

SOCIETY NOTES

CLAY NOTES

President Robert Griffin
 Secretary Robert Van der Voort
 Censor Scott Parker
 Chaplain Currie Spivey
 Treasurer Everette Beaman
 Sergeant-at-Arms Elvin Haworth

Nov. 18.—The Henry Clay Literary Society held its weekly meeting Friday, November 18. Due to the absence of both the president and the vice-president, Edwin Rozell served as chairman for the evening. Clare Trueblood was chosen as critic. After the religious exercises, Paul Reynolds gave a humorous reading by Booth Tarkington. A debate was then conducted upon the subject, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the English form of government." J. P. Lippincott and Edwin Rozell of the affirmative won the decision over A. Scott Parker, Jr., and Ben Beech. Dr. Perisho, who was a visitor of the society, then gave a short talk encouraging the members of the society to enter the debating and oratorical contests. He said that, in his opinion, public speaking was the greatest of the fine arts.

WEB NOTES

President Leslie Murphy
 Secretary Glenn Robertson
 Treasurer Wilmer L. Steele, Jr.
 Marshall G. A. Yelverton, Jr.

Nov. 18.—"Resolved, That the 18th Amendment has been a failure," was the question for discussion in the Websterian Hall last Friday night. Gurney

ASTHMA
 No cure for it, but welcome relief is often brought by—
VICKS
 VAPORUB
 Over 21 Million Jars Used Yearly

RAINBOW CAFE

—LUNCH—

Opposite Jefferson Standard
 101 West Market Street

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

ALTON TEW

AGENT FOR

DICK'S LAUNDRY COMPANY

"We Do Genuine French Dry Cleaning"

SOUTHERN REAL ESTATE COMPANY

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance

W. E. BLAIR, Vice-President, Treasurer and Manager

H. P. HARDIN, Secretary and Sales Manager

S. FULLER, Assistant Treasurer

T. D. SHARPE, Assistant Secretary

Mrs. E. A. HOOD, Loan Clerk

GREENSBORO, N. C.

CANDY

PLEASANTS
PLEASES

FRUITS

Everything Good to Eat

Back Those Who Back Us—Trade With Our Advertisers

The COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK

HIGH POINT, N. C.

J. ELWOOL COX, President

C. M. HAUSER, Active Vice-President

V. A. J. IDOL, Vice-President and Trust Officer

C. H. MARRINER, Cashier

Capital and Surplus $2,000,000

Blanche Spencer. Three victrola selections, "Minuet in G," "Herd Girls Dream," and "Happy Days," were rendered by Ruby Hall.

The enrollment of the society was increased by two new members.

Collins and Loy Self won the judges' decision by proving that this act is the corner stone of America's progress and we should all do everything possible to enforce this law. Robert Atkinson and Paul Tew upheld the affirmative with equally strong argument.

Paul Jassimides then gave an interesting reading appropriate for the occasion. Talmadge Knight also gave a humorous song.

ZAY NOTES

President Ruth Lane
 Vice President Sara Jinnette
 Secretary Bernice Henley
 Treasurer Myray Gamble
 Marshal Nina Bouldin

Nov. 18.—One of the most entertaining and instructive programs which has been given at the Zatasian Society meeting this year was presented Friday evening in the Zay Society hall. The program consisted of five numbers, centering mainly about the study of two modern poets, Edna St. Vincent Millay and Vachel Lindsay.

Gertrude Hinshaw gave an interesting sketch of the life of Edna St. Vincent Millay. One thing that is unique about her is that she has risen from poverty to the poetess that she is now. This number was followed by some of her most outstanding poems, read by Alice Hazard. Virginia Saunders then gave a piano solo.

Catherine Cox gave a short but very instructive history of the life of Vachel Lindsay. The most outstanding characteristic of his poems is that his work cannot be compared with that of any other writer, but he is truly American. Elizabeth Levering then read a few of his poems.

PHIL NOTES

President Annie Wagoner
 Secretary Pauline Chaffin
 Treasurer Nell Thomas
 Marshal Pauline McBane

Nov. 18.—A musical program was presented in the Philomathean Literary Society Friday evening, November 18.

The life of Edward McDowell as an artist and a musician was discussed by Gertrude Blow. Sallie Wilkins played his best known song, "To a Wild Rose." This is almost the first selection which McDowell composed; however, the same simplicity and clearness are characteristic of his later work.

