

GUILFORD SONGSTERS PUBLISH SCHEDULE OF CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Choir Will Travel North Early Next Spring; Itinerary Not Decided.

NUMBER OF SINGERS 61

Selections Grouped According to Nationalities; Negro, Russian, Latin, Old Classical Numbers Listed.

The Guilford College choir announces the program for the Christmas and spring seasons. There will be some minor changes made in the arrangement, but this is the expected program make up, Dr. E. H. F. Weiss stated.

Dr. Weiss stated further that the choir picture for this year will be taken some time in November. At the present date there are 61 members belonging to this organization, and the majority have voted for the northern trip to be made in the spring.

The program ranges from the simple melody, "Holly and the Ivy," by Boughton, to "I Wrestle and Pray," by Bach, sung by an eight-part double choir. Dr. Weiss has arranged groups of numbers consisting of Russian, Negro Spirituals, Latin, Old Classical, and songs by American writers.

The concert given will be made up of four groups, Dr. Weiss arranging the groups to suit the various occasions. This is the probable arrangement for the Christmas concert:

GROUP I

Praise the Lord, All Ye Nations—Jonnelli.

Blessed Saviour, Our Lord Jesus—Hossler.

I Wrestle and Pray—Bach.
In Mirth and Gladness—Neidt.

GROUP II

HALLOWE'EN PARTY IS GREAT SUCCESS

Mary Alma Coletrane Wins Prize for Best Costume; Sophomore Skit Praised.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED

Mary Alma Coltrane and the sophomore class, jointly and severally, ended up in the money at the Hallowe'en party held Saturday evening, October 25. Miss Coltrane was awarded the palm for the evening's most novel costume, which, she averred, was that of a page. The class of '38 took first honors in the class skit competition with a short drama entitled "Break of Hearts, or Little Nell's Revenge," which was written, directed, and produced by the class.

The party, sponsored by the social committee, was held in the gym between the hours of 7:30 and 10:30. In addition to the class skits and the costume parade, the evening included the usual party games, in addition to special Hallowe'en stunts such as bobbing for apples. A novelty number in the form of a Virginia reel was introduced under the able direction of Ruth Stilson, who has long been noted as one of Maine's foremost exponents of that particular form of dancing. The evening's most noteworthy event, however, was the dispensation of cakes and ale (strictly ginger) by the committee. This was followed by dancing.

in the Hallowe'en motif was served to the following: Mrs. A. I. Newlin, Mrs. Clyde A. Milner, Mrs. E. G. Purdom, Mrs. F. C. Shepard, Mrs. P. W. Furnas, Mrs. E. H. F. Weiss, and Mrs. Russell Pope.

Miss Elizabeth Newlin, of King's Business College, Raleigh, was the guest during the past week-end of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Newlin.

The bi-weekly meeting of the Fine Arts Club took place Monday night, October 28. Frances McIver presided and an interesting program was presented, including the following attractions:

Mina Donnell rendered three piano selections, "Lento," by Cyril Scott; "The Lotus Flower," by Schumann, and "Solvejg's Song," by Grieg. Betty Trotter gave a piano solo, "Warum," by Schumann. Annie Lee Fitzgerald and Dorothy Pearson sang a duet, "O Press Thy Check," by Jensen.

Naomi Binford spoke on the merits of music methods. The orchestra then played several selections.

After the program, games were played for social entertainment, one of which was musical football.
