Guilford Quakers Trim Elon In Great Thanksgiving Battle

DOWN CHRISTIANS BEFORE A LARGE HOLIDAY CROWD

Andersonites Use Flashy Attack in Baffling Their Ancient Rivals.

WILKIE HEAVES 50-Yd PASS

Spectacular Play in Last Quarter Bewilders Stands as Well as Coach Walker's Men.

Displaying a fine brand of football, the Guilford team battled its way to a 24 to 6 win over their ancient rivals from Elon on Thanksgiving before a holiday crowd of some 2,500 people, in the Greensboro stadium.

This, the 14th annual clash between the two schools, was without doubt one of the most colorful that either had ever participated in, not only on the field, but in the stands. Only in the case of intense rivalry can such enthusiasm be manifested.

The first quarter found neither goal line crossed, both teams playing heady, defensive ball. The second quarter found the ball in Elon's possession on its own 34-yard line. Newsome kicked a long one to Turner, who was downed on his own 20-yard line. Turner, Norman and Finch carried the ball for two first downs to Guilford's 45-yard line. Turner then threw a pass to Newman who raced for a touchdown on a 55-yard gain.

Later in the same quarter Norman caught an Elon pass and was downed on his opponent's 40-yard stripe. Jamieson and Norman carried the ball to Elon's 25-yard line and a first down and then Norman, on a spin-play, crossed the goal line for Guilford's second score.

Near the last of the third quarter, Rosely, Guilford's left end, blocked a Christian punt on their 20-yard line. Turner then threw a pass to Newman for another score.

The fourth quarter was by far the most thrilling. Elon received the kick on their 37-yard line and drove for three consecutive first downs to G. C.'s six-yard line. Three line plungers carried the ball to the Quaker one yard line. Newsome took the ball on a center rush and was met by 11 Guilford men on the two-foot line. Jamieson punted and then Elon fumbled on their own 30-yard marker, and the ball was recovered by Guilford. It was then that Guilford pulled the surprise play of the game—a combination double lateral and forward pass play that was good for 70 yards and another score. Norman took the ball from center, passed it back over his head to Turner who in turn passed it to Wilkie, G. C.'s left guard. Wilkie had taken Jamieson's place at left half, while Jamieson replaced the end who went into Wilkie's guard position. Wilkie threw a long 55-yard pass to Jamieson, who raced across the goal line. This play was one of the neatest, flashiest bit of football that the South has seen in many a day.

Near the end of the last quarter the Elon team managed to score on a long drive through a Quaker team composed mostly of second and third string men.

In the North State Race

Scoring statistics of the North State conference for the season to date follow:

The Conference Standings

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Catawba	4	0	0	1.000
Lenoir-Rhyne	4	1	0	.800
Guilford	2	2	0	.500
High Point	2	3	0	.400
Appalachian	0	3	0	.000
Elon	0	3	0	.000

Appalachian defeated Lenoir-Rhyne, but forfeited the game because of the use of an ineligible player.

Team Scoring Records

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	O.P.

ALL OPPONENT TEAM AS GUILFORDIAN SEES IT

From the dope received and from seeing most of the Quakers' opponents in action, the following all-star team is announced:

- L.E.....Robinson ..... Catawba
- L.T.....Craver ..... High Point
- L.G.....Mackey .. Emory and Henry
- Center.....Smith ..... Roanoke
- R.G.....Meade .. William and Mary
- R.T.....Barnett ..... Roanoke
- R.E.....Halligan .. William and Mary
- Q.B.....Hess ..... Randolph Macon
- R.H.....Palese .. William and Mary
- L.H.....Kerr ..... Langley Field
- F.B.....De Lotta .... Randolph Macon

Robinson receives the nod over Little, of Lenoir-Rhyne, because of his great defensive playing as well as being an able pass receiver. He was one of the best ends in the state the past season.

Craver was the best tackle to oppose the Quakers this past season. He was always a tower of strength in the line.

Mackey, at left guard for the Wasps, made life miserable for Anderson's Quakers and made tackle after tackle in Guilford's backfield.

Smith, at center, was a great defensive man as well as a bear on the offense. Guilford couldn't keep him out of a play.

Meade, at right guard, was a tower of strength on a great team. He played an outstanding game against Guilford.

Barnett, of Roanoke, at right tackle just couldn't be taken out by the Quakers, whether on the offense or defense.

QUAKES

By Frank Allen

The basketball season got under way with only three veterans reporting to Coach Anderson. Jamieson, Purnell and Milner are the letter men around whom the team will be built. Several members of last year's second team are back, as well as a fair crop of first-year men. It is too early in the season to state just how the material on hand will shape up.

The Quaker loopsters had counted on Pastine and Schroff, two letter men, to take care of the vacancies now existing, but as they did not return this fall other men will fill their positions. There is a possibility that Schroff will return the second semester and this will greatly strengthen the Quakers.

