

FIGURE STATISTICS ON NEXT COLLEGE GENERATION HERE

Quaker Marriages Indicated for Thirty of Present Student Body; 15 Grandchildren.

PRESENT OTHER FIGURES

One Out of Every Six Now Enrolled Will Send Children to Guilford.

From statistics on the parents of the present student body, covering a period of approximately 30 years, predictions have been made as to what the statistics 30 years hence will show. That is, if the present generation follows the footsteps of the last.

One out of every six of the present Guilfordians will send children to college here. One out of every 20 will marry a Guilfordian and send children here.

Statistics show that 51 students out of the present student body of 297 have parents who came to Guilford. Sixteen of these had both mother and father in school here.

Fifteen have grandparents but not parents in school here. Eight of the mothers found husbands elsewhere and 28 of the fathers found wives elsewhere. Fourteen of the fathers were Guilford graduates from classes of '95 to '08. Five of the mothers graduated from classes of '95-'12.

Present students having both mother and father attend Guilford are: Emory Andrews, Edward P. Benbow, Charles E. Blair, Evan Brown, Elizabeth Bulla, Mary Alma Coltrane, Elwood Cox, William Edgerton, Virginia Neece, Eunice Otwell, Ester and Rachel Perkins, Alfred Stuart, Priscilla White, Allison Wilson, and Eleanor Wood.

MEN DAY STUDENTS ELECT STIMSON FOR PRESIDENT

Organize Group for First Time This Year; No Definite Aims Set As Yet.

COX CHOSEN FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

Horace Stimson, of Greensboro, was elected president of the men day students when that group held its first meeting for organization purposes last week in Men's Center.

The meeting was called by a special committee composed of Horace Stimson, Edgar Meibohm, and Holt Knight, appointed by the men's student government of the school.

Carson Cox was chosen vice-president of the group unanimously.

By a special motion the offices of secretary and treasurer were divided. Edgar Meibohm was elected secretary and Marvin Sykes, treasurer.

Stimson is a junior, Cox a senior. Meibohm and Sykes, sophomores. All but Sykes have been in Guilford from their freshman year.

No definite dates for future meetings of the day men's organization have been set, or definite objectives formulated.

Miss Elizabeth Teaters, of Troy, O., was honored at a tea given by Mrs. Milner on Saturday afternoon, October 21, from 4:00 to 5:00. Guests included faculty members and their wives, and Mrs. Luther Gable and son, Russell. Tea was poured in the faculty parlor by Miss Bruce. Miss Teaters was on her way to Florida, and stopped for a ten-day visit with Mrs. Milner.

An elaborate funeral was held on Friday evening, October 27, for the purpose of burying the Zatasian and Philomathean literary societies. During the playing of a funeral dirge by Mina Donnell and Anna Jean Bonham, the procession of mourners, ushered by Mary Alma Coltrane and Frances Alexander, marched slowly down the aisle and took their places at the front of the auditorium. The presidents of the societies, Elizabeth Alexander and Eunice Otwell, headed this group. Then Ellene Younts sang a solo, "Long, Long Ago," and the minister (Naomi Binford) preached a sermon over the caskets, at the close of which mourners and friends were invited up to view the corpses.

The Guilford cheering section at the William and Mary game at Williamsburg, Va., on October 21, was composed of: Mrs. Stonewall Anderson, Miss Ricks, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, Priscilla White, Elizabeth Alexander, Dorothy Ragsdale, Julia Blair Hodgkin, and Martha Taylor.

The program of the regular class meeting of the music students on October 23 consisted of a piano solo by Louise Lee, current events by Elizabeth Adams, a story by Naomi Binford, and vocal solos by Frances McIver, Ellene Younts, Mina Donnell and Martha Taylor.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Nan Nichols, a member of the freshman class, to a Mr. Davis, of White Plains, N. C.

Professor Alfred Joy, of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, found that the earth is whirling about its star system at 9,000 miles per minute. Compared with the earth, the fastest airplane travels only at a snail's pace.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Y. W. C. A.

The Freshman Y. W. C. A. cabinet has been selected following a definite program of selection which has been in progress since early in the school year. A meeting of all the freshman girls was called by Erline Hunter, freshman leader, and Rose Askew, Y. W. C. A. president. The purpose of this meeting was to find out the girls who are interested in Y. M. C. A. work. Questionnaires were handed out, and from the results of these and of personal interviews the following girls were selected: Margaret Fields, Ester Stilson, Emily Levering, Ruth Payne, Ruth Newlin, Frances McIver, Elizabeth Gillam, Elinor Wood, Mabel Buckner, Frances Johnson, Sarah Lindley, and Wilda Stack.

This group met Wednesday evening in Erline Hunter's room and discussed plans for the year. They want to act as a committee to make the freshman girls feel at home in the school and to connect the "Y. W." with the freshman class. Various interesting and worthwhile projects will be carried on during the year.

Oct. 26.—"Joint Y"—Musical program by Miss Adelaide Crowell, violinist, and Miss Susan Sharpe, flutist, of Woman's College, Greensboro.
