

FRIENDLY GARDEN CLUB OF GUILFORD SPONSORS SHOW

Flower Organizations from All Over the State Come to Men's Center.

DR. COKER SHOWS SLIDES

Great Interest Shown At Meeting in Plants, Shrubbery and Arrangements of Them.

The Friendly Garden Club of Guilford College, a member of the State Federation of Garden Clubs, sponsored a flower show in Men's Center yesterday. Displays of potted plants, shrubbery, bowl, vase, and basket arrangements, tea tables, and other means of using flowers in the home were seen by visitors from High Point, Greensboro, Oak Ridge, and Guilford College.

Dr. Coker, head botanist at the University of North Carolina, and planner of the Arboretum there, showed slides on "Trees" Friday night.

The officers of the club, which has as its purpose "to promote interest in highway beautification and individual gardens," are: Miss Eleanor Fox, president; Mrs. S. E. Coble, vice-president; Mrs. H. L. Cannon, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Hugh White, publicity chairman. Mrs. N. A. White is chairman of the flower show.

CAPELLA HEADS ORDER OF BATTING AVERAGES

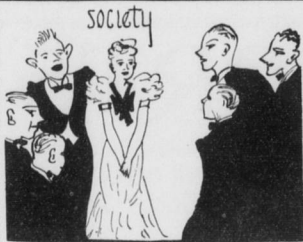

Finch and Parker Are the Only Other Men on the Team Hitting Over .300.

A survey of the batting averages figured from games played up until today shows three men on the team hitting over .300—Capella, Finch, and Parker. Jack Cox barely misses being in the group. Jesse Finch is the leading distance hitter with three home runs to his credit.

The average (first five) are as follows:

Capella	341
Finch	326
Parker	325
Cox	292
Weston	242

Miss Anna Naomi Binford entertained several guests at a supper party at her home Monday evening. Those invited were Misses Lily Bett Hales, Frances Alexander, Jane Clegg, Rose Askew, Helen Stilson, Esther Stilson, Mary Alma Coltrane, Adeline Russell, Ruth Newlin, and Emily Virginia Levinger.

Miss Nell Dodson spent the week-end at the college as a guest of Miss Eunice Otwell.

Miss Ruth Newlin spent the week-end with her parents, motoring home with Mr. and Mrs. Algie Newlin.

Miss Evelyn Hoagland spent Tuesday night and Wednesday with Miss Eleanor V. Wood. Miss Hoagland is from Trenton, New Jersey, and spends her summers at Long Island, New York.

Miss Priscilla White had as her week-end guest Miss Eileen Briant who is from Poughkeepsie, New York. Miss Briant is a student at N. C. C. W. this year.

Miss Flora Bungarner spent a few days with Miss Ruth Fuquay, spending a good portion of her days visiting her friends here at the college.

Miss Helen Jones, of High Point, spent the week-end with Miss Julia Blair Hodgkin. Miss Jones is a student at N. C. C. W. this year.

Miss Rachel Beasley, former student of Guilford, was the guest of Martha Taylor and Margaret Perkins over the week-end.

Misses Ruth Payne, Mina Donnell, Felsie Riddle, Mildred Marlette, and Helen Lowe spent the week-end with their parents in their respective homes.

Miss Marcella Wright, of High Point, was the guest of her sister, Hazel Wright.

MUSIC FESTIVAL HERE UNDER NOAH AGAIN

P. D. Gilreath, pianist and accompanist, of Sedgefield.

The second annual Guilford County public school music concert will be given on the Guilford campus in front of the library, Saturday afternoon, May 5, as the third program in the festival. Over 4,000 high school and grammar grade children will sing as one united chorus under the direction of Mr. Noah and Miss Wilbur.

The University of North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, directed by Earl Slocum, formerly of Greensboro, will appear in concert in Memorial Hall Saturday evening. The orchestra will give a full program of symphonic music.

The climax of the festival will come Sunday afternoon, May 6, with the presentation of a program of sacred music by a massed chorus made up of the Guilford College choir, the choirs of the Church of the Covenant, the First Christian Church, and the West Market Street Methodist Church, all of Greensboro; the Greensboro Male Chorus, the Wesley Memorial Church of High Point; and the Brown Memorial Church of Winston-Salem. The chorus will include approximately 200 voices under the direction of Mr. Noah. Sixteen church anthems selected from Gaul, Spieker, Poteat, Elgar, Stainer, and Gounod will make up the program to be presented by the chorus.

HANES
The Famous Samsonbak Union Suit
 There is nothing miserly about the cutting of HANES underwear. No skimping of a half-inch here and there. HANES Shirts, Shorts and knitted Union Suits (both light and heavy) always tally with the tape-measure. A size forty-two is a forty-two.
 No Underwear could grow as HANES has grown, unless it offered comfort, quality and style!
