at each step. He is a math star, this being his major subject.

EDWIN P. BROWN
"Manager"
George, N. C.

President Freshman and Sophomore classes; Varsity tennis, (four years); Sophomore Honors in scholarship; Managing Editor and Editor of Guilfordian; Business Manager and President of Glee Club; Junior Honors in scholarship; President of Henry Clay Society.

Ed is one of the bluest men in college, but he always keeps his work concealed (if there is any). Nevertheless he passes his work with highest marks. Ed is our idea of a real student. His accomplishments as editor in-chief of the Guilfordian as a member of the Glee Club, and as a Literary Society worker need no comment since the speak for themselves.

GARVICE H. GUTHRIE
"Garbage"
Snow Camp, N. C.

Member Henry Clay Society, (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-president, (3); Secretary, (3); Debating Council, (4); Class President, (4).

Garvice is one of the favorites of his class, and is noted for his jolly good humor and oratorical ability. He is a splendid supporter of all college activities. He has infinite faith in some men and less in all women. Consequently he is not married yet. The record he has made in history speaks for itself in insuring some school of a good teacher for next year.

NEREUS C. ENGLISH
"Nee"
Trinity, N. C.

Varsity Baseball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain, (4); Varsity tennis, (1, 2); Class debating team, (1); Member Websterian Society, (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary, (1, 2); Oratorical contest, (2); President, (4); Member Men's Student Council, (3); President, (4); Member Debating Council, (3); Debating Team, (5); Class President, (3); Guilfordian Staff, (2, 3); Associate Editor, (3).

One of the best things about Nee is his good humor. As a baseball player he is known all over the campus. Dignity and composure sit upon his brow, back of which lies an excellent intellect and executive ability which will be proven by demonstration in his life work.

L. JACKSON HARRELL
"Jack"
R. 3 Goldsboro, N. C.

Varsity Football, (1, 2, 3, 4); Class President, (1); Member Websterian Society, (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary, (2); President, (3); Member Student Council, (4).

When Jack entered school here he found his way cut out for him on the football field, where he toiled and sweated for four full seasons. He is everybody's friend, but he never lets anything interfere with his opinions. His success as a biology assistant has proved his ability as a biologist. Next fall he expects to enter a medical school.

OTIS J. BURKE
"Skinny"
Graham, N. C.

Varsity tennis, (2, 3, 4); Manager, (3); Stage Manager; Dramatic Council, (3, 4); Debating Council, (4); President Websterian Society, (4).

Upon entering Skinny's room and looking for a few moments at him, who is pondering over his principal study, German, one would think that he was surely suffering a severe toothache, but when he shifts the half play of "Brown's Mule" to the other jaw the thought is proved false.

During junior and senior years, Skinny guided the tennis team over its vales and hills, and during the past year he has made a splendid work as cheer leader.

JOHN F. CUDE
Colfax, N. C.

Superintendent of Sunday School, (3); Glee Club, (1, 2, 3); Assistant Business Manager Glee Club, (3); Secretary Websterian Society, (2); College Marshal, (3); Secretary Debating Council, (3); Member Student Council, (3); Member Social Committee, (2); Secretary of class, (2); Class President, (3); Varsity track, (1, 2, 3).

John is strong willed and independent, journeying through his college course little seeking the attention of fellow beings. It is mainly due to his squarely honest and straight forward acts that have won for him numerous friends. Next year he expects to be a school teacher.

PANSY DONNELL
Climax, N. C.
Entered 1921

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. Treasurer, (4); Guilfordian Board, (3); Y. W. A. A.; President Zatasian Literary Society, (4); College Marshal, (3).

Pansy, the dignified senior—at times; but this dignity is dropped at intervals for a good giggle. She is studious and dependable in spite of her tendency to laugh at us, with us, and for us.

Pansy is going to Pocono, Penn., this summer but we think she will come back to "Shore".
