JAMIESON BREAKS HAND

Quaker Captain Injures Hand in Second Half; Finishes Game Despite Cracked Bone.

Guilford started its drive for the conference basketball crown on the night of January 24th by defeating the Appalachian team at Boone by a 42 to 36 score. Rated a comparatively weak team this year, the Quakers overcame an early six-point lead and remained on top the rest of the game.

The second half was close throughout the first part, but the Quaker sharpshooters finally pulled away to win heavily, with Newman and Parker scoring almost at will. The former led the evening's scoring with 13 points, followed by his teammate with 12 and McConnell of the teachers with 11.

Coach Anderson's crew received a severe blow in the last few minutes of play when Captain Jamieson, center man par excellence, received a broken hand in one of the melees.

G.C. TRACK TEAM STARTS WORK FOR INDOOR MEET

Coach F. C. Shepard Announces Tentative Schedule As Men Train for Big Meet.

Coach Shepard's 1933 track team held its initial practice last Wednesday in preparation for the Southern Conference Indoor Championships to take place in March at Chapel Hill. This year's meet will include a more extensive program of events for non-conference teams than has been had in the past, and the Guilford men are priming themselves to bring back some gold medals.

Guilford teams have always made a good showing at the indoor meet and prospects are even brighter this year as the more numerous events will allow some of the team's best men to enter.

A mile relay team will no doubt be entered. In 1931 the Guilford College quartet placed second in the record-breaking Presbyterian outfit and last year they placed third in a fast race won by William and Mary.

Coach Shepard has announced a tentative schedule for the outdoor season which includes meets with Emory and Henry, Lynchburg, Randolph-Macon, and Hampden-Sydney. Any North State schools who have teams will be met and the team will go to the state championship as in the past.

Ten letter men are back, about whom Shepard will build his team. They are: Captain Frank Allen, Wendell Newlin, Ikey Thompson, Gordon Wilkie, Matthew Bridger, Henry Turner, Charles Quaker Captain Plays Whole Game With Hand Broken in the Appalachian Game on Night Before.

The Guilford cage team lost the second game in its conference series to the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears Friday night by a 42 to 24 score. The Quaker team, weakened by its tilt with Appalachian the night before and by the fact that Jamieson was playing with a broken hand, failed to click.

The Catawba team, however, played heads up ball, broke fast and made their shots count. Guilford had perhaps as many shots, but couldn't seem to find the basket. Their foul shots were almost useless, only two being made to count.

At the half the score was 29 to 9 in favor of the home team, who had gotten an early lead which they held handily.

The second half witnessed numerous changes in the lineup, with the Bears still hitting the hoop for counters. The game ended with the Lenoir-Rhyne team in possession of a comfortable lead.

| Lenoir-Rhyne | G. | F.T.P. |
|--------------|----|--------|
| Little, f | 8 | 0 |
| Steller, f | 1 | 1 |
| Leath, f | 4 | 2 |

A CAPELLA CHOIR SINGS IN A CHAPEL PROGRAM

ber which, when sung at the home concert each year, the old choir members present are asked to help with.

"Alleluia! Christ Is Risen," by Kopyloff, a Russian chorus, was very beautifully sung.

"In Joseph's Lovely Garden," and three of the other numbers, had harmonious humming effects to support the singing of a soloist.

The other two numbers were "In Joseph's Lovely Garden," by Dickinson, and "God Is a Spirit," by David Hugh Jones.

BOB JAMIESON

QUAKES By Frank Allen

The Quakers put an awful dent in the old dope bucket Saturday night when they scalped the Catawba Indians with Jamieson watching from the sidelines as the result of some rough stuff at Appalachian, and with Milner playing after being in bed with the flu until that a. m., the home team wasn't what most people would call a sure bet to win. But the old Psychology must have been at work, because the boys showed themselves capable of winning from stiff competition under 'most any kind of handicap.

And about that broken hand of Jamieson's. It was a gift from one Mr. Walker up at the Teachers' College at Boone. Mr. Walker is quite an asset to his team, as two members of the E. C. T. C. team and one of the L-R team will assure you. He ought to go great on Johnny Johnson's football team.

