

Quaker to Go to Printer Soon

THE GUILFORDIAN

Boys' Club Room
Is Presented

VOLUME XIV

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., FEBRUARY 22, 1928

NUMBER 17

GUILFORD GAMES IN NORTH GO TO LOSS SIDE OF THE LEDGER

Meet Defeat Usually by Close
Scores After Hard Fighting
With Strong Opponents

HAWORTH IS LUCKY ACE

Lynchburg, 35-25; Richmond Blues, 54-27; Ashlanders, 43-33; Indians, 28-25; Georgetown, 64-23, and G. W., 25-22.

The "loss" side of Guilford's "profit and loss" ledger is conspicuous because of six consecutive defeats suffered on the northern basketball tour. Most of the games were close, however, and some unusually strong clubs were met.

The first licking was administered at the hands of the Lynchburg quintet. The score was 35-25. This game started off sluggishly but soon quickened into a lively affair. Grant and Riley starred for Lynchburg with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Marshall led the Quakers with 7. Guilford next met the strong Richmond Blues at Richmond, Va. Their 54-27 victory over the Quakers constituted their seventh straight win. Haworth led his team with 16 points. Guilford was next victim to Randolph-Macon, the score being 43-33. The Ashlanders held a substantial lead through most of the game. Haworth again starred, chalking up 14 points for the quakers.

Probably the most anticipated, and hardest fought contest of the series was the return game with William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va., in which Guilford suffered a 28-25 defeat. The Indians were smarting under their defeat of the eleventh, and were out for revenge. Guilford took an early lead which changed hands four times during the game. The Quakers held the lead at the half by four points, the count

(Continued on Page Three)

GUILFORD REPRESENTED AT "Y. M." CONVENTION

Twin City's "Y" Building Dedicated
Sunday and Annual State Y. M.
Convention Follows

C. TAFT AND J. BROWN SPEAKERS

Winston-Salem's magnificent new $500,000 Y. M. C. A. building was formally dedicated Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with a very beautiful and impressive service.

On Sunday evening conferences were held, which were preliminary to the annual Y. M. C. A. state convention and the convention will assemble for business at the Y. M. C. A. building. The two gymnasiums will be opened together and provisions have been made to take care of several hundred persons who will gather for the dedication and to hear Charles P. Taft II, son of Chief Justice Taft, and P. M. Colbert, of Atlanta, Ga.

The inaugural banquet is to be held Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock and will be featured by Dr. John Brown, of New York, and Mr. Taft.

Nearly two hundred delegates are expected to attend the annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A. this week. Guilford College is to be represented by Robert Atkinson, Leslie Murphy, and Herman White. An elaborate program has been arranged for that gathering, sessions to be held Monday morning and afternoon, closing with the banquet Monday night.

Campus Calendar

Monday, Feb. 20—Guilford vs. Catawba in the college gym.

Tuesday, Feb. 21—Guilford negative debating Catawba affirmative at Memorial Hall.

Wednesday, Feb. 22—Greensboro Glee Club concert at Memorial Hall.

Thursday, Feb. 23—Guilford vs. Davidson in the college gym. Y. W. C. A. in Memorial Hall.

Friday, Feb. 24—Literary Society meetings.

Saturday, Feb. 25—Chemistry educational movie.

Monday, Feb. 27—Guilford vs. A. C. C. in the college gym.

QUAKER WILL GO TO THE PRESS MARCH 1

Feature Section With Sponsor
Pictures and Comic Division of Especial Interest

UNIQUE QUAKER THEME

The 1928 Quaker goes to press March 1st. It is similar in some respects, but very different in many, from the annual of last year.

An art theme is carried throughout relative to customs and beliefs of the early Friends as portrayed in two of the leading Friends, namely William Penn and George Fox. The binding, which is of a heavy malleable material, will bear upon it a profile of William Penn. The fly-leaf pages contain a pen drawing of the famous picture called "Penn's Treaty With the Indians." This will serve as an Ex Libris. The division pages are also pen drawings of various incidents in the life of William Penn, such as "His first view of Philadelphia from the ship called the Welcome, etc." These are tipped on the respective pages under which may be found either a historical sketch or poem relative to the picture.

