

CHANGE OF COLLEGE RING IS ENDORSED BY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

$1,500 to Be Raised Each Year During Next Three Years for Athletic Program

SERVICE FOR MISS LOUISE

Various Reports Heard, Including That of Endowment Committee—Plans Read for Coming Program

June 2.—President A. K. Moore acted as chairman at the annual business meeting of the alumni. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The senior class was then escorted into the hall by Paul Nunn and Robert Frazier. The president then made a short speech to the graduating class. Richard Hobbs welcomed the largest senior class Guilford ever produced into the alumni association. He expressed the belief that they would become active members of the association. The roll of the graduating class, consisting of 26 members, was called and responded to by the class by rising.

The treasurer's report was then adopted. The report of the executive committee was then heard. Under this head the work of the news service was commended. Mention was made of the fact that modern bleachers were recently purchased and installed on Hobbs field by the alumni association. The question of changing the college ring was thoroughly discussed and the change to a new ring was endorsed by the alumni association. Future athletic plans for Guilford were considered. The athletic record of the past few years was discussed and it was decided to raise $1,500 each year for three years to supply the needs for better athletic equipment. The athletics needs were stated by A. I. Newlin, chairman of the faculty committee on athletics. Mention was made of the loss of Pat Crawford, and the hope of giving the next coach an undivided support was expressed. Wilson Hobbs stated the need for sufficient athletic equipment

(Continued on Page Two)

COMMUNITY CHORUS GIVES FINAL RECITAL

Large and Appreciative Audience Listens to One of the Best Programs of the Year

NOAH COMPLIMENTED FOR WORK

June 4.—The Guilford College Community Chorus gave its final recital in Memorial Hall at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Max Noah, head of the Guilford College Music Department, organized this chorus of over a hundred voices, from the Euphonian and Minnesingers Glee Clubs and a large group of community people who were interested in establishing a community chorus. As in some of their previous engagements, Greensboro artists assisted the chorus. Mrs. Edgar Allred, soprano; Mr. J. G. Briggs, tenor; Mrs. J. G. Briggs, contralto, and Mrs. Bascom Whitaker, accompanist, added a great deal to the program.

The program was begun with Wagoner's "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser, given by the Community Chorus. This selection had been worked on for the entire year and its final rendition gave great credit to both the chorus and their director. Mrs. J. G.

(Continued on Page Two)

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED IRA NEWLIN AND MACKIE

It has been announced that Ira Newlin, of Saxapahaw, and Worth Mackie, of Yadkinville, have been awarded scholarships to Haverford College in Pennsylvania. The scholarship is worth $600 and pays practically all expenses for one year at this institution. Mr. Mackie and Mr. Newlin will both pursue a Master's degree.

Both these young men have made outstanding records while at Guilford College and their selection for a scholarship is both a credit to themselves and to Guilford College. There were only eight scholarships to be awarded and applications were received from all the Friends colleges in America.

Mr. Newlin's major subject is Chemistry and he will pursue this course at Haverford. Worth Mackie is studying for the ministry. After his year at Haverford, where he expects to receive a Masters degree, he expects to study at Hartford Seminary in Connecticut.

DR. PERISHO LEAVES FOR SOUTH DAKOTA

Gives Commencement Address in State College and High Schools of Home State

TO SPEND SUMMER THERE

June 5.—Dr. Elwood C. Perisho, professor of geology and director of college extension at Guilford College, will leave Wednesday, June 6, for Brookings, South Dakota. Dr. Perisho was for six years the president of the State College there and resigned when he was called by the government for lecture work during the world war. He has gone back to South Dakota nearly every summer since and has given series of lectures to the teachers of the state, as well as delivering many commencement addresses.

On June 11, Dr. Perisho will deliver the commencement address before the graduating class at the State College of South Dakota. The topic of this address is, "The State College and the Tenth Generation." In this Dr. Perisho states clearly the purpose of the state college, which is to train the young men and women enrolled in the institution that they can successfully do those things which ought to be done in the state and nation. He emphasizes the importance of intelligence

(Continued on Page Four)

CLASS OF '28 GIVES NEW CATALOG CASE

Will Contain 35 Drawers and Will Match Finish of Present Woodwork in the Library

The Senior class of 1928 will follow the custom that each graduating class leave some remembrance to the Alma Mater by presenting this year a new card catalog case to the library. It will contain 35 double action drawers with screw front rods and follower blocks. The new catalog case is to match the finish of the present woodwork of the library.

Miss Katherine C. Ricks, who has been librarian at Guilford for several years, was given a year's leave of absence and is now studying library work at Columbia. She is planning several improvements in the local library and the action of the senior class is only a beginning in improving its efficiency.

DIRECTOR OF SUMMER SCHOOL

DEAN ELTON TRUEBLOOD

DR. FLEMING SPEAKS ON BEING CREATORS

God's Purpose in Making the World Was the Creation of Creators, and Each Must Use His Power

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS SUN.

June 3.—"God's purpose in the making of the world was the creation of creators," said Dr. Daniel J. Fleming, of Union Theological Seminary, New York City, in his baccalaureate address to the senior class Sunday morning, as he spoke on "Learning to Be Creators." God has been moulding souls like unto Himself and His purpose has been to educate and fashion finite spirits through free effort into the status of children of God; to bring them to a condition of intellectual and moral development such that they may be trusted to share in creation. God is using us in his business and entrusting us with the King's business. It is our birthright to become sons and co-workers of God.