Suits were issued to Weston, Newman, Dave Griffin, Ted Griffin, George Parker, Jack Norman, and Earl Mooney besides the letter men. Norman and Mooney are first-year men, but have had lots of experience with crack high school teams.

Other candidates reporting were Reynolds, Jones, Carroll, Craver, Mackey, Wisenfluh, Bouton, Venable, and Williams.

We notice that the Catawba paper boasts that the Indian team could beat a team picked from Guilford, Elon, High Point, Lenoir-Rhyne, and Appalachian. Here's the team we think could trim Catawba:

- Rasely (Guilford), left end.
- Craver (High Point, left tackle
- Wilkie (Guilford), left guard.
- Mooney (Guilford) center.
- Burgwyn (Guilford), right guard.
- Stasovitch (Lenoir-Rhyne), right tackle.

- Little (Lenoir-Rhyne), right end.
- Jamieson (Guilford), quarterback.
- Newman (Guilford), left halfback.
- Newton (Lenoir-Rhyne), right halfback.

Poovey (Lenoir-Rhyne), fullback. We make these selections for the following reasons:

Rasely, Craver, Wilkie, Burgwyn, Stasovitch, and Little because of their consistent play throughout the season. We picked Mooney over Rudisell, for this particular team, because of his showing in the Catawba game; not because of a better seasonal record.

The backfield selections were made to give us a line-plunger in Poovey, two fine running backs in Newton and Jamieson and a good blocking back in Newman.

tosses to Palese will never be forgotten by the Quakers. He received honorable mention on the Associated Press All-American.

Hess was the fastest man that Quakers played against. His selection of plays was superb and in his return of punts he left nothing undone.

Palese, at right halfback, would make any coach's heart beat with joy. He can catch passes, run with the pork-skin, and can really break up plays while on the defense. He received honorable mention for All-American, the same as his team-mate, Halligan.

Kerr, of Langley Field, was a flashy broken-field runner as well as a great defensive man. De Lotta, of Randolph-Macon, could kick them a mile, crack the line, and really back up his line on the defense. He was a real player who could do everything well.

Among the freshman commandments published in the Utah Chronicle is: "Thou shalt not keep thyself in the presence of one woman; for it is not good."

CLASS SPORTS PROVE SUCCESSFUL

New Program of Athletics at Guilford Takes in Many Branches of Sports.

MEDALS FOR WINNERS

The intra mural sports program that was introduced this year is proceeding with a marked degree of success. The interest in it has not reached all that might be desired, but it is at least as much as could be expected.

Coach Anderson has announced that a huge silver loving cup has been purchased upon which will be engraved the numerals of the class winning the championship every year. So far this year the seniors have run away with things, having won the volley ball, the tag football, and the speedball championships.

A tennis tournament is in progress. The winners of both the singles and the doubles will be presented with gold medals. This week finds the classes competing for the soccer championship.

Later, the classes will vie for the basketball crown. Individual medals will be presented to the winners of the tumbling, wrestling and boxing championships.

This program is made possible through the efforts of Coach Anderson who is training the Physical Ed. classes in the rudiments of these sports.

GLANCING OVER THE FOOTBALL SEASON

Guilford's 1932 football season has passed into history. The Quakers played ten games, losing seven and winning three. The first four games, Emory-Henry, Langley Field, Randolph Macon, and William and Mary were strong teams and Coach Anderson's charges expected a tough battle in each case. The Roanoke game, though it was lost, was the point at which the Guilford squad started working together and showing the stuff they were capable of.

At High Point the team came through with a victory. Catawba and Lenoir-Rhyne were conference leaders and neither game was a walkaway. E. C. T. C. was the Quaker's only push-over. Then came the game that made a success of the whole season—the Elon defeat on Thanksgiving Day.

Guilford's conference standing at the close of the season was satisfactory. Guilford reached third, with Jamieson as conference leader in individual scores. The total of points scored for the season was exceeded only by Catawba.

Jamieson, being a constant threat on offense and a power behind the line on the defense, was the star of the Quaker machine. He also acted as alternate captain in place of Harry Wellons whose injured knee kept him on the sidelines for most of the games.

He gamely started several times, and during the last of the season showed a revival of the form and speed which made him such a power in his previous seasons at Guilford. John Burgwyn, captain-elect of the 1933 team, was the outstanding linesman of the team and one of the best guards in the conference. Purnell, Riley, and Mears at tackle, Rudisell and Mooney at center, Wilkie, Bouton, and Newlin at guard, and Rasely, Biddle, Johnson and Watkins at end all made good records. In the backfield Newman, Norman, Finch and Turner turned in good games all year.

Wellons, Jamieson, and Newlin are the only graduating letter men on the squad.