Two piano solos were then played by

ALUMNI NEWS

1917

A recent marriage which will be of interest to Guilford Alumni is that of Grace Pemberton Taylor, of Danbury, to Rex Exum Stewart, of Winston-Salem. The ceremony was performed in the Danbury Methodist Church Saturday evening, November 12.

Mrs. Stewart graduated from Guilford College in the class of 1917 and later attended Columbia University. For the past few years she has been a member of the Salem College faculty. Mr. Stewart attended the University of North Carolina and New York University and is now prominently connected with the P. H. Hanes Knitting Company, of Winston-Salem.

Following the marriage they left on an extended trip to New York and Canada.

1927

Ailene Beeson is teaching the fifth grade in the Colfax public school.

Lola Beeson is teaching fourth grade in the public school at China Grove, North Carolina. She also has charge of the physical education for the girls of the grammar grades.

Theodore Doub is studying for the M. A. degree at Haverford College. He is classified for American History, English Constitutional History, Economics, and Philosophy.

Anna Finch is teaching in the Altamahaw-Ossipee public school, near Elon College, N. C.

Charlie Friddle is principal of the Teachy public school, Teachy, N. C.

Maie Holliday holds a position in the central office of the American Friends at 101 South 8th St., Richmond, Ind.

Artena Jackson is teaching piano in the Monticello high school, Brown Summit, N. C.

Chandos Kimrey is teaching first grade at the Oak Hill school, High Point, N. C.

Hardin Kimrey is teaching science and coaching athletics in the Teachy public school.

Ruth Malpass is teaching subjects in the fifth and sixth grades in the public school at Black Creek, N. C.

Lena Marshburn is teaching mathematics and coaching girls' athletics in the high school in Knightdale, N. C.

Anna May Newlin is teaching seventh grade in the Sedge Garden school, near Winston-Salem, N. C.

Judge: "So you robbed the restaurant because you were starving. Why didn't you take something to eat instead of looting the cash register?"

Prisoner: "Yer honor, I'm a proud man and I make it a rule to pay for what I eat."—Manuel Arts Weekly, Los Angeles, Cal.

Prof—Have you ever done any public speaking?

Stude—Well, I proposed to a girl over the telephone in my home town once.—Polaris Weekly, Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Starr—What are the people of Turkey called?

Pupil—The people of Turkey are called "Turkies."—The Dormant Hi Life, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Wop: There are just two things that break up the happy homes nowadays. Mulligan: What are they?

Wop: Woman's love for dry goods and man's love for wet goods.

CRYSTAL CAFE

EQUIPPED FOR QUICK SERVICE

BEST QUALITY—FOR LESS

Dixie Building—East Sycamore Street

Trade With Our Advertisers—Tell Them You Are From Guilford

J. M. HENDRIX COMPANY

The Place to Buy

SHOES

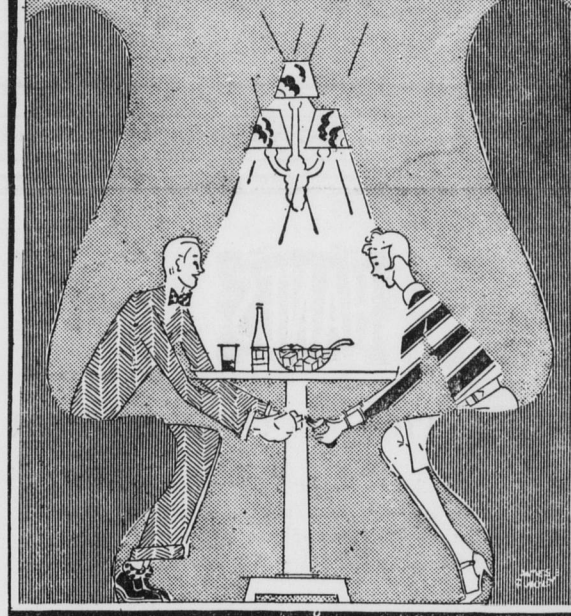

All sizes, all widths, and the best styles the markets afford.

223 S. Elm St., Greensboro, N. C.

When You Finish School
 Buy a Lot and Build in
 SUNSET HILLS

A. MOORE K.
 REALTY CO.

SCOTCH MIXTURES

OUR PUBLIC

responded enthusiastically to the authoritative presentation of University apparel displayed during our College Week.

Its influence continues with the young men of Greensboro—in and out of school—who wish to be sure they dress in the approved manner.

Braeburn

Smart Styled Clothes For College Men
 Tailored At Rochester

WRIGHT'S

Guilford Hotel Corner
 Greensboro, N. C.