You men interested in tennis should get out your rackets and start working as soon as its warm enough, because Parsons is trying to arrange a trip for the tennis team to meet Rollins College and several other Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina teams during Spring vacation.

The Intra-Mural boxing and wrestling schedule will soon start with the class weight winners getting gold medals. Not a bad proposition, unless you happen to be in the same division as Burgwyn, Wilkie, Weisenflew, Turner, or Roach.

Coach Shepard's track team is going to miss Haworth, Sichel, Morrow, and Newman this year. The weights and hurdles and sprints look weak.

The Earham College Quakers must have a wov of a basketball team this year. They've been cleaning up in the East and Middle West.

G.C. BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY 18 GAMES IN COMING SEASON

Extensive Schedule Includes Duke University and Parris Island Marines.

H. P. COLLEGE TO BE MET

Panthers Return to Schedule After Absence of Several Years; All N. S. C. to Be Met.

Guilford College, February 1.—The Guilford College Quakers will play a schedule of 18 baseball games this spring with different colleges of the state besides a few games with strong semi-pro teams yet to be named.

The schedule lists games with all other members of the North State Conference. A four-game series is listed with both Elon and Lenoir-Rhyne, and a three-game series with High Point College. This is the first time in a number of years that the Quakers and Panthers series is bound to create a great deal of interest.

Duke, Catawba and Atlantic Christian College will also be met on the ball field by the Quakers this year.

Manager Plin Mears has arranged another southern trip this year. Lenoir-Rhyne will be the Quakers' opponent in the first two games and the Parris Island Marines will play host to Guilford in the last three games of the trip.

At the present writing, Coach Anderson has only four veterans from last year's club. Ted Griffin in left field, George Parker, third base, "Pepper" Martin, shortstop, and "Hap" Purnell on the mound. Bob Jamieson, who was a regular in his freshman year, may be able to play this year. If so, he'll plug the hole left by Webster, who did not return. Rasely is another good prospect, and is a pitcher of no mean ability. Perry, and Mackie from all reports have the stuff to make the grade, but the ability of the new men can only be determined after the season gets under way.

The schedule follows:
 March 27: Lenoir-Rhyne, there.
 March 28: Lenoir-Rhyne, there.
 March 30: Parris Island, there.
 March 31: Parris Island, there.
 April 1: Parris Island, there.
 April 5: Elon, here.
 April 8: A. C. C., here.
 April 11: High Point, here.
 April 14: Duke University, there.
 April 15: High Point, there.
 April 17: Elon, Memorial Stadium, Greensboro, N. C.
 April 20: Catawba, there.
 April 22: Elon, Burlington, N. C.
 April 25: Elon, there.
 April 28: Lenoir-Rhyne, here.
 April 29: Lenoir-Rhyne, here.
 May 4: Catawba, here.
 May 6: High Point, here.

Trounce Visitors Despite the Absence of Bob Jamieson From the Line-up.

H. PURNELL HIGH SCORER

Milner Gets Up From Bed to Rank Second in Team's Scoring; Game Close in Second Half.

Flashing an attack that could not be denied in the first half, the Guilford College Quakers upset the pre-season dope and defeated Catawba by the score of 36 to 32.

The game was only seconds old when Milner shot a long one to put the Quakers in the lead. Parker followed with two heart-throbbers which gave Guilford a six to nothing advantage, when Catawba called time out. On resuming play Purnell got loose under the basket and sank a couple of his famous one-handed shots. During all this scoring on the part of the Quakers, Catawba was only able to gather two foul shots by Robinson.

During the rest of the half, Quaker shots for two points followed in rapid succession, while Catawba only made two double-deckers, both by Pearson, and seven free tosses. The half ended with the Quakers leading 24 to 11.

The second half was just the reverse of the first part of the game. The Indians, led by Pearson and Goodman, tied the score at 25 all. Purnell then made two foul shots good and from then on the Quakers were never headed.

In the last few minutes of the game Catawba tried hard to overtake the flying Quakers, but baskets by Milner and Weston near the end of the game clinched things for Guilford.

Purnell led the Quakers with 12 points and was followed by Parker with 6 and Weston with 5. Griffin, Newman and Weston were the defensive stars of the game.

Pearson, substitute forward for Catawba, was the offensive star with 14 points, while Goodman stood out on the defense.