Various touches are found scattered throughout the book, which turns one's mind to George Fox. Sayings of his are especially noticeable. Perhaps the most interesting section of the annual,

(Continued on Page Three)

FIVE STUDENTS MAKE COVETED 'A' REPORTS

Junior and Senior Classes Have Highest Average of Grades—Freshmen and
Sophs Do Not Do So Well

The grades for the semester ending January 28 are slightly better than the grades for the first quarter. Five students made all A's; four all A's but one; twenty-five all A's and B's, and three all B's, and for those who are conspicuous only for falling below the nine-hour law, let nothing be said this time.

It is noticed that five freshmen are represented on the four lists mentioned, but they were more favorably represented on the unmentioned list. The junior and senior classes have much the highest number of students on the list of those to be commended, also there were fewer failures in these classes than in the other two.

The following students made all A's: Eugene Hire, Myrtle Richardson, Wilbur McFarland, Olin Sink, Annie Wagoner.

The students making all A's but one are: Lois Atkinson, Robert Van der Voort, Sarah Edgerton, Ruth Outland.

MISS PETTY MAKES ROOM PRESENTATION

After Informal Reception Miss Mary Petty, Chairman of Advisory Council, Presents Club Room to Men—Walter
Robertson and Byron Haworth Accept on Behalf of Men, Pledging Their Support for Upkeep

The college Board of Trustees and the Advisory Council met jointly Friday night for the purpose of dedicating and presenting the new boys' club room and social center. This room is located in the northern end of Archdale Hall, the boys' dormitory, and is beautifully furnished. The floors are hardwood and the large, easy chairs and table harmonize well with them. The room is large and sunny and will make an ideal club room.

After an informal reception, Dean Trueblood introduced Miss Mary Petty, an alumna of Guilford, who is now chairman of the Advisory Council and head of the Chemistry department of N. C. C. W. Miss Petty presented the room to the boys and sketched out a short history of why and how the room came to be in existence today. Walter Robertson, president of the Men's Student Council, received the room on behalf of the Guilford men, and expressed their gratification and pleasure in receiving this much-needed, deeply appreciated gift. Byron Haworth, representative of the Y. M. C., also expressed the thanks of the men and heartily united with Robertson in pledging the support and co-operation of the Guilford men in keeping the room as it really should be kept.

Those of the Board of Trustees and Advisory Council who were present at the dedication and presentation were: D. Ralph Parker, W. E. Blair, Miss Mary Petty, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Cox, Mrs. Sarah C. M. Sampson, Mrs. Lelia D. Hill, Miss Notre M. Johnson, Cyrus P. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hollowell, David J. White, Joseph D. Cox, Mrs. Helen T. Binford. Nearly all of the faculty and many of the students were also present.

This club room fills a need that has long been felt among the students here. No general social room has heretofore been available, and with the auspicious advent of this center, a newer and better social life and spirit is predicted.

CLAYS ARE HONORED BY ZATASIAN GIRLS

"The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" Best Received Number, While Misses Edgerton and Shipp Deserve Praise

HEARTS FEATURE OF PROGRAM

Feb. 17.—The Zatasian Literary Society entertained the Henry Clay Literary Society Friday night with a delightful reception. The meeting was called to order in Memorial Hall by President Evelyn Braxton, and a well-arranged program was then smoothly run off.

A palpitating heart hunt was first staged, and imagine the mad rush and scramble for the favored symbols. Frances Osborne justly meted out rewards and punishments to the unlucky and lucky, and Ira Newlin's predicament was truly a sad one. Van der Voort, Reynolds and Zachary ran a race on vehicles very much in keeping with their age and "Raek" nosed in a length ahead of the others on his "Reynolds Special" scooter.

Ora Melvin next charmed her audience with a taken-from-experience (?) reading of "Emmy Lou's Valentine." The audience chuckled reminiscently. The terpsichorean team extraordinary of Shipp and Edgerton, Inc., gained a well-deserved round of applause with their deft, adroit and fancy foot-work. Indeed, Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn had better look to their laurels. A great future is seen for this team.