"If it is God's ideal for man that he should share in creation it is well for those finishing one stage of their education to look at the creative tasks before them. Let us attempt to catch in perspective the tasks that await us as fellow creators with God."

There is one set of factors that are inalterable by human volition and there are others in the world's needs that are modifiable but only after long periods of time at immense expense. Such prospects are beyond us, but there is a third set of factors which will yield to educational and hygienic factors, such a mastery can be gained over the total situation, as to create conditions in which God will aid and a more abundant life is possible.

"How may we learn to approach these problems?" the speaker asked, and then proceeded to answer the question.

There are three ways of learning: First, there is the way of understanding

(Continued on Page Four)

"SIR DAVID WEARS A CROWN" GIVEN HERE

As Senior Class Day Exercises On Monday Afternoon With Haworth and Joyner Playing Leading Roles

A UNIQUE AND CLEVER COMEDY

June 4.—The senior class presented, Monday afternoon, their class play, "Sir David Wears a Crown," by Stewart Walker. This was chosen because of its very humorous and original plot. It is the general idea that it was one of the best and most appropriate plays ever presented by a senior class.

The plot dealt with a beheading which was to take place at the entrance to the King's palace. The victim was the queen, who at a celebration the day before, had stepped on the ring-toe of the King's great aunt. By the outwitting of her husband's great aunt, at the trial, the queen's words became absolute and she was proved worthy to rule. Sir David-little-boy, who had helped save the queen from execution, was crowned prince of the nation.

The cast was as follows: Prologue to the performance, Annie Wagoner; The Device Bearer, Evelyn Braxton; You-in-the-audience, Howard Trivette; The Population, Walter Robertson; The Soldier, Waldo Williams; The Mime,

(Continued on Page Two)

COBLE IS PRESIDENT OF CLAY SOCIETY

The Henry Clay Literary Society elected officers, whose terms of office will begin with the new school year in September. Charles Coble, of Guilford, was elected president. To serve with him are Barclay Newlin, Saxapahaw, vice-president; Elvin Haworth, Danville, Indiana, secretary; James Harper, assistant secretary; Delmas Newlin, Saxapahaw, treasurer; Everette Beaman, Elizabeth City, censor; Walter Davis, East Bend, chaplain; Weldon Reece, Booneville, sergeant-at-arms.

THIRTY-FIVE SENIORS GIVEN DEGREES AND DR. POTEAT SPEAKS

Pres. Binford Gives Charge to Class of Twenty-Eight as He Awards Degrees

LARGEST QUAKER CLASS

Minnesingers Glee Club Assists in Program and Prof. Max Noah Gives Vocal Solo, "Light"

June 5.—Thirty-five members of the senior class received this morning at the annual commencement exercises in Memorial Hall their college degrees.

After the impressive processional Mr. Max Noah sang a solo, "Light." Dr. Binford made his charge to the seniors and awarded the diplomas. Dr. William Louis Poteat, president emeritus of Wake Forest College, delivered the baccalaureate address before the graduating class.

The following are the graduates: Lois Atkinson, Guilford College, A. B.; Laura Ballinger, Greensboro, A. B.; Glenn Boose, Winston-Salem, B. S.; Evelyn Braxton, Snow Camp, A. B.; Joseph J. Cox, High Point, A. B.; Suddie Cox, Princeton, B. S.; Robert Griffin, Woodland, A. B.; Tom Hadley, Saxapahaw, A. B.; Ruby Hall, Roseboro, A. B.; Alma Hassell, Jamestown, A. B.; Byron Haworth, Burlington, A. B.; Virginia Helms, Monroe, A. B.; Annie Hodgkin, Guilford College, B. S.; Mary Hodgkin, Guilford College, B. S.; Berta Hollody, Greensboro, A. B.; Ruth Anne Horney, High Point, A. B.; Sarah Jinnette, Bentonville, A. B.; Doris Joyner, Walters, Va., A. B.; Louise Kendall, Guilford, A. B.; Ruth Lane, Tyner, A. B.; Worth Mackie, Yadkinville, A. B.; Espie Neece, Climax, A. B.; Ira Newlin, Saxapahaw, B. S.; Orlin Newlin, Saxapahaw, B. S.; Floyd Pate, Goldsboro, B. S.; Paul Reynolds, Randleman, B. S.; Myrtle Richardson, Benaja, B. S.; Walter Robertson, Mount Airy, A. B.; Carl Sink, Lexington, A. B.; Albert Smith, Pikeville, B. S.; Nell Stinson, Goldston, A. B.; Howard Trivette, Winston-Salem, A. B.; Annie Wagoner, Gibsonville, A. B.; Sallie Wilkins, Rose Hill, A. B.; Waldo Williams, East Bend, B. S.

TRUEBLOOD TALKS ON NEED FOR COURAGE

Students Going into the World Must Maintain Faith in Themselves and in Their Ideals

ADDRESS BEFORE 'Y' ASSOCIATIONS

June 3.—Dean Trueblood spoke on "Courage" in his address before the Christian Associations tonight. The speaker emphasized mental and moral rather than physical courage.

The content of Dean Trueblood's address is as follows: With the coming of vacation for the undergraduate or the final departure from the serenity of college life for the graduate there comes a tendency to feel a sort of chilliness for ideals. We find ourselves out of the shelter of college life where idealism lives in every word and action.

We get ourselves out in the open world in an environment that is totally different and entirely selfish. Here we find people are openly and avowedly for self first, last and always, and they have an attitude that says, "Let us have practical material things rather than high ideals."

(Continued on Page Two)