QUAKERS WIN OVER CAMPBELL IN DULL GRID ENCOUNTER

Fumbles Frequent Throughout Whole Game, but Visitors Were Outclassed.

JOHNNIE LOVE IS STAR

Quakers Push Over Scores in Each of First Two Periods, But Fail in Last Half.

Guilford College, Oct. 12.—Guilford played miserable football here this afternoon but due to her superior strength, she managed to defeat Campbell, 12 to 0, in one of the dullest games imaginable. The one bright spot in the play of the Quakers was the work of Johnnie Love, left end, who was the star of the afternoon.

Guilford received the opening kickoff and immediately proceeded to fumble; Campbell was unable to move forward, so they punted and the Guilford back dropped it with Campbell recovering on Guilford's four-yard line. Here the Guilford line flashed some defensive strength and the ball went over to them on downs.

Following this demonstration, the Quakers pushed over a touchdown on several yards' advantage gained in an exchange of punts and some good running by Cox and Bunn, the latter taking the ball over after a pretty broken-field run for 15 yards. The remainder of the first quarter saw the teams battling ineffectually in the middle of the field.

In the second quarter Guilford pushed over her second marker near the end of the period after she had failed to make the most of several scoring chances. Cox took this marker across after Guilford had again gotten the best of an exchange of punts and Johnson and Chisholm had brought the ball down into scoring territory.

If the first half was bad, the second half was worse and the spectators saw the Guilford team throw away chance after chance to run up the score. The promiscuous fumbling seemed to increase and the visitors, taking advantage of the poor work of the locals, flashed a threat of their own at the first of the last quarter, but this was checked by the Quakers who, near the end of the game, were showing a passing attack that was working well.

One department of the play of the Guilford team was up to par and that was the punting. Cox did most of this work and he got off some boots that were unusually good, one of them traveling 60 yards; his average for the afternoon was 40 yards. Love also got off a nice punt near the close of the game which traveled about 45 yards.

Throughout the whole of the contest it was apparent that the Quakers were the superior team and though the visitors got all the breaks of the game, they were strong enough to capitalize on the miscues of the Quakers.

Love was particularly good on the defense, but he also looked good on receiving passes near the close of the game, the final play of the game being a completed pass from West for 20

QUAKES

Hoyle is back at Guilford as the line coach until football season is over. The addition of Hoyle to the coaching staff is a great help to all concerned.

The agitation recently started over a golf course is something that should be followed up with action on the part of those concerned. Even if the cow-pasture is to the course at first—well, you know all about the saying—"Great oaks from little acorns grow."

Tennis is a sport that seems to be neglected by the student body at present. The annual fall tournament has failed to materialize, not for the lack of an incentive, as Mr. Pancoast has offered a silver cup to the winner, but because of the lack of ambition on the part of the tennis followers.

We are glad to know that all three of Guilford's coaches of former years are doing well. Doak, of the firm of Doak-Connelly, is doing well as a sporting goods store owner; Crawford is smashing the ball for the Giants during the summer and attending Springfield during the winter, while Norman Shepherd, last year's miracle man, is producing athletes at Randolph-Macon. We wish them the best of luck.

Lippincott looked good at tackle for the local team and Chisholm played the best game he has played for Guilford. Twice he intercepted enemy passes in dangerous territory and he was one of the few Guilford backs who did not fumble.

For the Campbell team, Lowe, substitute quarter, and Harrington, at tackle, were outstanding.

Lineup and summary:

Guilford	Pos.	Campbell
Love	L. E.	Myers
Murphy	L. T.	Turnage

MISS HAVILAND TALKS ON PALESTINIAN CUSTOMS

Tells of Work Being Carried on in Girls' School Near Jerusalem; Curriculum Is Interesting.

MENTION MADE OF DAILY CREED

Like all other people the people in Palestine, in order to do them justice, their homes, general ideas, and customs must be given consideration. These conditions differ as they do with us. Many families, from which come influential persons, are reared in one room huts. Others have palatial homes, with open courts and beautiful furniture.

Miss Haviland spoke for the most part of girls with whom she was in direct contact for some years, in a Friends School located ten miles north of Jerusalem. The girls in this school have regular high school course, they are taught English thoroughly. All the work in the school is done by the girls except cooking. They are taught to sew and are graded regularly on housework, punctuality, and community spirit, the latter is especially noticed and special attempts are made to keep a wholesome community spirit going. The girls are especially eager to learn, since the idea that girls can't and are not supposed to learn is dying out gradually. They are not scientists, as is generally thought of easterners.

Miss Haviland told of the girls starting a Christian Society in which an active member must measure up to be a real Christian, very few probably were allowed. Two things which the members must do was, first, be sincere, second, be a good housekeeper. So few could get into this society. A Girl Reserve was started to take its place.

The creeds of the girls were given special mention. Miss Haviland quoted one which was especially good, and as she said, one by which many of us might profitably live.

1. Guiding the ignorant.
2. Helping the needy.
3. Loving yourself last.
4. Lifting and not leaving.
5. Climbing.
6. Radiating sunshine to every person in the wide world.

Quakers Play In Rocky Mount Next

In their next game on the season's program the Quakers will battle A. C. C. at Rocky Mount Fair, Friday, October 18.

Tom Cheek who has been out with a sprained ankle will resume his work as quarterback. Cheek's brilliant field generalship was missed in the last game with Campbell.

Jimmie Bunn, star halfback is recovering from his minor injury received in the Campbell game and is slated to do good work.

Many new men are expected to see service Friday, especially Farlow who is being groomed for the end, and Johnson, who looked good at fullback. Regan's weak ankle has checked his speed and it is doubtful if he will start.

Coach Anderson foresees in the oncoming game with A. C. C. a stiff battle and expects to use this week in smoothing out the many defects exhibited in the game with Campbell.

WELL, WELL, GUILFORD HAS PLENTY OF WATER

a water shortage. "Why, I can remember," quoth a present Soph, "when I had the tub and the water went off, I didn't get a bath, but four seniors, seven juniors, and two sophomores profited by my loss."

The well is to be 12 or 15 feet in diameter, and it is to increase the present supply 35 per cent of its former amount. An automatic pump will keep the tank from getting below three-fourths full. So, in view of a bigger, better, and purer water supply, we happily attend our daily tasks and drink eight glasses of water each day.

Miss Lillian Hindley and brother, Howard Hindley, and his wife, were visitors on the campus Thursday afternoon. The Hindleys are visiting in Randolph county where they are tracing their ancestors.

FACULTY MEMBERS CHAPEL PROGRAM

Miss Miles and Mr. Reynolds Sing in Chapel; to Give Radio Program Soon.

BROADCAST OVER W.N.R.C.

Miss Eva Miles, and Mr. Reynolds entertained in chapel on Friday with a group of vocal numbers most of which have already been used or will be used on some of the Guilford Radio programs.

Mr. Reynolds sang a group of three numbers as solos and then he and Miss Miles sang "The Rosary" as a duet. The solos were, "A Dream," "Sweet Miss Mary," and "The Gypsy Trail."

Following this program, the members of the A Capella Choir led the students in the singing for the morning; Mr. Noah was director.

The radio programs referred to above have become general by the people of the college and two others are to follow this week, one of which will be by the two instructors who entertained in chapel.

These programs are presented with the idea of advertising Guilford College in general and the music department in particular, and later in the year some of the student musical organizations will be on for programs.

People away from Guilford can tune in on station W. N. R. C. for these broadcasts which will usually be on Tuesdays or Thursdays at 7:15.

Miss Bernice Duffee Henley, a member of the class of '29 is teaching in the Summer High School.