Alice Hazard, prophetess, for a few minutes at least, co-ordinated her remarkable powers with those of Cupid, the insidious match-maker, and freely handed out prophecies containing advice and advance information to the most rabid participants in that refreshing game called love. It is to be hoped that this advice will be taken seriously and acted upon accordingly.

"The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," featuring Doris Joyner and Orville Wooten, closed the program. The young man, sitting before the fire, with only his pipe for consolation, dreams of the girl of his memory, while "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" is softly sung off

(Continued on Page Two)

FACULTY LADIES AND OTHERS START CLUB

Is Begun With Aim of Drawing Women
Together Socially and to Provide Needed Accessories

CURTAINS TO BE HUNG IN MEM.

A club has recently been formed among the women of the faculty, wives of professors, and members of the Advisory and the Girls' Aid Committees, which intends to draw together socially the women interested in the welfare of Guilford College and secure for the college some most evidently needed material accessories.

The first goal which this club has set itself is the securing of funds enough to have new curtains hung for the stage in Memorial Hall. To raise the money for this the members of the club are planning to produce a play in the latter part of March. Mr. Taylor, head of dramatics at the North

(Continued on Page Three)

THE Y. W. C. A. BABY CABINET BEGINS WORK

Members to Study Duties of Committees and Will Consider Vital Questions of College Life Soon

Feb. 15.—A meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Baby Cabinet was called by Frances Osborne.

Each new member of the cabinet was asked to interview an old member regarding the duties of each committee. They were asked to consider what they have gotten out of college life so far. The cabinet will discuss the question at large at the next meeting. The new members are going to visit the big cabinet to see how it is conducted.

Heads of committees have not been appointed as yet.

The members of the Baby Cabinet are Ora Melvin, Annite Kate Neal, Belta Kilby, Ruth Outland, Gertrude Hinshaw, Esther Hindley, Mary Ellen Lassiter, Selma Hendrix, and Mary Reynolds.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES HOLDS ITS REGULAR SESSION FEBRUARY 17

Meet in Joint Session With Advisory Board and Hear Reports From Committees

CLUB ROOM PRESENTED

Centennial Committee Reports Progress in Plans to Finish Million-Dollar Endowment

Feb. 17.—The Guilford College Board of Trustees met in joint session with the advisory committee Friday afternoon and evening to dedicate the new boys' club room, to hear reports from Richard L. Hollowell, chairman of the buildings and ground committee for the board of trustees, concerning the $55,888.89 which have been spent on general improvements since June and to hear a report from President Raymond Binford concerning the enrollment of the college. Dr. Binford reports that the enrollments has now reached 307, which is, with the exception of the year 1925-26, twenty or twenty-five more students than Guilford has had before. The president also stated that there are 153 women and 154 men enrolled, and that this is the first time since the World War that the men have outnumbered the women. Mr. Hollowell, who has supervised many of the improvements, reported on the efficiency of the new heating plant,

(Continued on Page Four)

DEBATING TEAMS WILL BEGIN SEASON TUESDAY

Haworth and Trueblood Go to Catawba
While Mackie and Francis Meet
Opponents Here

USE OXFORD STYLE OF DEBATING

Guilford opens her debating season Tuesday night when she engages Catawba in a dual meet. The query is Resolved, That the United States should cease to protect by armed force its investments in foreign countries except after a declaration of war.

Byron Haworth and Clare Trueblood, representing Guilford's affirmative, go to Salisbury to debate Catawba's negative. Edwin Rozell, chairman of the debating council, will accompany them to look after the necessary arrangements. Luther Francis and Worth Mackie, Guilford's negative team, remain at home and will be hosts to Catawba's affirmative.

A modified form of the Oxford style of debating will be used. This is the first time this innovation has appeared in Guilford debates. At this time it is not known how much of Dean Trueblood's suggestions will be accepted by Catawba. This plan involves a decision by the audience as well as the judges. The audience is to judge from the merits of the question and the judges from the merits of the debate. It is hoped that this plan will lead to more actual persuasiveness and away from debating technicalities.

The squad has narrowed down considerably since the beginning of the season, but at present competition is keener than ever.

This debate with Catawba is to be the first of a series of inter-collegiate debates, Lenoir-Rhyne, Atlantic Christian College, Elon, and High Point having been scheduled for engagements in the near future.